1. Introduction to the Todds .

The Three Todd Families of Rutherford and Cannon County TN

Descendants of Joseph Todd of Eling, England and
Todds of Brawleys and Carsons Fork, Rutherford/Cannon County, Tennessee

This book chronicles the history of three Todd families - one from England, one probably from Northern Ireland and the other of unknown origin - who all migrated to America and in their westward migrations, crossed paths in Rutherford and Cannon County Tennessee in the early 1800s. Over the decades, two of those families intertwined and intermarried such that the descendants no longer knew that their ancestors were from two different families.

The advent of DNA analysis in family history has enabled us to separate out the three families and show relationships within the two families that were not known until now.

The three families were:

Edmond Todd

Edmond Todd b 1786 North Carolina who settled 12 miles north of Murfreesboro about 1811. His daughter Elizabeth married James Henderson Baldrige and had a son Edmund Todd Baldridge. The Baldridges intermarried with the Gregory family in Crockett Co TN. The DNA from a descendant of Edmond Todd did not closely match any of the other Todds in Rutherford Co, but he may have kinship through one of his ancestral lines, other than the Todds or through kinship before the family came to TN..

Joseph Todd of Eling:

Joseph Todd was born about 1645 in the village of Eling in Southamptonshire, along the southern coast of England. In 1698, he brought his family to America settling in Philadelphia, but never got to enjoy the fruits of his migration because he and his wife died shortly after their arrival. Three of his grandchildren migrated to Northampton County in northeastern Pennsylvania and then, just before the Revolution, migrated to Rowan County North Carolina. After a generation in NC, branches of the family made their way to Madison County, Kentucky between 1795 and 1803. In 1809, several branches moved south to Rutherford County Tennessee, settling in the Big Springs area, southeast of Murfreesboro.

A separate book has been compiled for Walker Todd b 1822 and Jefferson Todd b 1814 because, though they seem to have a connection to the Big Springs Todds, that connection is not clearly defined.

Todds of Brawleys and Carons Fork

Three brothers (Jesse Todd b 1770-80, James B. Todd b 1788, and William T. Todd b 1793) were in North Carolina in the 1780s and 1790s. By 1806, Jesse Todd was in Wilson Co Tennessee and by 1811, all three were in Rutherford County. They had a sister Jemima Todd who married in 1821 to Hugh Brawley, the son of the Hugh Brawley who built one of the first mills in the area and who was the source of stream name, Brawley's Fork.

During 2011, DNA analysis and research into original county records revealed some of the secrets in both families' origins and relationships. This book integrates these new discoveries into the family history reported by previous family historians.

This history of his family is the product of dozens of family historians compiled over many decades. In 2003, Glenda Dobbs published her monumental work, Joseph Todd of Eling, in which she combined her own research with a compilation of the work of many historians, including Fowler Todd, Roma Todd, Norma Todd Cansler, Edna Todd Lackie, Yvonne Gamblin, Craig Burton Todd, Carl Davenport, Clara Jacobs, Darwin Newton, Clifford Todd, Ran Raider, Betty Silfies, Nancy Teruya, Lin Cornelius and others. In 2007, Glenda revised the book in electronic format to incorporate new discoveries.

The revisions in this book have benefitted also from the more recent research of Ricky Aaron Todd, Laverne Todd, Mike Todd, Doug Lowe, William Walker, Anita Steele, Judy Dye, Juanita McGuire, Linda McNally, Shirley Hutton, Kyle Williams, Mabel Phillips, Myrvin Harris, David Baldridge, Todd Moberly, Carol Todd, and Billy Gardenhire and for DNA samples and contributions from Harry Todd, Phillip Todd, Alvah Smith, Kay Wheeler, Ray Lantrip, Roy Pearson, Bertha Gardenhire, Bertha Burson, Memphis Carter, Elaine Herndel, Margaret Sanders, Jerry Lusk, Jimmie Medford, Fred Todd, Fowler Todd, Mark Todd, Carol Todd, Sterling Todd, James D. Todd, Patty McIntire, Thomas R. Todd, Margaret Cynthia Brumfeld, Sandra Beecham, Etta Josephine Harper, Margaret Gribble, Nolan Northcutt, Mary Ella Rutschman, Mildred Stowe, Jane Burroughs, Juanita Casement, Norma Debus, Ray Gregory, Patricia Pepper, Mary Lou Todd, Ann Overbey, Price Todd, Randy Gulley, Michael McFerrin, Phillip McFerrin, Douglas Gray Todd, Darren Todd, Lavette Brooks.

The version of the history of Joseph Todd of Eling you are now reading was created in 2011with minor revisions in 2013 to incorporate further discoveries and the results of a major DNA study. This study used the newly invented Family Finder DNA test of Family Tree DNA of Houston, TX to disclose relationships between the Todds never before known. The current revision is based on the Craig Burton Todd's consolidation of family data from numerous family historians of various branches of the family, along with published data in the public domain. It includes corrections and additions by Richard McMurtry, coordinator of the Todd Families in America Project.

The three families are organized in this book as three separate chapters. We have focused on the first two generations of the Edmond Todd and the Brawley's Fork/Carson's Fork Todds and the first 5 or 6 generations of the Joseph Todd of Eling family. Some branches of the family have more generations because researchers of those branches submitted electronic files of their branch which I have included uneditted. I have also include selected branches down to the present of those involved with the past years research.

For further details of subsequent generations, read Glenda Dobbs' book: Joseph Todd of Eling Thru Fourteen Generations or postings on the internet. The 2003 version of Glenda's book contains the descendants of James B. Todd and William Thomas Todd.

Thanks go to all those historians mentioned above as well as the individuals who donated DNA samples and donated the $5500 it took to pay for analyzing those samples. Without this level of commitment, we would never have been able to solve the puzzles revealed in this book. Special thanks to Glenda Dobbs with whom I collaborated on uncovering Todd history between 2003 and 2010. Special thanks to Carl/Wayne Davenport who has been my constant collaborator, strategizer and supporter and without whose assistance and encouragement this book would not have been completed.

This revision includes 12 significant changes:

1. Thomas Todd the Revolutionary War solider died Sept 1777 has been removed from the family tree because he appears to be from a Todd family of the Halifax District of eastern North Carolina, not Rowan County where the Joseph Todd of Eling descendants lived.
2. Thomas, Caleb and Benjamin Todd who came from Northampton County, Pennsylvania to Rowan Co about 1770 are listed as sons of Caleb Todd based on Caleb's being appointed overseer in 1745 of a Bucks co Township that at the time included part of Northampton Co. It is also possible that the boys were sons of Thomas Todd died 1732/3 Philadelphia, but the will of Sarah Todd in 1743, dau of Thomas d 1733, does not mention any brothers. There is absolutely no evidence to support the contention of earlier historians that Joshua was the father of the three boys.

4th generation

3. Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 of Rutherford and Cannon Co TN has been changed to be the consort of Benjamin Todd b 1759, rather than the sister of Benjamin Todd as previously recorded by family historians and rather than the sister-in-law of Benjamin Todd as also hypothesized. There is contradictory evidence for and against each of these possibilities as discussed in the text. However, the preponderance of the data suggests that Walker Todd, the grandson of Mary Todd 1762-1866 was also the grandson of Benjamin Todd b 1759. This is based on DNA samples showing that two descendants of Walker Todd were more closely related to two descendants of Benjamin Todd b 1759 than to other branches of the family.

5th generation

4. Caleb Todd b 1751 of Wilkes Co GA has been listed as the father of the eight Georgia born Todds:

Benjamin Todd b 1778-1855 d Jones Co GA,
John Todd b 1770-80 of Putnam and Meriwether Co GA,
William Todd b 1781 GA of Rutherford Co TN, Reuben Todd b 1785 GA of Rutherford Co TN, Editha Todd b 1793 GA,
Abel Todd b 1795 GA,
Sarah Todd b 1798 GA, and Samuel Bentley Todd b 1802 GA.

5. John Todd b 1770-1780 of Putnam and Meriwether Co GA has been listed as father of Benjamin G. Todd b 1800, Levi Todd b 1810, John Todd b 1812 and William A. Todd b 1817.

6. Caleb Todd b 1794 and Sugar Tom Thomas Todd b 1792 have been listed as a sons of Joseph Todd b 1757 and Mary Berry

7. Joseph Todd b 1770s md Rachel Quick in Madison County, KY in 1799 moved to the St Louis area by 1800 and died there about 1810. He is listed as a son of Caleb d 1795/96.

8. John Todd b 1773 md Patsy Collier is now listed as son of Benjamin Todd b 1721/1731, rather than son of Caleb as previously assumed.

6th generation

9. Walker Todd b 1822 has been listed as a son of Elizabeth Todd and grandson of Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 and Benjamin Todd b 1759 based on DNA evidence.

10. Asa Todd b 1817 has been listed as a son of Jemima Todd b 1800 and grandson of Benjamin Todd b 1759. This is based on an 1880 census record identifying Jemima as his mother and an 1855 estate record of Benjamin Todd identifying Jemima as a daughter of Benjamin.

11. Jefferson Todd b 1814 has also been listed as a great-grandson of the grandfather of Mary Todd 1762-1866 because of the large genetic distance between Jefferson Todd and Walker Todd and because of the apparent close connection of Jefferson to Walker in the historical record. This is a placeholder pending more definitive research results.

12. Baxter Todd's family has been added as son to Caleb Todd b 1794.

Todds of Brawley's Fork and Carsons' Fork

The principal change to this part of the Todds has been identifying James B. Todd b 1788 NC, William T. Todd b 1793 NC, and Jesse Todd b1770-1780 as brothers to each other and Jemima Todd who married Hugh Brawley in 1821 as a possible sister of theirs. The three males have male DNA unrelated to the male DNA of the Joseph Todd of Eling family. So they are either an unrelated family or related through a female Todd and an illegitimate son. Since we have not found this Todd family in the North Carolina records, we can not be sure of which of these alternatives is the correct interpretation.

I hope that you readers enjoy learning a bit about your ancestors!

The assumed progenitor of this family is:

2M i. William Tod was born about 1624.

Second Generation

2.William Tod (Introduction to the) was born about 1624 in Prob. Scotland.

Preface

About 1698, Joseph Todd of Eling, Southamptonshire, on the south coast of England came to Philadelphia with his grown son, his second wife and his young children. Sadly, he never lived to see the fruits of his migration because he died shortly after making the journey across the ocean. But his family grew and prospered and, over the generations, spread across America. The family came to Pennyslvania only 17 years after the founding of Pennsylvania by William Penn in 1682 and the family history reads like a history of the southern and westward expansion of the country as a whole.

See William Todd's father for an Introduction to this book.

Todd Origins

The Tod family surname first appears in the records of Berwickshire(Scotland) where they were recorded as an ancient Berwickshire family before the year 1100.

There is a Todd family from Fifeshire north of Edinburgh that shares a common DNA pattern with the Todds of Southamptonshire, but we can not document any connection between these two families.

The Tod family was affiliated with many different clans through marriage. The Clan Gordon claims the Tod/Todd family as a Sept, entitled to clan rights, including the use of the clan tartan. The tartan is blue and green with a yellow stripe in a plaid pattern. The ancient Tod family Coat of Arms of Scotland is described as follows: the Shield, silver with three foxes' heads; the Crest, a fox seated, and the motto is 'Oportet Vivere,' which means, 'It behooves us to live!'

This Todd family has its origins in the south of England in the villages of Eling and Lymington. Joseph is thought to be the Joseph Todd who was baptized in Eling in 1645 and his church record in Pennsylvania said he became a member of the Baptist Church in Lymington, England in 1688.

Eling is a Parish and Village near the head of Southampton Water, five-miles west from Southampton

The Town of Lymington lies on the West Side of the Solent, which is a thriving yachting centre and tourist attraction today. Normans developed salt pans and the town flourished on the export of salt. Lymington started to become well known as a shipbuilding and trading port during the Middle Ages.

Third Generation

4.Joseph Todd I (William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1645 in Eling, Southamptonshire, England. He died on 20 Sep 1699 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He was buried in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

(See also the discussion of family origins under Joseph's assumed father, William Tod.)

Joseph Todd was born in England about 1645 and is possibly the Joseph Todd baptised in Eling , Southamptonshire along the southern coast of Enlgand along with a brother Benjamin in 1645, sons of William Tod. He married in Eling to Anne Worsham in 1675.

His first son and only child with Anne Worsham was Joseph Todd born about 1678. Several years elapsed between Joseph Jr's birth and his marriage to Joanne Swift. His children Joshua, Caleb, Thomas, Elizabeth and Mary were born in England in the 1680s and 1690s. When the children were young, he moved with his entire family to Philadelphia, dying shortly after arriving there at the age of only 54. His will, written in March 1698, probably in England, was probated in September 1699 in Philadelphia. His wife Joanne died by the time of final probate in 1700.

Joseph Todd married for the first time in 1675 to Anne Worsham. Since he had only one son by his first wife, namely Joseph Todd born prior to 1677, Anne probably died shortly after Joseph’s birth. His children by his second wife were all minors when he wrote his will and probably were mostly born in the late 1680s or early 1690s based on the adult baptisms of Joshua in 1714 (born prior to 1693) and Elizabeth in 1730 (hence born prior to 1699), Thomas' and Martha's marriages in 1722.

Joseph's will written in March 1698 was probated in August 1700; so Joseph died sometime prior to August 1700 and traditionally this date has been reported as 1699 based on another probate date recorded in Sept 1699 which I have not seen. Below is a transcript of his will.

Will of Joseph Todd dated 02-Mar-1698 and probated 31-Aug-1700, Philadelphia Will Book B page 63 or 162/63.

"In the name of God, Amen; On the second day of March Anno Domis(1698): I, Joseph Todd of Eling, in the County of Southamptonshire, being in perfect memory, thanks be unto God for the same, and considering the frailty and uncertainty of this life, do make this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, First of all, I resign my soul into the hands and protection of Almighty God, my maker, and everlasting preserver, and my body I commit to the earth from whence it was taken, and for my worldly goods, which God in mercy hath lent and bestowed upon me, I do give and bequeath as followeth:

"Item: I give and bequeath unto my son, Joseph Todd, forty-pounds of lawful money of England, the full value thereof to be paid in money or goods by my executors, hereafter named, as soon as he shall come to and attain unto the age of one and twenty years, and if it shall happen that he should die before he shall attain unto the said age of one and twenty years, then his said portion of forty-pounds before given and bequeathed to him and remain equally divided between and amongst the rest of my children then surviving, as they shall attain unto the said age of one and twenty years, so to be paid by my executors hereafter named.

“Item: I give and bequeath unto the children, which now I have by my last wife, forever, twenty-pounds a piece of lawful English money. That is to say, unto Joshua, twenty-pounds, unto Caleb twenty-pounds, unto Thomas twenty-pounds, unto Elizabeth twenty-pounds, and unto Mary twenty-pounds, and it is my will and meaning that Joanne, my said wife, whom I do make sole executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, should have the use of the said twenty-pounds a piece last given and bequeath unto my named children, during the term of her natural life if she do remain a widow aft my decease, but in case she should marry another husband, that within one month aft her marriage, the said portion of twenty-pounds last given and bequeathed unto my said children, then to become due, and then to be paid by my said executors wife of any further delay, and in case any one of my said children should die and leave this world before they receive the said portion, then my will and meaning is the said portion or portions of the deceased should be equally divided between the survivors of them and whereas by promise. I, the said Joseph Todd, am engaged to pay unto Davy, the son of my bro, Daniel Todd, and unto James and Hatty Bradshaw, the children of Elizabeth, my sister, when they should attain unto the age of one and twenty years, five-pounds a piece when they should come of age to receive the same, and if either of my sister, Elizabeth's children, should die before they come to receive the same, then his or her share, due to dying, be paid unto the survivors of them. Lastly, all the residue of my money, goods, chattels and credits, I give unto my loving wife, Joanne, whom I do make and appoint to be sole executor of this my Last Will and Testament, and also I do nominate, desire, and appoint John Swift, the older, John Swift, the younger, Henry Abbot, and Pete (Peter) Chamberlyne to be overseers of this my Last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written. Signed, sealed, and declared in the presence of John MacShane, Richard Chandler, and Andrew Worsom (prob Worsham).”

Probated 31-Aug-1700 Philadelphia: “Personally appeared before me, Patrick Robinson, Secretary of ye Province of PA, ye written Joseph Todd, eldest son of ye written named Joseph Todd decd (ye within named executrix being decd) I did exhibit unto ye so office ye within as ye Last Will and Testament of ye so decd and did attest to being inventive and pay ye debts and legacies herein contained according to law.”

Signed Pat Robinson, Secre.

Joseph Todd’s baptism was recorded in the Pennepack Church Records, as occurring on 3 month 15 day 1698 in Lymington, England. This would be 15-May-1698. This means his will was drawn up in England and brought to America with him.

Below are further documentary records of this generation of the Todds. But before proceeding to that, we have inserted at this point, an overview of the migrations of the Todds throught the next four generations so that the details that follow can be placed in the context of the overview.

Migrations of the Todds

Let us pause in the listing of the descendants of Joseph Todd to go back and give an overview of the migrations of the Todds during their first 100 years in America.

FIRST GENERATION
In the first generation, there was the migration of Joseph Todd from Southamptonshire, England to Philadelphia about 1698 where he died in 1699.

SECOND GENERATION

In the second generation, Joseph Todd b abt 1679, the eldest son of Joseph Todd, migrated to Warminster on the western boundary of Bucks County and got a grant there in 1703.. It is possible his brother Caleb moved there also because there is a later land grant in 1742 to a Caleb Todd in the part of Bucks Co that became Northampton County..

THIRD GENERATION

In the third generation, three Todds - Thomas b abt 1727, Caleb b abt 1730 and Benjamin b abt 1732 appeared on the tax lists 1761-1768 for Bethelehem Township, Northampton County. Thomas appears on a record as being on land without a warrant in Bethlehem Township in 1752 and Benjamin appears on a cash account in 1756.

The only Todd we know to have been in this area prior to the 1760s was Caleb Todd. Caleb Todd obtained a 1742 land in Bucks County in what later became Williams Township, just south of Bethlehem Township, in Northampton County and in 1745, Caleb Todd was appointed overseer of Durham Township Bucks County which at that time included what became Williams Township, Northampton County. We therefore assume that the three young Todds on the 1760s tax lists were sons of this Caleb Todd. Other historians have theorized that these three were sons of Joshua Todd apparently based on Caleb Todd's having a son Joshua but no other evidence. Historians have also theorized that Thomas Todd who also became coroner of Northampton Co in 1757 might have been the son of Thomas Todd d 1733 Philadelphia since William Parson who founded Easton and died in 1757, was the great uncle of the wife of Thomas Todd d 1733. In any event, the three young men, namely Thomas b 1727, Caleb born abt 1730 and Benjamin born about 1732 migrated to Rowan County NC by 1772.

The Todds all settled on the East Side of the Yadkin River in a swath of land that extended between the confluences of the Yadkin River with four creeks - Swearing, Crow, Abbotts and Lick - and on two tributaries of the Uwaharrie River (Tom's Creek and Second Creek) whose headwaters lay just to the east of Lick Creek.

In 1782, a Caleb Todd resurveyed the land obtained by warrant in 1742 in Williams Township, Northampton County. Since there were no Todds in Northampton County in 1782 and since the land was patented to Henry Miller in 1797, it is conceivable that this Caleb was the Caleb Todd of Rowan Co NC but there is nothing on the survey to indicate where this Caleb was living.

FOURTH GENERATION

In the fourth generation, Joseph Todd b 1734, the great grandson of Joseph Todd d 1699, sold in 1767 the property his grandfather got by grant in 1701 in Warminster Township on the western edge of Bucks Co and moved to Solebury Township, on the eastern edge of Bucks County.

Meanwhile, down in North Carolina, Caleb b 1751 son of Benjamin b abt 1732, married and had a son Benjamin b 1778 in Rowan County NC, and then migrated to Wilkes County Georgia by 1781. Mary Todd married William Scudder in 1783 in Rowan Co and then the Scudder migrated to Wilkes County GA settling near Caleb Todd.

Then almost 20 years later, the big migration to Madison County KY began.

By 1792, the children of Thomas Todd b 1777 Rowan Co migrated to the Otter Creek area of Madison Co Kentucky. These included: Joseph Todd b 1748, his brother Thomas Todd, his sister Esther who married Abraham Lewis, Elizabeth who married Benjamin Cox, Jemima who married John Wagle.

About 5 years later, about 1797, the children of Caleb Todd b abt 1730 d 1795, along with Caleb's brother , Benjamin Todd b abt 1732 and Benjamin's children (except the two in Georgia), followed their kinsmen to Madison Co KY. They all settled in the Muddy Creek area, though William b 1765/1768 who had married his cousin Elizabeth Todd, dau of Caleb Todd b 1795, also bought land on Silver Creek, probably Hays Fork of Silver Creek. William's brother-in-law John Todd b 1773 later bought land on Hays Fork.

Caleb Todd b 1758 son of Caleb d 1795 didn't stay long in Madison County. By 1800, he was in Missouri where two of his children were born; then he returned to Kentucky where a son Reuben was born in 1805. Then he died and his widow Sarah appears in the 1810 census for Hopkins county, KY.

More of the family was bound to migrate to Madison County KY.

In 1799, William Scudder (husband of Mary Todd) died. HIs widow and son soon thereafter migrated to Madison County KY.

About 1803, Caleb Todd b 1751 transferred his lands to his eldest son Benjamin Todd b 1778 and leaving him and his brother John behind in Georgia, then migrated to Madison County KY with two of his children by his first wife as well as his second wife and the children they had together.

The migrations of the Todds did not stop in Madison County. After Caleb b 1751 died about 1807, his family went in two different directions. In 1809, his sons William b 1781 and Reuben b 1785 went south to Rutherford County, TN with their uncle Benjamin Todd b 1759 and Benjamin's adult children and minor children and with their first cousin Aaron Todd b 1784, son of their uncle Peter b 1756. They settled in what became Todd Hollow just north of Big Springs, TN. At the same time, Caleb's widow (Sarah Bentley Todd) migrated north with her children to Scott Co KY where she appeared on the 1810 tax list.

About 1810, Joseph Todd b 1748, the first Todd to come to Madison County, died. His son Joseph Todd moved to Hardin Co KY by 1810 and then by 1817 moved west to Howard County and then Platte County, Missouri.

So that gives a sense of the migrations of the variious Todd branches..

In 1699 William Penn returned to Philadelphia aft being away for fifteen years. He was very disturbed finding an epidemic of Yellow Fever in his colony, which wiped out 1/6th of the people. Perhaps it was this disease that caused Joseph and Joanne to die so shortly aft their arrival.

They had the following children:

8M i. Joseph Todd II was born about 1679. He died on 29 Dec 1721.

Joseph married (2) Joanne Swift in 1681/1682 in Prob. Isle of Wight. Joanne was born in 1645/1650 in Prob. Isle of Wight. She died before 31 Aug 1700 in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. She was buried in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

They had the following children:

9 M ii.Joshua Todd was born in 1681/1687 in England. He died in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He was buried in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

All that is known about Joshua is that he was born in England prior to 1787, witnessed a will in 1708 to Evan Morgan in PA, and was baptised in 1714 at Pennypack Baptist Church in north Philadelphia. We have no further record of Joshua.

Though previous family historians deduced that the Todds who came to Rowan County were children of Joshua, there is no evidence for this other than the appearance of the name Joshua in the lineages of the descendants.

To the contrary, the evidence suggests that the Todds who came to Rowan County were children of Joshua's brother Thomas.

Previous family historians also deduced that John B. Todd of Rowan County was a son of Joshua and linked him to the John Todd who married Judith Breland at Abington Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia County in 1724. DNA reveals that that the John B. Todd of Rowan County was from an unrelated family that was in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in 1742 and came to Rowan County by 1759, over a decade before the descendants of Joseph of Eling came to Rowan County. DNA and other documentary evidence also shows that John Todd of Abington Presbyterian Church was kin to the family of Mary Todd Lincoln and unrelated to the Joseph Todd of Eling family.

Our Todds were the Jersey Settlement Todds and there were several other distinct families in Rowan at the same time unrelated to our Todds. The Todds of Grant's Creek (John Sharp Todd lineand Little Dutchman Creek (Samuel and Nathan Todd) were not in close proximity to the Jersey Settlement. DNA testing has shown that the Grant's Creek Todds were related to the Lancaster County Todds that were in Lancaster County by 1742 and in Rowan County NC by the late 1750s.

Evan Morgan was Pastor of Pennepack Baptist Church and earlier of First Baptist in Philadelphia. Evan Morgan's wife was Mary Swift, possilby Joshua's cousin, since she was John Swift's daughter. Joshua Todd witnessed the will of Evan Morgan 11-Dec-1708. Also witnessing were John Manners and John Swift Jr in Philadelphia, PA.

10 M iii. Caleb Todd was born about 1686/1693.

11 M iv. Thomas Todd was born about 1690. He died on 20 Apr 1732/1733.

12 F v. Elizabeth Todd was born in 1691/1694 in Prob. England.

13 F vi. Mary Todd was born about 1695 in Prob. England.

Mary Todd was listed in her father's will. The Martha Todd baptised in 1707 is presumabably the wife of Joseph Todd Jr b 1678.

Mary married William Lunn on 30 Oct 1722 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. William was born about 1690.

5.Elizabeth Todd (William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1646/1651 in Prob. Eling, Southampton, England. She died before 1698.

Elizabeth m. a Bradshaw and had James and Hester. Elizabeth may have died before Joseph's will was written leaving these two children who were named in Joseph's will as heirs..

Elizabeth married A. Bradshaw .

They had the following children:

14 M i.James Bradshaw .

15 F ii.Hester Bradshaw .

6.Daniel Todd (William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1651/1656 in Prob. Eling, Southampton, England. He died before 1689.

There is an admns granted to Mary Todd, wife of Daniel of Southampton1689. Joseph Todd's will named Daniel as his brother.

Daniel married Mary Unknown in 1674/1679.

They had the following children:

16 M i.David 'Davy' Todd was born in 1675/1680 in Eling, Southamptonshire, England.

Davy was named in Joseph Todd's will as son of Daniel.

Fourth Generation

8.Joseph Todd II (Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1679 in Prob. England. He died on 29 Dec 1721 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He was buried in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

Joseph Todd was the only child of Joseph Todd and his first wife Anne Worsham. He was of age in 1698, so born prior to 1677. In 1701 he acquired 224 acres in Warminster in Bucks County. He married Martha Edwards in 1703. He joined the Pennepack Baptist Church in 1709 though he was also reported to have been a deputy working to resolve a religious controversy between various Baptist congregations in 1706. He also seems to have been involved with the Hopewell church in Hunterdon Co NJ in 1715. He died in 1721, probably only 44 and his will was recorded in Philadelphia. His wife Martha lived 27 years longer than he, dying in 1748.

Notes and Documentation:

Patent 1701, 224 acres in Bucks County.

Joined Pennepack Baptist Church in 1709.

Became admns of his father's will.
From History of Bucks County (Vol 1 page 182) by Davis:
“Joseph Todd, one of the early settlers of Warminster, took up a tract of two hundredand twenty-four acres and was conveyed to him by patent, 1701. It lay on the street road where York road intersects. The consideration was L30 10s. We know nothing of Joseph Todd, whence he came or whither he went, but his descendants are probably still in the county. Since then the property has changed hands several times, and been considerably reduced in acreage. It was in the Todd family for 68 years, they building a stone house on it in 1719, two of the rooms remaining in good condition with the stone date.

Notes and Queries Historical, Biographical, andGenealogical Relating Chiefly to Interior Pennsylvania (Annual VolP page 224) 1897:
"Alexander Edwards settled in Radnor. He and his family were Quakers. There at the home of David Price, Oct 20, 1692, his daughter Bridget, was married to Griffith Miles (brother of Richard Miles) born in Wales in 1670, immigrated to America about 1683. Another daughter, Jane, was married to James James at the same house. One month later, Nov 17, 1692, his daughter Martha was married. to Joseph Todd. These daughters, with their husbands, became Baptists after the Keithian Schism, Joseph Todd being one of the deputies that met at the house of Richard Miles Jun 22, 1706 to compromise matters of dispute among the Baptists." Note that this marriage year contradicts the official records.

From Pennsylvania Magazine, H & B (Vol 9) 1885, History of the Baptists in Delaware: "But we could not be in fellowship (at the Lord's table) with our brethren of Pennepack and Philadelphia, because they did not hold to the 'laying on of hands.' True, some of them believed in the ordinance, but neither preached it up nor practiced it, and when we moved to Welsh-Tract and left 22 of our members at Pennepack, and took some of theirs with us, the difficulty increased.We had many meetings in order to compromise matters, but to no purpose till Jun 22, 1706, then 25 deputies met at the house of Bro Richard Miles in Radnor." (The names of the deputies, among several others,were Peter Chamberlain, Samuel Griffith, John Snowden, John Swift Jr and Joseph Todd).

From The Complete Book of Emigrants 1661-1699 (V2 HR 325) by PeterWilson Coldham: "26-May-1699 Shippers by the Owners Adventure ofLondon, Mr. James Mitchell, bound from Southampton for PA: Joseph Todd (PRO: E190/841/1)."

“Hopewell - This church is distinguished from the township, where the meetinghouse stands, in Hunterdon County, NJ bearing northeast from Philadelphia, at the distance of 40 miles. The dimensions of the house are 40 feet by 50, built in 1747 on a lot of three quarters of an acre and the gift of John Hart, Esq.

“One of the three families, who first settled in the tract, now called Hopewell, was that of Jonathan Stout, who arrived here from Middleton, about 1706. The place then was a wilderness and full of Indians. Mr. Stout's wife was Ann Bullen, by whom he had nine children, namely Joseph, Benjamin, Zebulon, Jonathan, David, Samuel, Sarah, Hannah, and Ann. Six of these children are said to have gone to Pennsylvania for baptism. Thus it appears that Mr. Stout's family, including the father and mother, furnished eight members for the church. Seven other members are supposed to have been Thomas Curtis, Benjamin Drake, Ruth Stout, Alice Curtis, Sarah Fitzrandolph, Rachel Hide, and Mary Drake. These fifteen persons on the 23rd of Apr 1715 were organized into a church by the assistance of Abel Morgan and John Burrows, with their Elders Griffith Miles, Joseph Todd, and Samuel Ogden, and the same year they joined the Philadelphia Association..”

Joseph married Martha Edwards on 20 Jun 1703 in Warminster, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. Martha was born about 1681 in Prob. Warminster, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. She died on 30 Apr 1748 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. She was buried in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

She is daughter of Alexander Edwards Sr from Wales. He d. Nov 1712, according to Randall E Raider. stated they married in 1703, 4 Month 20 Day. (20-Jun-1703). Also states Martha Todd admitted in 1709/11, Joseph and Martha became members of the Pennepack Baptist Church in Philadelphia.

Joseph and Martha had the following children:

17 F i.Martha Todd was born about 1704 in Prob. Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. Martha married John Eaton about 1725 in Warminster, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA.

18 F ii.Hester Todd was born about 1711 in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

Hester Todd and Charles Steuart.

Hester married Charles Steuart on 15 Sep 1731 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

19 F iii.Elizabeth Todd was born in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. Elizabeth married John Jackson .

20 M iv.Joseph Todd III was born in 1712. He died on 3 Sep 1745.

10.Caleb Todd (Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1686/1693 in Prob. England.

Caleb Todd was one of the children of Joseph Todd d 1699 by Joseph's second wife Joanne Swift. He was born sometime in the 1680s or 1690s, but we don't have any way to pinpoint this more precisely.

Since his brother Joseph moved to Bucks County, Caleb seems also to have gone that route but further north in the county.

There is a Caleb Todd who was appointed overseer in 1745 in Durham Township of Bucks County (History of Bucks County, 1876, p 642) which lay in the far north of Bucks County and included what became Williams Township in Northampton County. A Caleb Todd had a 1742 land warrant survey that was resurveyed in 1782 in Williams Township. (Williams Township lay south of Bethehem PA where a Caleb, Thomas and Benjamin all appeared in the 1760s tax lists for Northampton County.) This land was patented to Henry Miller in 1797.

In 1752, in Northampton County, a Caleb Todd was an administrator of the estate of Thomas Richards. This could be the same Caleb Todd as was associated with Williams Township especially if his son Caleb was not born until 1734 (based on Caleb the son being 31 at birth of first child in 1765) and hence being too young to be the Caleb of the estate administration.

Richards Thomas ltr of Adm granted Isaac Richards, Caleb Todd & Joseph Richards all of Northampton Co, yeoman 24 Nov. 1752. I am unable to determine who this Richards family was; however, there was a Joseph Richards 1733-1816 who died in Williams Township.

We also have a report of a Caleb Todd selling land to a Lewis Enger though we have no reference to where this sale took place.

Since there were no Todds in Northampton County in the 1770s and early 1780s based on published tax lists in the Pennsylvania Archives, it would appear that the Caleb Todd who had the land resurveyed in 1782 could have been Caleb Todd b abt 1730-40 of Rowan County,. Since the land was not patented until 1797, the land might have been released after Caleb Todd's death in 1795.

This suggests that the Caleb Todd who was overseer in 1745 acquired the land warrant for this land in 1742, but somehow the right to the land devolved to Caleb Todd of Rowan Co. Other interpretations might also be possible.

This throws a monkey wrench into our efforts to sort out the origins of the Todds. If Caleb Todd was in the Bethlehem area in 1745, then he could have been the father of Thomas, Caleb and Benjamin, rather than his brother Thomas died 1733 Philadelphia being that father At this point, we have no way to sort this out, but we are placing the three brothers as sons of Caleb based on the assumption they were brothers and based on Caleb being the only Todd in the Northampton County area old enough to have fathered the three boys.

Nothing more about Caleb is known, but it is tempting to consider that he may have been the ancestor of the mysterious Joseph Todd b 1770-80 d 1819 in Fauquier Co Virginia. DNA from this Joseph matches the rest of the family but no documentary evidence of where this Joseph connects to the family has been found.

Notes and Documentation

Caleb Todd warrantee for a survey dated 16 Apr 1742 with warrant dated 9 Feb 1743, resurveyed in 1872 to Caleb Todd. (Survey C 232, p 174). The land was patented to Henry Miller 24 June 1796, (Patent Book: P 33, 198.)

Neighbors on the survey were Benedict Lutz, George Laubach, Jacob Younker, Frederick Fretchy, Conrad Trinkle and Conrad Hoot. Benedict Lutz 1735-1818 died in Lower Saucon Township, Northampton Co; There was a Jacob Schimer who died at Redington, Lower Saucon Township, whose estate has accounts related to Benjamin Todd (case for work done) and Benedict Lutz and Conrad Hoot.

There was a Bernhardt Miller 1722-1792 who died in Williams Township who had a son George Heinrich Miller who was probably the Henry Miller who acquired Caleb Todd's land.

We therefore assume that the Benjamin, Thomas and Caleb in the 1760s tax lists are sons of Caleb Todd of the 1740s records mentioned above.

Note the following agreement written in 1788 refers to land that once was that of Caleb Todd and Ulrich Sleepy. Presumably this is a clue as to where Caleb Todd lived in Northampton Co before moving to Rowan County:

There was a Caleb Todd who married in Lymington in England in 1736 (Hampshire Marriage Register of Bishop of Winchester 1689-1837: Caleb Todd Jr of Lymington m. Sarah Parsons 28-Aug-1736). It is not clear what relationship this Caleb has to Joseph Todd d 1699 nor to the Caleb Todd who had a warrant for land in 1743 in Bucks Co nor to the Parson family of Philadelphia.

All Caleb's sons went to Rowan County between 1768 and 1772 and settled in the Jersey Settlement along the Yadkin River. This area was located below (southeast) the forks of the South and North Yadkin River The Trading Camp Settlement of 1750 was across the river on the West Side. The earliest families were in this settlement as early as 1745. According to First Families of Jersey Settlement by Ethel Stroupe, "

The first settlers were Hopewell citizens who migrated aft being swindled by Proprietors and royal Governors, especially Dr. Daniel Coxe and his son, Col Daniel Coxe, two powerful and greedily villainous Proprietors, in The Coxe Affair. What these Jersey men endured in Hopewell directly affected the Yadkin's Revolutionary generation, explaining why Jersey Settlement had reacted so violently against NC's corrupt Governor William Tryon's sticky-fingered royal officials, John Frohock, Rowan Court Clerk, and Edmund Fanning. King's Attorney, whose thievery and injustices caused the 1771 Regulator War (considered by historians the first true battle of the American Revolution), and caused Charles Lord Cornwallis to call central North Carolina 'a hornet's nest of rebellion.' The earliest families came from Hopewell Twp, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, where some had been members of Pennington's Presbyterian Church, and others were Quakers and Baptists who baptized their children in St. Mary's Episcopal Church for practical, political reasons."

Swearing Creek, where we know Benjamin settled, is where Thomas Smith received land in 1745/6. "He fled Hopewell with John Parke and had rebelled so strongly in Hopewell that he became a fugitive and died at his home on Swearing Creek. At least 22 of the 50 families who lost both lawsuit and land in the infamous Coxe Affair eventually moved to Jersey Settlement.

Caleb had the following children:

21 M i. Thomas Todd was born in 1717/1727. He died in 1777/1778.

22 M ii. Benjamin Todd I was born in 1721/1731. He died in 1817/1820.

23 M iii. Caleb Todd Sr. was born in 1730/1740. He died in 1795/1796.

11. Thomas Todd (Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1690 in Prob. England. He died on 20 Apr 1732/1733 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He was buried in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

Thomas was born in England in the 1690s1790s. He lost his father and mother as a young boy and presumably was raised by his kin. He married in 1722 to Elizabeth Cummins. He was a glazier (cutter and fitter of windows) when he died at a young age 35 or 40, in 1733.

He had a daughter Sarah and a son Thomas prior to the 1729 will of Richard Cummins his father-in-law.

There are two theories as to the parentage of the three Todds who appeared in the Northampton Co tax lists 1761-1768 and then in Rowan Co NC thereafter. One theory is that the three were all sons of Thomas d 1733 Philadelphia; another theory is that they were sons of the Caleb Todd who was appointed overseer in Durham Township Bucks Co in 1745 - when Durham Township included what became Williams Township, Northampton County, just south of Bethlehem, The third theory is that Thomas was son of Thomas d 1733 and that Benjamin and Caleb were sons of Caleb Todd.

Given that Caleb Todd was the only Todd known to be in Northampton County prior to the 1750s, we assume that Caleb Todd is the most likely father of the three Todd young men (Benjamin, Caleb and Thomas) in the 1750s and 1760s records of Northampton County.

A previous theory thought that the three Todds in Northampton were the sons of Joshua Todd and another theory was that they were all sons of Thomas Todd d 1733.

Under the last theory, it appeared that Thomas d 1733 was the father of Thomas, Sarah, Benjamin and Caleb Todd. His will mentions no children, but the will of his father-in-law Richard Cummins in 1729-30 mentions Thomas Todd and Sarah Todd. Because of the connection of his wife to the William Parsons who founded Easton in 1752, it was theorized that Thomas born about 1727 was the son of Thomas d 1733 and that Thomas born about 1727 was the Thomas Todd who became the coroner of Easton for a year in 1757. Similarly, since Thomas, Benjamin and Caleb Todd all appear in the tax lists for Northampton Co 1761-1768 and then appear together in Rowan Co NC in the 1770s, it was believed that all three were brothers and that Benjamin and Caleb were born between Richard Cummin's will of 1729/30 and Thomas' death 1732/33.

Some historians have assumed that since Richard Cummins' will identified only two children, that Benjamin and Caleb must have been children of another brother, such as Joshua. But there are still a few years between Richard Cummins' death in 1729/30 and Thomas' death 1732, so there could have been more children. Also we have no evidence for any other brother of Thomas having had children.

This theory has some validity but it is more likely that Caleb was the father of the three Todds.

The chart below shows the connection of the sons of Thomas to William Parsons, the founder of Easton in 1752, namely, he was their great-uncle. Such close relationship would account for the sons of Thomas d1733 moving to Easton by 1761 and for Thomas becoming coroner in 1757.

There was a John Todd buried in Christ Church yard in March 5, 1730, but there is no evidence that he was son of Thomas, but it is possible. I have not listed him as a son of Thomas.

Constable of Mulberry Ward in the City of Philadelphia in 1722.

Will of Sarah, daughter, 14-Oct-1743, names John and Elizabeth Cummins as cousins and mentions her aunt, Grace Parsons. From 40 Families of Easton, William Parsons and wife Grace, aunt to Richard and Sarah Cummins (parents of Elizabeth who married Thomas Todd, 1722).

Bethlehem and Easton are in Northampton County PA which was created from Bucks County in 1752.

The tax lists of Northampton County are very important evidence as it shows that there were not two Thomas Todds in Northampton and that the Thomas who was there was closely associated with Benjamin and Caleb Todd. Hence, these appear to be the three Todds who disappeared from Northampton County after 1769 and appeared in Rowan County by 1772. I suggest they are brothers to each other and sons either to Caleb Todd b 1680s/1690s or to Thomas Todd died 1733, and most likely to Caleb Todd since he is the only Todd shown to be in the Northampton County area prior to the 1750s.

We note that Sarah makes no mention of any brothers which supports the theory that the three brothers were not sons of Thomas d 1733 but rather were sons of Caleb Todd the 1745 overseer.

Thomas married Sarah Elizabeth Cummins on 4 Feb 1722 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. Sarah was born about 1694 in Kentucky or Pennsylvania, USA. She died after 1733.

Thomas and Sarah had the following children:

24 F i.Sarah Todd was born about 1725 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. She died before 3 Nov 1743 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

Based on the wills of Sarah Todd, Robert Parsons and Richard Cummins and other Parsons family sources, Grace Parsons who took care of Sarah Todd in her illness appears to be her 60+ year old great grandmother. Grace was the widow of Robert Parsons who died as a young man in 1708. Their son William 1701-1757 was the founder of Easton in 1752. Grace's daughter Sarah married Richard Cummins.

Richard Cummins died 1729 and in his will named his children John Cummins and Elizabeth Cummins as well as son-in-law Thomas Todd and his grandchildren Sarah and Thomas Todd and Richard, John, Elizabeth and Sarah Cummins. Sarah Todd mentioned in her willl her cousins John and Elizabeth Cummins (who were children of her uncle John Cummins).

The family connection to William Parsons may have contributed to Thomas b 1727, Caleb b abt 1730 and Benjamin b abt 1732, moving to Easton from Philadelphia.

However, the recent discovery of the appointment in 1745 of Caleb Todd as overseer of Durham Twp, Bucks County which included what became Northampton Co PA suggests that Caleb might have been the father of the three boys. Since Sarah did not mention any brothers, this supports the theory that Caleb Todd the 1745 overseer was their father.

WILL OF ROBERT PARSONS

I Robert Parsons of Philadelphia in the Province of Pensilvania being at present weak in body but of a sound and perfect mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say, FIRST I commend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God, Hoping through the Merits Death and Perfession of my Saviour Jesus Christ to have full and free Pardon and forgiveness of all my sins and to inherit Everlasting Life And my body I comitt to the earth to be descently buried at the direction of my executrix hereafter named and as touching the disposition of all such temporall estate as it hat pleased almighty god to bestow upon me I give and dispose thereof as followeth.

FIRST my will is that all my just Debts and funorall charges be payd and disscharged by my executrix hereafter named.

ALSO I give unto each of my children to Witt, Edith, William, Mary and Sarah Parsons the sum of ten pounds apiece this Country money to be paid them as they shall respectively Attain their full age of Twenty one years.

ALSO I give Devise and Bequeath unto my Dear and Loving Wife Grace Parsons All my house and lott situate lying and being on the west side of the Second Street in Philadelphia aforesaid with all the improvements and Credit and Land appurtenances thereunto belonging And also all the rest and residue of my estate both real and personal and whatsoever and wheresoever TO HOLD to her and to her heirs [?] and Assigns forever.

AND LASTLY I constitute and appoint my said wife to be sole executrix of this my last will and testament. IN WITNESS whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal dated the Second Day of August in the year of our LORD One thousand seven hundred and eight.

Sarah Todd remained in Philadelphia after the death of her father in 1732/3. Her mother seems to have died in the intervening 10 years also since Elizabeth Todd is not mentioned in Sarah's 1743 will.

Sarah mentions being taken care of by Grace Parsons, her kinswoman and mentions her cousins John and Elizabeth Cummins. As shown in the following chart, Grace Parsons was probably her great grandmother the widow of Robert Parsons. John and Elizabeth Cummins were her first cousins by John Cummins, their maternal uncle.

The Will of William Parsons in 1757 makes bequests to “my late sister Mary’s children” and to “my sister Sarah’s two children”. And “my niece Elizabeth Cummins”. His executor was Evan Morgan whose name sake had a will witnessed by Joshua Todd in 1708. Possibly the reference to Elizabeth Cummins was to his great-niece Elizabeth Cummins.

Will of Sarah Todd, Oct 14, 1743 Philadelphia, PA: The fourteenth day of Oct, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and forty-three: "I Sarah Todd, of the City of Philadelphia, Spinster, and being sick and weak of body, but of sound mind and memory, blessed by God for the same and all his other mercies and forever do think fit to make my Last Will and Testament in answers following that is today. First, it is my mind and will that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be discharged and as for and concerning that my meperage (?) and lot of ground thereto belonging, containing in breadth on Vine Street, fifty feet, and on Second Street, sixty feet, I give and bequeath the same unto my loving kinswoman, Grace Parsons, of the said City, widow, in consideration of her extraordinary care of me during my sickness. To hold to her the said Grace Parsons during her natural life and from immediately aft the determination of her (?) for life aforesaid. Then as for and concerning my said meperage (?) of lot, I give and bequeath thirty feet thereof in breadth on Second Street and fifty feet in depth ovine Street unto my cousin, John Cummins, his heirs and assigns forever. He paying unto my cousin, Thomas Bright, son of Anthony Brightby my (?) and his former wife, the sum of (?) pounds. And I give and devise the residue of my said lot, being thirty feet in breadth on Second Street and fifty feet deep, unto my cousin, Elizabeth

Cummins, during her natural life and aft the determination of her my said cousin, Elizabeth, this estate for life. As aforesaid I give and bequeath the same last mentioned thirty feet lot unto such child or children as the my said cousin, Elizabeth, shall have living at the time of her death and to their respective heirs and assigns forever. And my said gift to my said cousin, Elizabeth, is upon this condition that she pay unto my said cousin, Thomas Bright, the sum of four pounds. And as for and concerning that my fifty foot lot of ground on the North Side of Vine Street aforesaid between ground lot of Thomas Storey on the west and ground of my said cousin, Elizabeth Cummins, on the east, I give and bequeath the same fifty foot lot with the (?)unto my said kinswoman, Grace Parsons, and to her heirs and assigns forever. The paying and discharging all my just debts and funeral charges, including the Proprietary Quit Rent now due on my first above-mentioned lot. And I do nominate and appoint her the said Grace Parsons to be the executor of this my Last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I, the said Sarah Todd, have hereunto set my hand of seal the day and year first within written (the x mark of Sarah Todd).Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the above names, testifying Sarah Todd as her Last Will and Testament in presence of us who have subscribed our names as in the presence of the said testators: Caparison, William Parsons, and Robert Greenway."

Philadelphia on Nov 3, 1743: "then personally appeared Caspar Wiston,William Parsons, and Robert Greenway, the witnesses to the foregoing will and the said Caspar and William on their solemn affirmation and the said Robert on his oath respectively did declare they knew and heard of Sarah Todd, the testative within named. Signed, sealed, published, and declared the same to be her Last Will and Testament and that at the doing thereof, she was of sound mind, memory, d understanding to the best of their knowledge. Be it remembered that on the 3rd day of Nov 1743, the Last Will and Testament of Sarah Todd,decd, was proven in our form of law. Pete Evans, Registrar." (Sarahwas single).

Sarah was not married to Unknown .

25 M ii.Thomas Todd was born about 1727 in Philadelphia. He died prob prior to 1743.

Since Thomas' sister Sarah Todd left a will in 1743 that didn't mention any brothers, we assume that her brother Thomas had died. Therefore, we assume that the brothers Thomas, Caleb and Benjamin Todd in the 1761-1768 tax lists of Northampton Co are most likely the sons of Caleb Todd who was appointed overseer of Durham Twp which included the area just south of Bethlehem in what became Northampton County.

Fifth Generation

20.Joseph Todd III (Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1712 in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He died on 3 Sep 1745 in Warminster, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. He was buried in Oxford, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA.

Joseph was born in 1712 in Philadelphia and lived a short life dying in 1745, only 33 years old.

Abstracts from Ben Franklin's Pennsylvania Gazette 1728/48,04-Oct-1739: ``Owners of a horse and mare may obtain them from Evan Jones and Henry Cary at the Plantation of Joseph Todd in Warminster,Bucks County. 15-Jan-1741, Letters brought to the Post Office at Philadelphia that remains unclaimed: James Todd to the care of Andrew Kilpatrick and Joseph Todd of Warminster, Bucks County. (not yet of age); to wife Elizabeth, all personal estate, the use of the land till sons are of age and then they to payer something annually, lb. 5 each.´´

Jun 23,1762: ``Joseph Todd of Warminster, Bucks County, yeoman, to Elizabeth Todd, wid and exr of Joseph Todd, father of Joseph; to Martha Todd 100acres in Warminster and to her only son and heir at law, Joseph Todd, whose will dated Aug 12, 1745 and proved Oct 28, 1749, gave to sons, Joseph and Charles, of whom Charles died soon after in minority, 40 shillings, 33 acres, part of 100 acres.´´

Joseph married Elizabeth Finney . Elizabeth was born in Tacony, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. She died in Prob. Warminster, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. She was buried in Oxford, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA.

They had the following children:

26 M i.Joseph Todd IV Dr. was born on 8 Apr 1734. He died about 1775.

27 F ii.Elizabeth Todd was born on 5 Jul 1736 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA.

The Bible says she was born on Monday at 2 o´clock in the morning.

28 F iii.Hannah Todd was born on 8 May 1738 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA.

The Bible says she was born at 4 o'clock in the morning.

29 F iv.Rebecca Todd was born on 4 Jun 1740 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA.

The Bible says she was born on Wednesday.

30 F v.Mary Todd was born on 15 Nov 1742.

31 M vi. Charles Todd was born on 24 Jul 1744 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA. He died before 1765.

Charles died before age of 21 and shortly after his father's death.
The Bible says he was born on Tuesday before 3 o'clock in the morning(Record of Dr. Meredith).

21. Thomas Todd (Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1717/1727 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He died in 1777/1778 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Thomas Todd was born about 1717-1727 based on being 21-31 at the birth of his son Joseph in 1748. Though previously thought to be the Thomas mentioned as a son of Thomas Todd died 1733 Philadelphia, the new evidence that a Caleb Todd was in the Northampton County area in 1742 and 1745 suggests that Thomas was the son of this Caleb. Also, Sarah Todd d 1748, daughter of Thomas Todd d 1733 did not mention any brothers in her will though she mentioned several cousins which suggests that the three Todd men in Northampton in the 1760s were not brothers to Sarah.

Thomas was in Northampton County by 1752 when the Proprietors requested that he be detained for being on land in Bethlehem Township, Northampton County without a warrant. He was a jury foreman in 1755, appointed coroner in 1757 and named as a replacement for the sheriff in 1759.

He appears in the Northampton Tax Lists 1761-1768 as previously described in detail. By 1772, he had settled in Rowan County NC with Benjamin and Caleb, assumed to be his brothers. He bought 260 acres on the East Side of the Yadkin River in 1772 which he bequeathed to his sons in 1777. He died between October 1777 and Feb 1778, leaving a wife and 6 children.

Previous family historians thought that there were two Thomas Todds in Rowan Co - one being the son of Thomas died 1732/3 and one being the son of Joshua Todd. One they thought was the Thomas Todd a soldier who died in Sept 1777 and one they thought was the Thomas Todd who made his will in October 1777. However, closer inspection of the military records indicates that the Thomas Todd who died in Sept 1777 lived in a different part of North Carolina. Hence there is only one Thomas Todd in Rowan Co in the family of Joseph of Eling. So there is no strong evidence for the three Todds who migrated to Rowan County not being brothers.

Thomas Todd was born about 1717-27 based on assuming an age of 20-30 on the birth of his son Josseph in 1848. the birth of his son Joseph and is listed as a child of Thomas in the Will of his grandfather Richard Cummins. He became coroner of Northampton County in 1757, presumably because of the intervention of his great-uncle William Parsons 1701-1757, the founder of Easton. Thomas, along with this brothers Benjamin and Caleb appear on the Northampton County tax lists 1761-1769.

The misleading information about there being two Thomas Todds in Rowan County came from a DAR record which erroneously identified the Thomas Todd who died while serving in the Revolutionary War as the Thomas of Rowan County. Military records for the Thomas who died in September 1777 show that he was from the Halifax area of North Carolina, far to the east of Rowan County.

Thomas married Elizabeth Unknown about 1747 in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. Elizabeth was born about 1723 in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

They had the following children:

32 M i.Joseph Todd was born in 1748. He died in 1810.

33 M ii.Thomas Todd was born about 1749 in Pennsylvania, USA. He died in 1814 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Thomas Todd was born about 1749 in PA and came with his parents to Rowan Co NC as a young man about 1770. He married Elizabeth Young in 1786. In 1789, he and his brother Joseph sold the land inherited from thier father Thomas as well as 100 acres gotten by grant by Joseph in 1786. By 1792, he and his brother Joseph and his married sisters Ester Lewis, Jemima Wagle, and Elizabeth Cox all arrived in Madison Co KY.

Thomas died in 1814 and left a will naming wife, Elizabeth, and leaving his estate to Levi Todd, "son of my bro, Joseph Todd".

Rowan County, North Carolina Marriage Records 1754-1866 by Frances T. Ingmire made an error in her book and has Elizabeth Young m. to Joseph Todd on 18-Dec-1786. The bond was signed by Joseph Todd for the marriage of Thomas Todd to Elizabeth Young. The marriage bond from the Div of Archives and Records Management in NC, reportedly was signed by James Scrivner and Joseph Todd. James Scrivner was also a migrant from Northampton Co PA and also made the migration to Madison Co KY.

The following is the first group that went to Madison County from Rowan, based on the 1795 tax list:

Todd, Joseph 1748 Madison County son of Thomas Todd/ Elizabeth Unknown.
Todd, Thomas Sr 1749 Madison County son of Thomas Todd/ Elizabeth Unknown.

Todd, Isaiah 1770 Madison County son of Joseph Todd b 1748 & Ann Crose

Sr and Jr used to distinguish between same names and not necessarily father and son.

So we have two sets of brothers as the first Todd arrivals.

Thomas Sr listed on Otter Creek with 123 acres for the time period of 1801-1809, though the first deed we have for him is for 23 acres on Otter Creek in 1808 (Book F, p 687). Thomas or more accurately his estate sells 128 acres on Otter Creek in 1816 (Book L, page 430).

Thomas married Elizabeth Young on 18 Dec 1786 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Elizabeth was born in Prob. Pennsylvania, USA. She died in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

34 F iii. Ester Hester /Todd was born on 16 Apr 1750 in Pennsylvania, USA. She died on 25 Jul 1821 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Esther was born in Northampton Co PA in 1750 per bible record and married Abraham Lewis in 1770 though I have not found the documentation of the place of marriage.

Abraham Lewis enterede land on Crow Creek in Rowan Co in 1778 and secured a grant for it in 1786. His land was between Benjamin Todd and Caleb Todd, presumably Benjamin's land on Swearing Creek and Caleb Todd's land on Crow and Abbotts Creek.

172: Book 11, p 121 25 Oct 1786 State Grant # 1146 to Abraham Lewis , 89 ac on Crow Creek adj McCulloch, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd and Henry Sloan

Abraham and Ester moved from Rowan County, NC to Madison County, KYand both reportedly died there. They were members of the Jersey Baptist Church at Rowan County, NC.

Abraham Lewis was the son of Abraham and Rebecca Davis Lewis. Abraham and Ester
Lewis were named as members and founders of the Jersey Baptist Meetinghouse (Davidson) NC. Oct 16,1784, he was chosen Deacon. In 1795 they applied for Letter of Dismissal and it was granted 01-Aug-1795.

Ester married Abraham Lewis Jr. on 29 Oct 1770 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.
Abraham was born on 29 May 1751 in Prob. Rowan County,

North Carolina, USA. He died on 7 Jun 1813 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

172: Book 11, p 121 25 Oct 1786 State Grant # 1146 to Abraham Lewis , 89 ac on Crow Creek adj McCulloch, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd and Henry Sloan

There is a Lewis Bible containing records of this family. The Bible was printed in Philadelphia by William Hancock for MatthewCarey. It states the Lewis family moved to Madison County, KY by approximately 1795.

35 F iv. Elizabeth Todd was born about 1752.

36 F v.Sarah Todd was born about 1756 in Pennsylvania, USA.
Sarah married Unknown Cox in Prob. Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

37 F vi.Jemima Todd was born on 19 Jan 1759. She died on 30 Apr 1850.

22.Benjamin Todd I (Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1721/1731 in Prob. Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. He died in 1817/1820 in Boonesborough, Madison, Kentucky, USA.

Benjamin Todd was born about 1721-1731 in Philadelphia or Bucks County based on being 20 - 30 at birth of oldest son Caleb estimated at 1751/8. He married in Bucks County or Northampton County to Sarah Giffin/Griffin. Though previously thought to be a son of Joshua Todd or Thomas Todd d 1733, the appearance of a Caleb Todd in the Northampton County in 1742 and 1745 suggests instead that Caleb Todd was the likely father of Benjamin.

He was listed on a cash account in Northampton County in 1756. Afterwards he appears in the Northampton County tax lists 1761-1768. He also was listed in the estate settlement of Jacob Scheimer of Redington, Lower Saucon Township as having been paid for work in 1764.

As a young man with wife and children, about 1770, he made the migration southward to Rowan County North Carolina. He made a land entry in February 1778 for 525 acres on Swearing Creek, presumably a mile or so south of the Jersey Settlement Church founded by Baptists who had moved there from New Jersey many years before.

Saraha seems to have died prior to 1790 as she does not appear on the census in 1790.

Then after over 25 years in North Carolina, he sold his 525 acres on Swearing Creek in 1796. By 1797, he and most of his children followed his cousins to Madison County Kentucky settling on Muddy Creek. He married Anna Johnson in Madison County in 1805. He died there between 1817 and 1820.

Notes and Documentation:

The will of Peter Giffin in 1791 in Northampton County mentions his sister Sarah, wife of Benjamin Todd of North Carolina.

Previous family historians seem to have been misled by a DAR record that asserted that the Thomas Todd who died in Sept 1777 in the Revolutionary War was from Rowan Co NC. Since there was a Thomas Todd who made a will in October 1777, this would imply that there were two Thomas Todd's of the same age in Rowan County and hence must have been cousins, i.e. sons of different brothers. They assumed that Thomas who died in Sept 1777 was the son of Thomas Todd who died in Philadelphia in 1733 since they knew from the will of Thomas' father-in-law that Thomas had a son Thomas. So they assumed that the “other” Thomas and his brothers Benjamin and Caleb were the sons of a brother of Thomas d 1733 and concluded that brother must be Joshua.

It is not clear why they thought that Joshua was the father since there are absolutely no records of the adult Joshua Todd other than his baptism in 1714 and his witnessing of a will in 1708. Caleb Todd had a son named Joshua, but this is not cause to assume that Caleb’s father was Joshua.

Furthermore, closer inspection of the military records of North Carolina shows that the Thomas Todd who died in Sept 1777 served in a regiment recruited from eastern North Carolina (Halifax County area) where another Todd family lived. Hence, there were not two Thomas Todds in Rowan County and so there is no reason to assume the three Todds in Rowan County: Thomas, Caleb and Benjamin were anything other than brothers and sons of the same father.

Earlier family historians noted that Thomas Todd d 1733 Philadelphia had a father-in-law (Richard Cummins) who died in 1729 and made mention of his grandchildren: Thomas and Sarah Todd. They used this to support the notion that Benjamin, Caleb and Thomas must be sons of a brother to Thomas Todd. Though Thomas could have had additional children between 1793 and 1733, it seems likely that Sarah Todd would have mentioned them in her will if she had brothers living. I conclude that her brother Thomas had died by 1743 when she wrote her will. The historians also did not seem to have considered Caleb Todd as the possible father of the three.

Benjamin appeared on the tax lists of Bethlehem Township along with his brothers Caleb and Thomas. He appears in 1761, 1762, 1767, 1768. Only in 1764 do his brothers appear without him on those tax lists.

Benjamin (I) Todd is on the 1778, 1784 and 1790 tax records of Rowan County, NC. He was on the 1790 Federal Census in Salisbury Dist of Rowan County with 2M o 16 and 2M u 16. One male over 16 would be himself and another unknown son . The two males under 16 would be two more unknown sons.

About 1797, he and his family migrated to Madison County Kentucky and settled in the Muddy Creek area. He died between 1817 and 1820 in Madison County.

Update on Family Traditions

There are traditions the relationship of the Todds of Wilkes County Georgia and Rutherford/Cannon County TN for which different conclusions have been reached in this revision. They concern: (1) John Todd b 1752, (2) Elizabeth Todd md Andrew McClain 1775 Rowan Co (3) Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 who lived in Cannon Co TN, (4) Mary Todd who married William Scudder in 1783 in Rowan Co NC, (5) Jesse Todd b 1770-1780 who settled near Benjamin Todd 1759 son of Benjamin b 1730, (6) Edmund Todd b 1786 NC.

(1) John Todd b 1752

The family tradition included an exact birth date for John Todd in 3 June 1752. However, no other records have been found that pertain to this John Todd. The many records that have been said to pertain to this John have been proven to pertain to other John Todds.

The family tradition that John Todd b 1752 and his sons Benjamin and Levi came to visit their father in Rutherford Co TN suggested that Benjamin Todd (I) b 1730 was in Rutherford County TN at some point in time. John and his sons, Benjamin and Levi were reported by the family tradition to have lived with Benjamin for sometime in Rutherford Co TN. However, recent research shows that the John Todd with sons Benjamin and Levi in Georgia was not John Todd b 1752, but rather a John Todd b 1770-1780 who lived on the Jones-Putnam County, Georgia boundary, son of Caleb Todd b 1751/8 who lived in Wilkes County ,GA between 1781 and 1803. It is possible that the family tradition is a memory of a visit by this John to his kinfolk in Tennessee sometime after 1810 and that John returned to Georgia as the family tradition reports. This John may have indeed visited his kinfolk in TN, but he was the grandson of Benjamin b 1730 and the nephew of Benjamin b 1759, not the son of Benjamin b 1730.

(2) Elizabeth Todd md 1775 Andrew McClain

Elizabeth Todd: It was previously thought that the following reference to the marriage of Elizabeth Todd to Andrew McClain in 1775 with John Todd as a bondsman was a reference to a daughter of Benjamin Todd I b 1725/30 and her brother John b 1752.

Elizabeth Todd married 10-May-1775 Andrew McClain. John Todd, Bondsman. Andrew: SQS Enterprises' Early NC Marriages has him as Andrew McLain. Others say it is McLean and McClain. Rowan County Marriage Records 1754-1866 by Frances T. Ingmire has Andrew McLain.

However, after inspection of additional records, it appears that Elizabeth Todd is more likely to have been connected to the other unrelated Todd family in Rowan County and that John Todd was the John Todd of the unrelated family of Todds on Grants Creek that lived about 5 miles from Andrew McLain’s land.

There were two unrelated Todd families in Rowan County living in three different places. There was a family that left Lancaster County, Pennsylvania after 1742 and arrived in Rowan County by 1759. One branch Samuel Todd and his son Nathan settled on Dutchman's Creek about 32 miles NW of Salisbury in and one branch headed by John Todd, settled on a branch of Grants Creek about 5 miles SW of Salisbury. It wasn't until over a decade later that descendants of Joseph Todd of Eling settled on Swearing Creek near the Jersey Church about 15 NE of Salisbury.

Andrew McLain owned land on James, Cathey's and Giant Creeks (Deed Book 8, p 57, 279 358). Cathey's Creek (present Kerr Creek) lay only 5 miles from John Todd's land on Grants Creek but was 25 miles from the Swearing Creek lands of Benjamin Todd of the Northampton Co PA family. Further, John Todd's will of 1796 directs the sale of "two tracts of land, known by the name of McClaine's Place, granted to me by patent bearing date of 25-Oct-1786, containing two hundred and thirteen acres." John's widow was buried at a church on Cathey's Creek.

There are also two road maintenance records that suggest a geographic connection between Andrew McLain and John Todd. The road in question ran from Frohock's Mill (which lay just west of Salisbury and close to Grant's Creek) to James Dobbins' Ford on Second Creek, about 10 miles. The first record is dated in the late 1780s and the second record must have been prior to 1794

when Thomas Frohock died and possibly prior to 1790 since Andrew McClain is not in the census in 1790.

Francis Locke's plantation to said James Dobbins' Ford on Second Creek to be discontinued.

The only contradictory fact is that John Todd's 1798 will does not mention a daughter Elizabeth. Unless Andrew and Elizabeth were deceased without issue, this is hard to explain.

However there is no evidence to link Andrew McLain to the Jersey Settlement area; so we leave Elizabeth as likely kin to the John Todd family of Grants Creek.

(3) Mary Todd Scudder

Mary Todd married William Scudder in Rowan County NC in 1783 and shortly thereafter went to Wilkes Co GA. Some historians thought she must be the daughter of Caleb b 1751 rather than his sister because they accepted the 1936 Woodbury and Cannon County History which asserted that Mrs. Mary Todd was the sister of Benjamin Todd b 1759. However, we now believe that Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 could not be a Todd since both the 1850 and 1860 census state that Mary was born in NC before the Todds came there from Pennsylvania. Also, it is unlikely that Mary Todd Scudder was a daughter of Caleb Todd b 1751 since she would likely have been born prior to 1764 (assuming at least age 19 at marriage) and therefore too old to be a daughter of Caleb. Or another way to look at this, there were two few years between Caleb's birth in 1751 and Mary's marriage in 1783 for Mary to have been Caleb's daughter.

(4) Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866

Benjamin Todd b1730 was the father of Benjamin b 1759. This latter Benjamin Todd was a Revolutionary War Veteran who settled in Rutherford County about 1809. According to a Cannon County history, written in 1936 by Sterling Brown, Benjamin b 1759 was the brother of Mrs. Mary Todd who had two brothers killed by Indians at Old Fort Nash and three brothers killed by Indians in KY. However, as Roma Todd pointed out, if Mrs. Mary Todd was born in North Carolina in 1762, then she was not born a Todd because the Todds were still in Pennsylvania. If Mary is the widow of a male Todd, then these killed brothers would not be Todds at all, but rather earlier migrants to KY and TN sharing her maiden name surname.

Though Mary Todd could have been a sister-in-law, DNA from two of the descendants of Benjamin Todd b1759 implies that her grandson Walker Todd b 1822 was also a grandson of Benjamin Todd. For this book, we have placed her as the consort of Benjamin Todd, rather than his sister for the reason stated above and rather than a sister-in-law because we have no evidence of another brother to have been Mary's husband. Further evidence is needed to confirm this assumption.

(5) Jesse Todd b 1770-80

Jesse Todd b 1770-80 settled in Rutherford Co in the Carson's Fork area that became Cannon County in 1836 By1835, he also owned land on nearby Brawley's Fork.

This Jesse was thought to be the son of Joseph Todd b 1748, but recently discovered documents shows that Jesse was too old to be a son of that Joseph. Also DNA evidence showed him to be a brother of James B. Todd b 1788 NC and Willilam T. Todd b 1793 NC who lived in Cannon Co.

(6) Edmund Todd b 1786 NC

Edmond Todd lived 15-20 miles from the other two Todd families. His descendant's DNA does not show a close relationship to any of the Todd lines, but shows a distant relationship to most of them. This suggests that either the relationship is due to intermarriage in more recent generations or to a common ancestor before the families came to TN.

Other information about Benjamin b 1730

Benjamin I b 1730, with sons, Benjamin II, Joseph, Peter, Thomas, and William on the 1790 Rowan County Federal Census. Also, his bro, Caleb Sr and his son, Caleb Jr, are on the 1790 Federal Census. (John Sr, John Jr, and James Todd appear on this list and are the Todds who came form Lancaster Co. PA.)

While in Rowan County, his children, Joseph, Mary, and Margaret (this must be Elizabeth or Caleb's dau, Margaret) became members of the Jersey Baptist Meetinghouse, Davidson County, NC (Records of 1792. See more info on this under Joseph).

Also, one more important thing to add here is that Benjamin and Sarah Giffin Todd had more sons than we have identified by name, i.e. two males under 16 and one over 16 on the 1790 Rowan County, NC Federal Census.

Sarah: Sarah is mentioned in Peter's (bro) will in 1791. Researchers of this line say the spelling of surname is definitely Griffin. Will of Peter has 'Will of Peter Giffin' and his father's will has 'William Giffin.'

In Rowan County, NC, Benjamin owned land along the Yadkin River and streams connected to it, to the east of the City of Salisbury and on the North Side of the river.

Benjamin Todd witnessed the will of Thomas, Elizabeth's husband.

Benjamin I's had four sons who served in the Revolution: Benjamin II, Joseph, Peter, and Thomas.

Benjamin married (1) Sarah Griffin in 1750 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA. Sarah was born about 1730 in Upper Medford, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. She died before 1790 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Sarah is mentioned in Peter's (bro) will in 1791. Some assert that Sarah's maiden name was Griffin rather than Giffin. Will of Peter has 'Will of Peter Giffin' and his father's will has 'William Giffin.

Benjamin married (1) Sarah Griffin in 1750 in Bucks County Pennsylvania, USA. Sarah was born about 1730 in Upper Medford, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. She died before 1790 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Sarah Griffin was born about 1730 in Bucks Co. She was the daughter of William Griffin and Sarah Beck. The will of her brother Peter Griffin /Giffen in Northampton County PA in 1791 mentions his sister Sarah, wife of Benjamin Todd of North Carolina.

Benjamin and Sarah had the following children:

38 M i.Caleb Todd was born about 1751. He died after 1806.

39 M ii.John Todd was born on 3 Jun 1752 in Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died in Dec.

John was born in 1752 in Pennsylvania, probably in Philadelphia, prior to the move of his father and uncles to the Easton area in Northampton County between 1752 and 1761.John was born in 1752 in Pennsylvania, probably in Philadelphia, prior to the move of his father and uncles to the Easton area in Northampton County between 1752 and

John does not appear on the 1779 tax list for Rowan County where his father had moved about 1770; so he either had died or moved from the county. Since the references to John Todd ascribed to this John Todd b 1752 have been proven to be references to other John Todds, there are no further references to this John Todd other than the birth date. So it is now assumed that he died young.

This also leaves space on the family tree of Benjamin Todd for John Todd b 1773 to be his son.

Below is a list of references previously attribted to this John Todd b 1752 that have proved to be references to other John Todds.

1. The historians noted a John Todd on the tax lists of Wilkes County GA where Caleb Todd (brother to John Todd b 1752) had moved and therefore concluded that John b 1752 had moved to Georgia as well. However, the John Todd of the Wilkes County tax lists was a John Todd from an unrelated family from Mecklenburg County, North Carolina who died in Putnam County GA in 1815.
2. The historians thought that John b 1752 was the John Todd who died 1819 in Jones County, Georgia and was related to the Benjamin Todd 1778-1855 who lived in northern Jones County. However, this John Todd who died in Clinton, Jones County Georgia 1819-1825 was in South Carolina in 1802 and had children who married in Clinton. , (2)
3. The historians thought the John Todd b 1752 had sons Benjamin and Levi but the John Todd who had sons Benjamin and Levi was a much younger John Todd b 1770-1780 and presumed to be brother of Benjamin Todd 1778-1855 and presumed to be a son of Caleb Todd b 1751. The John Todd born b 1770-80 who lived on the Putnam-Jones County border next door to Benjamin Todd b 1778 d 1855 moved to Henry Co by 1830 and to Meriwether Co GA by 1835,

4. The historians thought that John Todd b 1752 was the John Todd who married Margaret Erwin in Rowan County NC. However, the John Todd who married Margaret Erwin was from an unrelated family from Lancaster Co Pennsylvania.

5. The historians thought that John Todd b 1752 was the John Todd who was a bondsman on the marriage of Elizabeth Todd to Andrew McClain in Rowan Co in 1775. However, this John Todd was the John Todd of the Grant's Creek area 20 miles south of where the Todds of Northampton Co PA settled when they came to Rowan Co. There only John Todds on the 1779 tax list for Rowan Co are the John Todds of the Grants Creek area. Andrew McClain bought land on Cathey's Creek in 1772 and sold it with his wife Elizabeth in 1775. Andrew Mclain had a brother Joseph McClain who owned lands on Grants Creek where John Todd also lived.

Also, a Jones County (Georgia) History also mixed up several different John Todds.

John Todd Jr "is supposed (by Buckner researchers) to have been b. abt 1745 in Bucks County, PA to John Todd Sr and his wife, Sarah Giffin. They also had a son named Giles. Other research has Sarah Giffin m. to John's father, Benjamin. John and Margaret Erwin, under this theory, were m. in Rowan County, NC. Their sons, Benjamin (1778) and Levi were born there. Later, John lived in Wilkes County, GA and was a Lt in the Home Guard in 1803. He bought land in Clinton, GA in 1807 and sold it to Benjamin in 1811 (the deed names Margaret as the wife of John Jr).

There are numerous errors in the Jones County history, The John Todd and Sarah who had a son John and a son Giles are the John and Sarah Todd who settled on the southeast coast of Georgia in St Andrews Parish (later Liberty County) in the 1750s. John Todd who bought land in Clinton, Jones County in 1807 sold it in 1819 to Benjamin Trapp, not Benjamin Todd. Benjamin Todd married Sarah Giffin/Griffin. As mentioned above, John Todd who married Margaret Erwin was from a Lancaster Co PA family. The Wilkes Co John Todd was from the Mecklenburg Co NC Todd family which was related to Mary Todd Lincoln.

The only John Todd in Georgia that is a possibility for John Todd b 1752 is an unidentified John Todd who was accused of being a loyalist in 1783 in Burke County. Twenty years later, in 1802, a John Todd in Burke County was eligible for two draws in the 1805 Georgia Land Lottery. However, we have no supporting evidence that this was John Todd b 1752.

40 M iii. Peter Todd was born on 23 Jun 1756. He died on 18 Apr 1840.

41 M iv. Joseph Todd was born on 4 Aug 1757. He died on 30 Dec 1842.

42 M v. Benjamin Todd II was born on 17 Aug 1759. He died on 24 Jan 1854.

43 M vi. Thomas Isaac Todd was born on 3 Jun 1760. He died on 5 Apr 1843.

44 F vii.Mary 'Polly' Todd was born about 1763. She died after 29 Aug 1800.

45 M viii.Aaron Todd was born on 28 Apr 1765 in Bethlehem, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died after 1803.

Aaron Todd appears on Jun 1803 Land Lottery Draw with Caleb, and Benjamin b 1778, son of Caleb, in Wilkes County, GA. Aaron was allowed one draw, which meant he was single and a taxpayer 12 months prior to the draw. Aaron's fate is unknown and the source of his birthdate is unknown as well.

Though he has been assumed by early historians to be the son of Benjamin b 1721/1731, the reason for this assumption is unclear. He could have been a child of Benjamin or he could of been a child of Caleb b 1751 who was living in Wilkes Co GA at the time.

46 M ix.William Todd was born on 28 Apr 1768. He died before 5 Nov 1849.

47 M x.John Todd was born on 25 Mar 1773. He died on 15 Apr 1839.

48 M xi.Son Todd was born about 1775 in Prob. Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA.

This would be one of the sons under 16 listed with Benjamin in the 1790 census of Rowan Co..

49 M xii.Son Todd was born about 1774 in Prob. Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA.

This would be the other son under 16.

50 F xiii.placeholder Todd .

Benjamin married (2) Anna Johnson on 10 Nov 1805 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Anna was born in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She died after 1820 in Boonesborough, Madison, Kentucky, USA.

23.Caleb Todd Sr. (Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1730/1740 in Either Philadelphia or Bucks Co. He died in 1795/1796 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Caleb was born in Philadelphia, or Bucks County, Pennsylvania about 1730. He was most likely the son of Caleb Todd though he could possibly have been the son of Thomas Todd died 1733. We assume he was the son of Caleb Todd because of his residence in Northampton County 1761-1768 and because there was a Caleb Todd who got a land warrant in 1742 in the portion of Bucks County that became William Township, Northampton County and because there was a Caleb Todd who was appointed in 1745 as overseer in Durham Township, Bucks County which included at that time what became Williams Township, Northampton County. It is also possible that he was the son of Thomas d 1732/3 Philadelphia and that he was born between the will of Richard Cummins 1729/30 (which named only the first two children of Thomas Todd 1732/3) and the writing of the will of his father in 1732 and that he was the brother of Thomas and Benjamin. We can not determine which of these two was his father but the geographical evidence suggests Caleb Todd.

Williams Township lay due south of Bethlehem Township where Caleb, Benjamin and Thomas all appeared on the 1760s tax lists for Bethlehem Township. The land in Williams Township was resurveyed to Caleb Todd in 1782 when there were no Todds living in Northampton County. So it is possible that the land surveyed for Caleb Todd in 1742 devolved somehow to Caleb (in Rowan County) who resurveyed it in 1782. The land was never patented to Caleb Todd but rather in 1797 a Henry Miller acquired title to it. Perhaps this was a result of Caleb Todd's death in 1795.

He appeared on the tax lists of Northampton County 1761-1768 along with Benjamin and Thomas. There is nothing more after 1768 on Caleb in PA. He migrated to Rowan County North Carolina about 1770 with Benjamin and Thomas, assumed to be his brothers.

He married Margaret Williams ca 1758. Some have thought this a second marriage because they assumed a 1715 birth, but we don't have evidence to support such a birth.

In Rowan County, he had land on Abbots Creek and Crow Creek.

By 1790 he was on the Rowan County, NC Census and his household included, beside himself, 2 Males 16 and up, 1 Male under 16, and Four Free White Females. Caleb Sr and Jr were on the 1790 Federal Census of Rowan County, NC. This Caleb died abt 1795 in NC.

Caleb listed on the 1784/1790 tax records of Rowan County, NC.

His will dated 24-Sep-1794, Book E page 30, Rowan County, NC and was probated 1796

Copy of will reads, "In the Name of God, Amen, 24-Sep-1794: I, CalebTodd of Rowan County, State of NC, being weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, calling to mind the mortality of my body, knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make X on this, my Last Will and Testament, which is to say principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of God, my body to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my executors, and as touching such words by estate, as it has pleased God to help me with in this life, I give and dispose of the same in the following manner: First of all, I will that all my debts and funeral charges be discharged. Item: I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Margaret Todd, one-half of any lands, all my horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, ally farming tools, and all the household furniture. Item: I give and bequeath unto Caleb Todd, my son, one-half of all my lands. Item:cannot read the paragraph here, too blurred, but ends; and appoint my two sons, Caleb and Joshua Todd, executors to this my Last Will andTestament."

Caleb made his x mark and was witnessed by Peter and Thomas Todd. Peter and Thomas Todd were his nephews, sons of Benjamin I.

Within a year of so of Caleb's death, his widow and children all migrated with Caleb's brother Benjamin and his family to Madison County Kentucky where his nephews Joseph b 1748 and Thomas had migrated back in 1792.

Margaret was on the Madison Co tax list in 1797 and then went to Warren County KY. She bought land on Drakes Creek in 1808 and appeared on the 1809 tax list for Warren Co kY. This land along with another 101 acre parcel was sold in 1820 to the Shaker Religious Community. The sale is by Margaret Todd (either widow or daughter of Caleb Todd) and Jacob Holloway.

“16-Apr-1808 between Thomas Chapman and Rebecckah his wife of Warren County, KY and Margaret Todd of same - $300 - sell 33 acres on Drakes Creek, running s64E 100 poles to a mulberry, walnut, and sugar tree, thence n24E 114 p to a large Sycamore on the bank of said Creek, thence up the several meanders to beginning. Witnesses: John Barry, Hanna M Neel, Jonathan Holloway. Note that Jonathan Holloway is mentioned. A relative of his, Jacob Holloway, married Margaret Catherine Todd according to family tradition. This land is one of two parcels sold by Margaret Todd and Jacob Holloway in 1820."

Caleb married Margaret Catherine Williams about 1763 in Prob. New Jersey, USA. Margaret was born about 1735. She died about 1819 in Warren County, Kentucky, USA.

The approximation of birth year of 1725 by previous historians seems to be based on their approximation of the birth year of Caleb as being 1715. Since Margaret died in 1819, she would have been 94 if born in 1725, but 84 if born in 1735. If born in 1735, she would have been 30 when her first child was born.

Caleb and Margaret had the following children:

51 M i. Caleb Todd Jr. was born about 1764. He died about 1806.

52 M ii. Joshua Todd I was born about 1765. He died on 3 Mar 1826.

53 F iii. Elizabeth 'Jemima' Todd was born about 1770.

54 M iv. Benjamin Todd was born in 1771. He died after 1860.

55 F v. Margaret Catherine Todd was born about 1774 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died on 28 Dec 1865.

Margaret C. Holloway in the 1860 census in Moniteau County, MO. If Jacob Holloway left a will there, the names of the children might be listed. It was also noted there was possibility of divorce in KY, which might mention children.

Jacob Holloway m. 21-Feb-1799 in Madison County to a widow Elizabeth Stuart Green who had m. Stephen Green, Jr. and died in 1797. In 1803 Jacob ran an ad in the Kentucky Gazette saying he would not honor the debts of his wife, Betsy. In1808 Jacob was sued in Warren County, KY (where he had settled by1807) by wife Elizabeth in Madison County for divorce. Jacob appeared in the 1810 census next door to Benjamin Todd."

Margaret married Jacob Holloway .

56 F vi.Sarah Todd was born about 1775 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Caleb Todd, Bondsman and m. by Peter Wood. There is a bond for Sarah Todd and George Oldham dated 20-Sep-1797, seals of George Oldham and Caleb Todd, her brother. There is also a bond with the seal of Margaret Todd, her mother, giving consent for Sarah to m.George Oldham on 20-Sep-1797.

Sarah married George Oldham on 21 Sep 1797 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. George was born in 1770/1780.

George was born 1770-80 based on age of 50-59 in 1830 census of Hopkins Co KY

57 F vii.Diana Todd was born about 1776 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Marriage bond of Levi Merritt and `Diadamia´ Todd dated 01-May-1797. The bond had the seals of Levi Merritt and Caleb Todd. Caleb Todd, Bondsman, and married by A Tribble.

Diana married Levi Merritt on 1 May 1797 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

58 M viii.Joseph Todd was born in 1770/1779. He died in 1810/1812.

Sixth Generation

26.Joseph Todd IV Dr. (Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 8 Apr 1734 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA. He died about 1775 in Solebury, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA. He was buried in Oxford, Bucks, Pennsylvania, USA.

Joseph Todd was born in 1734 in Bucks Co, became a medical doctor an died at the young age 41, continuing the long tradition of early deaths in his Todd line.

He married Martha McEwen/McEvers in 1757 and had 3 children - none of whom seem to have had progeny.

1757 Bucks County History (Vol 6 page 464-465) Todd-Chapman-Mercer Bible: "This Bible, printed in Oxford, England in the year 1685, was presented to the Bucks County Historical Society by Miss Marian Lyman. On the front leaf is the inscription, 'This Bible, so venerated forts antiquity, was bequeathed to me by my maternal grandmother, it having been in the family for several generations. W. M.'" The Bible says,"Joseph Todd and Martha, the daughter of Mr. Patrick McEwen, were married the 26th of Jul 1757 at Cpt Joseph Inslees by the Rev. Mr. Campbell."

The Bible says Joseph was born on Monday at 6 o'clock in the morning.

1760 Bucks County History says he studied medicine in Doylestown with Hugh Meredith and traveled in the year of our Lord 1760 all over the U.S.

1767 "Joseph Todd was a doctor. Moved from Montgomery County to New Hope in 1767. Owned Parry Mill, which was in Solebury Twp, Bucks County. A widow Todd on tax records for Solebury many years.

On map of New Hope in 1798 (Parry Mill), History of Bucks County by DavisP page 195," "Abt 1767 Dr. Joseph Todd moved from Montgomery County and owned the mill, which in 1784 Benjamin Parry purchased of his heirs, and established a flaxseed oil mill, as well as flour, and extensive lumber mills. On a private map made for Benjamin Parry in 1798, there are thirty-four buildings, dwellings, stores, shops, barns, tavern, stables, and saw mills designated, and it may be interesting to note some of the family names, which are still familiar; Parry, Kitchen, Beaumont, and Paxson," Abt 1767 From The History of Bucks County, PA, Chapter XLIV, New Hope, 1837 by W. W. H. Davis, A. M., 1876 and 1905 editions: "Abt 1767 Dr.Joseph Todd, a physician of some note from Montgomery County, moved to Coryell's Ferry, where he died abt 1775. He owned what was afterward known as Parry Mill, which was in the possession of the government abt three years of the Revolution and was used as a forage storehouse. Joseph Todd had a son, Charles F., born about 1758, who arrived home from boarding school at Bustleton on Christmas day, and saw the Continental troops march from New Hope to attack the Hessians at Trenton. He studied medicine during the war at Doylestown, probably with Dr. Hugh Meredith, and afterward lived in Cumberland County. He traveled through the southwestern part of the country, and along the Mississippi, and was absent from home for several years. In 1771Thomas Smith kept store at or near New Hope, when the Ichabod Wilkinson land was known as the 'Forge tract.'"

1775 Bucks County Historical Society Tracts (Vol III P page 551): "Joseph and Charles Todd were residents of New Hope. Joseph d. 1775 at Coryell's Ferry. Charles was a physician and of a roving disposition, moved and wandered in the Southwest and over the USA. He d. in PA.""Coryell's Ferry is original name of New Hope in the Solebury Twp and widow Todd's mill was listed as in Coryell's Ferry"

1784 FHL #0517069, Jun 1, 1784: "Charles Todd, Physician, and William Todd, Miller, both of Solebury, sons and only surviving children of Joseph Todd of Solebury, Miller (intestate). To Mary Meredith, w Hugh Meredith, Physician of New Brittain. Recites Elizabeth Todd of Warminster, widow, mother of said Joseph Todd and of Mary Meredith, seized of house and lot in Warminster, d. intestate, 33 acres land,Joseph Todd seized of one acre land adjoining. Release of both lots."

Martha Todd: 1778-1784 Martha was on the tax lists in Bucks County (Solebury Twp) as widow in 1778 with 10 acres, 81-83, 85-87. She was listed as widow of Joseph 1734-1784 (ca 1775), son of Joseph1712-1745. Charles Todd, son of Joseph 1734-1784 (ca 1775), was listed in Warwick Twp in 1785. William, son of Joseph 1734-1784 (ca 1775),was listed in Warwick Twp in 1785 as single man. The widow Todd was listed with 16 acres in 1779, 10 acres in 1781, 18 acres in 1782, listed as widow in 1783, and 18 acres in 1784, (3 inhab). In 1785 and1786 she was listed as widow.

1778-1787 "We have 'Widow Todd' in Solebury Twp of Bucks County from1778 to 1784. In 1785 she disappears from Solebury and appears in Warwick along with two single men, Charles and William Todd, her sons. In 1786 she appears in Warwick along with a single man, William, her son. In 1787 they do not appear. In 1787, Martha buys land in Moreland and disappears from the Bucks County tax lists,"

1789 FHL #0517069, Nov 6, 1789: "Martha Todd of Moreland, Charles Todd of same, physician, and William Todd of same, yeoman to Benj Parry of Solebury, Miller. Recites Joseph Todd seized of ½ interest in 16 acres in Solebury, d. leaving widow, Martha, and sons, Charles and William. They sell to Parry." This deed makes it clear that Martha Todd of Moreland was the widow of Joseph Todd of Bucks County.

1789 From Place Names in Bucks County P page 11, "S. Benjamin Parry in 1789 purchased Dr. John Todd's mill in New Hope believed erected 1768 and now a playhouse (Bucks County Playhouse)," This appears to be an error, it should be Joseph Todd.

1790 Federal Census Manor of Moreland, Montgomery County, PA - Household of Martha TODD: 2M +16 (bef 1774); 2F; 1 Other (?) This looks like Martha and her two sons, Charles and William. We know the second female is not William's wife, Ann, because Ann would have only been 12 yrs of age.

1797 Index to Montgomery County Deeds: "Martha Todd of Moreland, intestate, letters granted Dec 30, 1797."

1803 Charles F. and William A. (with wife Ann), surviving sons of Martha Todd, sell the Moreland property in Montgomery County. This land was bought by Martha Todd from Isaac Longstreth on 22-Mar-1787.

Sep 13, 1803: "Charles F. Todd and Wm. A. Todd and wife Ann, sons and only surviving relicts of Martha Todd of Hatborough, and William Magill of Hatborough in Moreland, one acre and house in Hatborough, which Isaac Longstreth ...conveyed to Martha Todd.

Please note that the sons, Charles and William, were both single in1785 and that William was still single in 1786.

Joseph married Martha McEwen on 26 Jul 1757 in Pennsylvania, USA. Martha was born in Prob. Pennsylvania, USA. She died in 1797 in Moreland, Montgomery, Pennsylvania, USA.

Joseph married Martha McEvers on 26 Jul 1757 in Pennsylvania, USA. Martha was born in Prob. Pennsylvania, USA. She died in 1797 in Moreland, Montgomery, Pennsylvania, USA.

1760, Dec. 13. McEvers, Patriek, of Perth Amboy, Middlesex Co.; _will of. I order £500 to be put to interest, and the interest paid _yearly to Martha Todd, the wife of Joseph Todd, of Bucks Co., Penna., _and, after her death, the principal to be divided among her children; _but, if Martha dies without issue, then between Catharine Bayard, _James McEvers and Charles McEvers. To niece, Mary Apthorp, £50. _To Miss Margaret Sarjant, £30. Rest of personal and real to James _McEvers, Charles McEvers and Catharine Bayard. Executors — _nephews, James McEvers, Charles McEvers and William Bayard. _Witnesses — Lewis Johnston, Cortland Skinner, Stephen Skinner. _ Proved Oct. 26, 1767. Lib. I, p. 168.

Martha married in 1757 and had Cortland in 1758 and Charles in 1760. So I suppose that the statement about her dying without issue refers to the situation where she would have died after her children had died. It doesn't imply she had no children at the time of the will.

Joseph and Martha had the following children:

59 M i. Cortland Tregainy Todd was born on 11 Nov 1758 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA. He died before 1784.

The Bible said he was born on Saturday, 11th of Nov, at four o'clock in the afternoon in the year of our Lord 1758. We know he died before 1784 because of the 1784 record that states Joseph only had two surviving sons, Charles and William.

"Between 14 Oct 1777 and the date of muster, besides the men mustered above, the corps had lost 14 deserted and 1 dead. Three more would desert the day after they were paid. Clearly they needed more of aPennsylvania flavor, and that would come with the next batch of officers. Captain Joseph SWIFT, Lieutenant Ross CURRIE and Ensign Courtland TODD, the newest officers, all were inhabitants of the province.

"Courtland Todd was listed a miller from Solebury Twp (ThePennsylvania Packet (Philadelphia), Oct 31, 1778). Ross Currie was from Philadelphia and had apparently also been a lieutenant in the Rebel service. Swift was simply listed as a 'gentleman' from BensalemTwp (The Pennsylvania Packet, June 7, 1778)."

60 M ii. Charles Finney Todd Dr. was born on 29 Jun 1760 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA. He died in Pennsylvania, USA.

Dr. Charles Finney Todd: A Previous record had Charles m. to Isabelle Dich with several children and was in error. The Todd-Chapman-Mercer Bible records confirm that it was Charles Meredith that m. Isabelle Dich and not Charles Todd.

The Bible says he was born Sunday, the 29th of Jun, at eleven o'clock in the evening in the year of our lord 1760.

"According to Bucks County History, Charles studied medicine with his Uncle Hugh Meredith."

If he married, it had to be after 1785, as he was listed as single main 1785 on the tax list, and living with mother in Moreland. William was also living with her. We know William left the Morelan residence between 1794 and 1800 when he and Ann married and showed up in East Caln. We know his mother died in1797 and we know that he is not in his brother's household on the 1800 census because the other male living there was b. 1774-

1784 and Charles was b. in 1760. In 1800 he is probably still at the deceased mother’s residence because he and William don't sell the Moreland property until 1803. We cannot find Charles on a census record and he would not show on one until 1800 in Moreland and somewhere else in1810.

"No census records for a Charles anywhere in the US until 1820," per Richard McMurtry of the Todd DNA Project. We do know by the record listed under his parents that he went to Cumberland County, PA.

1813 Cumberland County, PA Deed, IV: 707, FHL #0,021,056 - Charles F.Todd to Peter McCann (Excerpt): "Charles F. Todd of Allen Twp,Cumberland County, PA for the consideration of the sum of fiftydollars in hand paid by Peter McCann of the twp aforesaid sell untoPeter McCann and his heirs the following Lot of Ground situated in NewLisburn in Allen Township of Cumberland County, PA. Bounded on the East by lot L, on the West by lot No. 1, on the North by Public (?)Street, on the road leading to Carlisle, and on the South by land belonging to the heirs of Jo. Bishop Esq., descd.

Signed and Sealed the twenty (?) day of Nov 1813 by Charles F. Todd." Entered Jan 4,1814.

61 M iii. William Anson Todd Dr. was born on 6 Sep 1762 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA. He died in 1811 in East Caln, Chester, Pennsylvania, USA.

William A. Todd was born in 1762 in Bucks County. By 1784, as a young man, he was a miller of Solebury and had inherited his father's mill. It is suspected that he followed his brother into medicine immediately after this. Dr. William A. Todd taught at the medical school at the University of PA. In 1794/1798, he married Ann Downing. Also, in 1798, he bought land in Chester County. We find him in the 1800 census in East Caln, Chester County. Around this time, he settled in a home in Downington, Chester County - Downington having been erected out of a portion of East Caln..

He bought and sold land in Cumberland County. He died about 1811 and his wife died about this time also.

Notes and Documentation:

Previous records had confused William A. Todd with a William Todd who married Mary Cloyd Meredith Both William’s lived in Chester County. However, the William Todd that married Mary is prob the William showing up in 1790 with three children in East

Whiteland of Chester County who appears on the tax lists of West Whiteland 1779-1785. Records confirm that William A. Todd did not have any children and records also confirm that William Todd and Mary Cloy Meredith were married while William A. Todd was still single.

"1784 William was listed as a miller of Solebury in 1784. He was only 22 and had inherited his father's mill. It is suspected that he followed his brother into medicine immediately aft this. Dr. WilliamA. Todd taught at the medical school at the University of PA.

"1798, Jun 30th Chester County Deeds: William Todd MD bought land in 1798 from Abiah Parke and wife, recorded 1803, FHL #0, 020,871 - BookW2 page 501." (This deed was to Doctor Wm. A Todd for two hundred and fifty-two acre.)

Chester County - From Genealogy of the Palmer-Trimble Families, P page 705REFN33767:
"They resided at or near Downingtown (Chester) PA, where he enjoyed an extensive practice in his profession. No children."

Chester County - From June Jefferson of PA looking for her WilliamTodd who m. Rebecca Twaddell: "William Baldwin was born in ChesterCounty, PA on 29-Mar-1779. His father was Thomas Baldwin, a Quaker preacher, by whom he was liberally educated and began to teach. He read medicine with Dr. William A. Todd of Downingtown. Dr. William A. Todd’s house was located in the East Lancaster Avenue's Historic District at 330 East Lancaster Avenue in the Downingtown Borough.

1800 Chester County East Caln PA Census:
William A. Todd 0110-10110.
male b. 1755-1774 (William A. Todd b. 1762).
male b. 1774-1784 (age 16-26) (Could be her nephew or a brother).
female b. 1755-1774 (age 26-45) (Probably Thomazine (Downing) Kennedy).
female b. 1774-1784 (wife Ann Downing b. 1778).
female b. 1790-1800 (age 0-10) (Probably Thomazine's dau, Ann)

Regarding the three other people that show up on this census for William A. Todd of East Caln, Ann his wife had a sister named Thomazine Downing born Mar 21, 1765 who married Samuel Kennedy in 1794. Samuel died in 1797 in an accident. They had two children: Mary Kennedy b. Feb 20, 1796 and probably didn't survive, and Ann D. Kennedy born Dec 22, 1797 who did survive. This doesn't explain the other male in this household, but it could be her nephew, Dr. George A. Fairlamb,who married her niece, Thomazine Whelen born ca 1784. Ann also had a brother Richard Downing b. Jun 26, 1775. He was single and d. in 1807 (See excerpts from Ann's will below).

14-May-1803 Cumberland County, PA Deed, 1Q: 230-232, FHL #0,021,054,Daniel Herr to Wm. A. Todd (Excerpt): "Indenture made the fourteenth day of May in 1803 between Daniel Herr of Fairview Twp, County of York and State of PA, and Esther his wife and William A. Todd of Chester County and state aforesaid, for the sum of two thousand pounds in hand paid by the said Wm. A. Todd. The following described piece or parcel of land situated at the lower end of Lisburn Village on Yellow Breeches Creek in Allen Twp of Cumberland County, seven acres and twenty-two perches, being part of a larger tract of land sold to Matthew Morris at public sale." Entered Aug 30th, 1805.

Entered Aug 30th, 1805.

07-Jun-1803 Cumberland County, PA Deed, 1Q: 233-234, FHL #0,021,054,James Legget Senr to Wm. A. Todd (Excerpt): " Indenture made the seventh day of Jun in 1803 between James Leggett Senr of Allen Twp in Cumberland County, PA and William A. Todd of the twp and county aforesaid. For the sum of three hundred pounds paid by William A. Todd, the following described tract, piece or parcel of land situated in Allen Twp aforesaid. Beginning at a buttonwood (?) at the mouth of the sawmill (etc) and containing one hundred and five perches."Entered Aug 30th,

01-Dec-1803 Chester County, PA Deed, X2: 361, FHL #0,020, 872, Samuel Downing to Wm. A. Todd (Excerpt): "Between Samuel Downing of Sudbury(?) Twp in Chester County, PA and William Alex Todd (Alex?) of East Caln Twp in the same county Names John Boyd and John Todd (?), containing ten acres for the sum of fifty dollars, paid by the said Alex Todd (etc) unto him the said William Alex Todd, his heirs and assigns forever." Recorded Feb 27,1804. (So we now have Alex and Anson, so perplexing to Richard and myself)?

09-Apr-1804 Cumberland County, PA Deed, 1Q: 234-236, FHL #0,021,054,John Sands to Wm. A. Todd (Excerpt): "Indenture made the ninth day of Apr in 1804 between John Sand of Allen Twp, Cumberland County, PA and Elizabeth his wife, and William A. Todd of the twp, county, and state aforesaid, whereas John Sands Senr (father to the above name John Sands) in his lifetime by sundry deeds of Conveyances became seized of a certain tract of land situated in Allen Twp aforesaid containing one hundred and six acres, etc. Whereas land has since been divided agreeable to said last bill. To William A. Todd, his heirs and assigns, all of the following described tract piece or parcel of land: Beginning at a post (etc) to a post on the land of Yellow Breeches Creek, containing fifty-one acres and one hundred and thirty one perches." Entered Aug 30th, 1805.

1805 Cumberland County, PA Tax List P page 19, Allen Twp, FHL #0,02,092:Listed as "Todd, A William with 1 house and 2 lots in Lisburn, 58acres, 1 Gristmill, 1 Sawmill, 3 horses, and 5 cows."

May 1806 Cumberland County: "Here is a York Co Deed pertaining to Dr.William A. Todd of Cumberland County: 27-May-1806 between William A. Todd and Ann his wife of Allen Twp, Cumberland County (PA) and John Bishop, Ironmaster, now of same place for 58 pounds 19 shillings and four pence. Sold tract in Fairview Twp, York County, beginning at a black oak at a corner of Peter Whitman's land, land of John Smith, land of Nathaniel Freeman, containing 27 acres 135 perches, by warrant16-Oct-1792, to Joseph Morris who died intestate. Witnessed 27 May1806 by R. Hamerlsy and recorded 13-Sep-1808," Aug 1806 Chester County - From June Jefferson of PA: "Slave JonathanTim, M age 28, b. ca 1778, Runaway. Ran away from his owner, William A. Todd of Downingtown, Chester County, in Jul 1806, Twenty Dollars Reward ran away from his subscriber on Sunday the 20th. A Negro man who passes by the name of Jonathan Tim, abt 6' high, walks erect, with his hat inclined to one side of his head, handsomely made for a Negro,is abt 28 yrs of age. He is fond of driving a team, a great talker and liar, as well as a great braggadocio; his clothes were a swansdown jacket, striped homespun trowsers (trousers), and homespun linen shirt. He was bred by Mr. Smith. Whoever takes up and secures said servant so that I get him again, shall have the above reward and reasonable charges." Signed William A. Todd, Downingtown, Chester County, Aug 6, 1806 and recorded Aug 8, 1806.

1808 Cumberland County, PA Tax List, Allen Twp, FHL #0,021, 093: Listed as "Todd, William Doctor with 1 Grist Mill, 7 acres land pattent(patent), 1 Saw Mill, 1 House and 2 Lots of grounds."

27-Mar-1809 Chester County Deed, D3: 53, FHL #0,558,064, William A. Todd et ux to George Fairlamb (Excerpt): "between William A. Todd of the Township of East Caln, County of Chester, PA and his wife Ann, the sum of three thousand dollars paid by the said George Fairlamb, the following described land. Beginning near an apple tree at a stone in the middle of the Conestogo (?) Road, by land formerly of Abiah Parke." Rec. 06-Oct-1809.

1811 Cumberland County, PA Tax List, Allen Twp, FHL #0,021, 093: Listedas "Todd William A (house)? 7 acres of land, 1 Moreland (?) Mill, and1 Saw Mill."

The above tax list and the below will of Ann seems to verify that Dr. William A. Todd and his wife both died in 1811, and he before Aug 11,1811.

Chester County - From June Jefferson of PA: "Aug 11, 1811 to Aug 23,1811 Todd, Ann - Widow of Dr. Wm. A. Todd, East Caln. 1814- Cumberland County, PA Deed Poll, 1AA: 410, FHL #0,021, 057, John Rupley, Esq. Sheriff to Andrew Maters (Excerpt): "To all people to whom these presents shall come John Rupley Esquire High Sheriff of the County of Cumberland in the Commonwealth of PA. Whereas Daniel Herr/lately/ in the Court of Common Pleas holden at Carlisle for the County of Cumberland before the judges of the same court, to wit: of Sept in 1805, by the judgment of the same court did recover against William A. Todd as well a certain debt of two thousand pounds as also sixteen dollars and seventy four cents, which to the said Daniel Herr, was adjudged in the same court for his damages, and whereas afterwards by a writ of the Commonwealth aforesaid (?) out of the Court of Common Pleas the twelfth day of Apr in 1806, and to George Stroop Esquire then High Sheriff directed he was commanded that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said William A. Todd in his bailiwick he should cause to be made and (?) the debt and damages aforesaid, which the said Daniel Herr had recovered against the said William A. Todd, he having no goods and chattels in his bailiwick wherewith to satisfy the said execution, he seized and took in execution a certain Grist Mill and Saw Mill and five acres of land, more or less, in Allen Township adjoining lands of John Deads (?),James Legget, and Yellow Breeches Creek (etc) this third day of Aug1814. Signed John Rupley, Sheriff. Received on the day last mentioned of the before mentioned Andrew Maters, the sum of five thousand five hundred dollars, the full consideration before mentioned. Signed JohnRupley, Sheriff." Entered 22-Nov-1814.

William married Ann Downing in 1794/1798. Ann was born on 1 Mar 1778 in East Caln, Chester, Pennsylvania, USA. She died in Aug 1811 in East Caln, Chester, Pennsylvania, USA.

30.Mary Todd (Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 15 Nov 1742 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, USA.

The Bible says she was born on Monday at 3 o'clock in the morning and the baptismal date was her christening date. Rev. William Frazer of Amwell performed the marriage.

Mary married Hugh Meredith Dr. on 14 May 1772 in Pennsylvania, USA. Hugh was born about 1737 in Prob. Pennsylvania, USA.

They had the following children:

62 F i.Elizabeth 'Eliza' Meredith was born on 4 Nov 1773.

63 M ii.Charles Meredith Dr. was born on 16 Oct 1775. He died on 29 Jul 1831.

Earlier records had Charles Todd m. to Isabelle Dich of Ireland with the listed children; however the Todd-Chapman-Mercer Bible records prove that it was Charles Meredith and not Charles Todd who m.Isabelle Dich. Dr. Charles Meredith and Isabelle Dich had following children: Matilda, Courtland, Llewellyn, Ann, Sarah, Henry, Cameila,

Elwood, and Elma Elizabeth Meredith

64 M iii. Thomas Nicholas Meredith was born on 29 Sep 1778. He died in 1855.

32. Joseph Todd (Thomas Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1748 in Pennsylvania, USA. He died in 1810 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.

Joseph was born in 1748 in the Bethlehem area of Northampton County and appears on the tax lists in 1769 when he came of age. Joseph was on the 1779 and the 1784 Rowan County, NC Tax List.

IN 1777, he and his brother Thomas inherited the land bought by his father in 1772. IN 1778, he entered land for 200 acres of which he obtained 100 acres by grant in 1786. In 1789 he and his brother sold the land inherited from their father along with 100 adjacent acres entered by Joseph.

Rowan County, NC Book 11 page 851: Joseph Todd and wife Ann, and Thomas Todd and wife Elizabeth, let Jacob Frailey have two tracts of land on the East Side of the Yadkin River - one including the dwelling house of Joseph Todd and Thomas Todd, land acquired by will of decd Thomas Todd. In 1772 Joseph and Thomas's father had acquired the 260 acres from James Simerson, Book 7 page 462. Joseph had been granted 100 acres in 1786 next to John Cox, Book 11 page 96.

They moved from Rowan County, NC to Madison County, KY and Joseph was listed on Otter Creek in Madison County, KY with 150 acres 1801-1809 though the first deed we have was in 1811 for 147-1/2 acres on Otter Creek (Book H, page 82). The 1811 tax list indicates that Joseph had died and Isaac Wagle was being taxed for his land on Otter Creek. A deed of 1812 (Book O p253) refers to the “heirs of Joseph Todd deceased” namely, Thomas, Isaiah, Joseph, Elisha, Davis, Jonathan, Nancy, Levi, William, Susanna McCreary, Jesse and Betsy Todd who sold the Otter Creek land to Isaac Wagle.

Joseph Todd was guardian for William and Jesse Todd, indicating that both were minors born after 1791. Therefore Jesse Todd b 1776/80 who settled in Rutherford/Cannon County Tennessee could not be the son of Joseph b 1748
Isaiah Todd was attorney for Davis Todd and Levi; Jonathan was agent for Elisha Todd.

By 1810, Joseph Todd son of Joseph b 1748 was on the census in Hardin County, KY. Contrary to the Annals of Platte County, it was not Joseph Todd b 1748 who moved to Howard Co Missouri, it was his son Joseph Todd b 1777 who moved to Howard County in 1817. (See the Annals of Platte County by W. M. Paxton 1897,

Joseph was one of the four earliest arrivals in Madison County, KY on the 1795 tax record:

Todd, Thomas Sr 1749 Madison son of Thomas Todd/Elizabeth Unknown
Todd, Joseph 1748 Madison son of Thomas Todd/Elizabeth Unknown
Todd, Isaiah 1770 Madison son of Joseph Todd/Anne Crose
Todd, Thomas Jr 1771 Madison son of Joseph Todd/Anne Crose

Sr and Jr used to distinguish between same names and not necessarily father and son. So we have two sets of brothers as the first Todd arrivals.

Annals of Platte Co (This history has some errors that have to be sorted from the accurate info.)

Joseph Todd was born in Pennsylvania about 1748. He married Ann Crose, a German lady, and after residing a time in Rowan Co NC removed to Hardin Co KY and thence to Madison Co KY. In 1817, he pressed forward to Howard Co MO. Here most of his children remained.

The above quotation is in error. Joseph died in Madison Co in 1810.

Previous family historians thought that there were two Thomas Todds in Rowan Co - one being the son of Thomas d 1732/3 and one being the son of Joshua Todd. One they thought was the Thomas Todd a soldier who died in Sept 1777 and one they thought was the Thomas Todd who made his will in October 1777. However, closer inspection of the military records indicates that the Thomas Todd who died in Sept 1777 lived in a different part of North Carolina. Hence there is only one Thomas Todd in Rowan Co in the family of Joseph of Eling.

On 31-Oct-1777 Thomas made a will in Rowan County, NC Book A page 259, and probated 03-Feb-1778. While sick and weak, etc., naming Elizabeth and children: Joseph, Thomas, Elizabeth Cox, Hester Lewis, Sarah,and Jemima. Sons, Joseph and Thomas were to receive the land with Thomas to receive the upper part and home and Joseph the lower portion. Exrs:sons Joseph and Thomas. Wits: James Smith, Thos. McCartney, and Benjamin Todd. The widow Elizabeth appeared on the 1778 Rowan County Tax List in the Morris Dist, along with Benjamin, Caleb, Peter,Thomas, Caleb Jr, and Joseph (in trust) Todd.

The misleading information about there being two Thomas Todds in Rowan County came from a DAR record which erroneously identified the Thomas Todd who died while serving in the Revolutionary War as the Thomas of Rowan County. Military records for the Thomas who died in September 1777 show that he was from the Halifax area of North Carolina, far to the east of Rowan County.

73 F ix.Nancy Todd was born in 1792.

74 M x.Jesse Todd was born after 1792 in Rowan Co NC .

Jesse Todd was born after 1792 and went with his older brother Joseph Todd as a ward when Joseph went to Hardin Co KY. Joseph was appointed guardian by the Hardin Co Court in 1813 - the same year that Joseph acting on behalf of Jesse along with the other heirs sold Joseph's land in Madison Co KY.

This Jesse was erroneously thought by some family historians to be the Jesse Todd b 1770-80 who settled in Wilson Co by 1806, Rutherford Co by 1811 and then who moved to Brawleys' Fork in the part of Rutherford that became Cannon Co in 1836. However, Joseph's son Jesse was born a decade or so later than the Jesse Todd of Rutherford and Cannon Co.

75 M xi.William Todd Major was born on 7 Jun 1794. He died on 29 Mar 1861.

76 F xii.Elizabeth 'Betsy' Todd was born in 1796 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died in Howard County, Missouri, USA.

One researcher reports that Elizabeth married Foster Burnam (born 1795 of Madison Co KY) in 1822 and had a child that died in 1849. Foster married 1826 in Howard County to Mariah Pemberton. It appears the Burnam family went to Missouri about 1817, just like some of Joseph Todd's family. If this Elizabeth is the daughter of Joseph Todd, then she could not be the Elizabeth who went to Rutherford/Cannon County, TN. (This proves that Elizabeth Todd who came to Rutherford/Cannon Co TN and was the mother of Walker Todd b 1822 was not the daughter of Joseph Todd 1748 -1810)

The Elizabeth Todd daughter of Joseph b 1748 married Foster Burnam about 1822 but died and Foster married 1826 Mariah Pemberton. A deed in Howard County in 1827 refers to Elizabeth:

I:219 17 February 1827, Thomas Todd and wife, Mary, Davis Todd and wife Rebecca and Foster Burnam who intermarried with Elizabeth Todd who has since died, and were brothers and sister of Jonathan Todd, late of Howard County sold their three (out of eleven shares) to Benjamin B. 37.Jemima Todd (Thomas Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 19 Jan 1759 in Pennsylvania, USA. She died on 30 Apr 1850 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Jemima was born in 1759 in Northampton County PA. She came with her parents as a young girl to Rowan Co. There in 1778 she married John Wagle who had also migrated from Nothampton County.

The previous DoM of 17-Mar-1778 must have been the bond date. The Bible of John Wagle says the marriage took place 26-Mar-1778.

Record states that Jemima died at the home of her other son, Thomas Wagle, in Madison County, KY.

This family moved to KY in 1790/91. In 1792, both John and Jacob 'Wegel' (Jacob is believed to be John Wagle's bro) are listed as landowners in the Madison County tax lists. Here John's family settled and were slave owners, making their home on Otter Creek at Foxtown(now Whitehall) just north of Richmond, KY on the Richmond-LexingtonTurnpike," (Duermyer page 7). "The date of his birth (John Wagle) here recorded in a family Bible in which he also

This Bible was handed down from John and Jemima Wagle, to their son Thomas Wagle, who was m. to Mary Cox. Then the Bible was passed to their only child, Susan Wagle Davis. "It was through this family that the original John Wagle Bible has been preserved," (Duermyer page 31).

38.Caleb Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1751 in Prob Philadelphia/Bucks County, PA. He died after 1806 in prob Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Caleb Todd was born in Pennsylvania probably in Northampton County sometime in the 1750s, possibly 1751 as estimated by family historians. His appearance in the tax lists of Rowan Co NC in 1779 requires a birth prior to 1758. His assumed grandfather Caleb Todd may have settled in the Northampton County in the 1740s when it was still part of Bucks County. His father Benjamin Todd and his uncles Thomas and Caleb were on the Northampton County tax lists 1761-1768. He travelled with his parents about 1770 to Rowan County North Carolina when he was in his teens. He was in Rowan County tax lists in 1779.

He married in the late 1770s based on the birth of his first child Benjamin Todd about 1778,

IN 1778, he made a land entry for 150 acres on Toms Creek. Shortly thereafter he went to seek his fortune in Georgia. He was definitely there by 1781 when his son William was born in Georgia.

Caleb first appears in the Georgia records in October 1786, when a land purchase by Thomas Brown mentions Caleb Todd and William Smith as adjoining neighbors in Wilkes County. (Early Records of Georgia (Vol I) Wilkes County abstracted and compiled by Grace Gillam Davidson, The J. W. Burke Company, Macon GA 1932 (GA Archives) page 249, Wilkes County Deed Book AA page 144 1785-1787: "Criswell, Samuel to Thos Brown 350 acres on Long Creek adjacent to Caleb Tod and William Smith. Oct 7, 1786, Joseph Cook and Jonathan Webster, Test.")

At the same time, in 1786, he seems to have finalized the process in Rowan County to get the Toms Creek land he entered in 1778.

When Caleb first came to Georgia, he appeared on the tax lists without land in the Fishing Creek watershed, but soon acquired an interest on the waters of Clark's Fork of Long Creek which lay slightly to the west of Heard's Mill Creek a branch of Fishing Creek . He was taxed in both places until 1792 suggesting that he was living somewhere in the Fishing Creek watershed until he moved to his land on Long Creek watershed in 1792.

He may have lived during those early years with or near William and Mary (Todd) Scudder who were taxed in 1785 with neighbors who lived on Hoggs Branch and Heard's Mill Branch of Fishing Creek. The year after Caleb got his grant in 1788 (Caleb Tode, Grant Book PPP, p 376, 200 acres 1788), William Scudder got a grant in 1789 with neighbors who appear to have lived on Morris Branch of Fishing Creek just to the north of Heard's Mill Branch. So perhaps the Scudders moved north to Morris Branch just as Caleb moved west to a branch of Clark's Fork.

He sold 150 acres on Tom's Creek in Rowan County in 1795 while living in " Wilks" County, Georgia. Witnesses were his father and brothers: Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd Jr. and Peter Todd.

By the time of his grant in Wilkes County, he had had four sons: Benjamin b 1778 in NC, John b 1770-80, William b 1781 in Georgia and Reuben b 1785 in Georgia. Sometime between 1785 and 1793, Caleb married Sarah Bentley. She may have been a sister or a cousin of Jeremiah Bentley who Caleb lived near when he first came to Georgia though it is possible she was from the

Bentley family of Rowan Co

We assume that Caleb married in Wilkes County to Sarah Bentley because we assume that Sarah Bentley Todd of the 1810 tax list in Scott County is the mother of Samuel Bentley Todd b 1802 GA and Abel Todd b 1795 GA who married in the area around Scott County and that Samuel Bentley and Abel Todd are Caleb's sons. There seems to be a Bentley connection because (1) William Scudder, his brother-in-law lived near Jeremiah Bently, (2) Caleb while living on a branch of Clark's Fork in 1795 had a court case against Jeremiah Bentley to recover a debt owed to Caleb, even though they were living 5 miles apart, (3) Abel Todds' DNA matches the DNA pattern of Caleb's family.

During the next several years, Caleb and Sarah grew their family. Edith was born in 1793, Abel in 1795, Sarah in1798 and Samuel Bentley Todd in 1802.

Also during this period, Caleb was involved with several legal dealings such as estate settlements and a court case to recover a debt. Caleb and Thomas Brown made an inventory of the estate of James Montgomery in 1794 for which David and Rebecca Montgomery were administrators. James Montgomery lived on land which bordered both the watersheds of Fishing Creek and the watersheds of Clarks Fork of Long Creek. In 1795, Caleb Todd was involved in a court case against Jeremiah Bentley due to being owed money and Bentley's attorney indicated that Bentley would either pay the money or he would do it for him. By 1796, the case was settled by mutual consent. (Wilkes County Georgia, p 290, 28 Oct 1795 and 1796 p 25)., He was one of the persons appointed as administrator of the estate of Robert Kilgore in 1796. Caleb was one of several appointed to appraise the estate of Thomas Phillips in Wilkes County in 1798.

A 1790 Wilkes County GA Census prepared from tax returns documents the two places of taxation:
Abstracts of the 1790 Tax Returns compiled by Frank Parker Hudson:
"Cpt Kimbrough's Dist B: Caleb Todd no acreage recorded, William Scudders (Wilkes ) 170 acres, James Montgomery (Wilkes) 200 acres, District O: Caleb Todd (Wilkes) 200 acresCpt Smith's Dist E: John Todd (Wilkes) 550 acres. Cpt Wiley's Dist: John Cornelison (Wilkes) 170 acres, James Montgomery (Wilkes) 200 acres, Conrad Cornelison (Wilkes) 500 acres, Conrad Cornelison Jr, no acreage, and Caleb Todd (Wilkes) 200 acres."
(Ed note: This John Todd in Wilkes Co was an unrelated John Todd from Mecklenburg Co NC who later moved to Putnam County, Georgia and died there in 1815. Conrad Cornelison had a daughter who married Peter Todd b 1756 and later removed to Madison Co. The Montgomerys had estate settlements that the Todds were involved with.)

Caleb began transferring his lands to his eldest son Benjamin in 1799 and completed the transfer by 1804. In 1799, he transferred 60 of his acres to Benjamin Todd. In 1800, Caleb is listed as Kallep Todd with 140 acres on Long Creek as well as 90 acres on Grays Creek. Gray's Creek is interesting because this is where lived one of the sons of William Bentley, uncle of Jeremiah. In 1802, he appears with only the 140 acres on Clark's Creek. Benjamin Todd has 53 acres on Clark's Creek (originally granted to C. Todd) and Aaron Todd is listed as a defaulter. In the 1805 land lottery which was based on residence in Georgia in 1802, both Benjamin and Caleb drew twice, meaning they had children less than 21 living with them. Caleb does not appear in the tax lists thereafter, meaning he has either died or left the county. In 1804, Benjamin Todd is listed with 189 acres on Clarks Creek that was originally granted to C. Todd. So virtually all Caleb's land had reverted to Benjamin.

In 1804 and 1805, a Caleb Todd appears on the tax lists in Madison County. We believe this is the Caleb Todd of Wilkes County because Reuben and William also appear on the Madison County tax lists between 1803 and 1806 and because Sarah Bentley Todd appears on a tax list in Scott Co KY in 1810.

We surmise that Caleb, his wife and children moved to Madison Co about 1803, that Caleb died about 1806, that William b 1781 and Reuben b 1785 decided to go south to Rutherford Co TN with their Todd kin - uncle Benjamin b 1759 and cousin Aaron b 1784 rather than go with their step-mother, and that Sarah Bentley Todd went north with her children to Scott Co where she appears on the Scott Co tax list of 1810.

Autosomal DNA from Benjamin b 1778, John b 1770-80, William b 1781, Reuben b 1785 and Abel b 1795 suggest that they are all brothers and roughly approximately the same genetic distance to each other compared to other Todds from other lines.

Children of Caleb:

Caleb is documented to have children under 21 living with him in 1802 because he was eligible to draw twice in the land lottery.

The 1850 census of Jones County says Benjamin was born in NC in 1778. The only Todds in the Jersey Settlement area of Rowan County who appeared on the 1779 tax list were Benjamin, his widowed sister-in-law Elizabeth Todd, his brother Caleb, his son Peter and a second Caleb, presumably the son of Benjamin. The only one of these who could be the father of Benjamin b 1778 is the second Caleb.

Hence Benjamin Todd b 1778 is the son of Caleb of Wilkes Co Ga. This explains why Benjamin acquired Caleb's land without deed.

The Mary Todd who married 1783 to William Scudder in 1783 and came to Wilkes Co and settled initially in the same area as Caleb Todd. has been asserted to be a daughter or a sister of Caleb. The main reason for thinking that Mary Todd Scudder was a daughter of Caleb derives from the statement in the 1936 Woodbury and Cannon County history that the Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 of Cannon County TN was the sister of Benjamin Todd b 1759 and hence sister to Caleb. Since Caleb couldn't have had two sisters named Mary, if Mrs. Mary Todd was his sister, then Mary Todd Scudder could not be Caleb's sister. However, the county history appears to be in error. Based on the 1850 and 1860 census, Mrs. Mary Todd of Cannon Co was born in NC in the 1760s before the Todds came from Pennsylvania to North Carolina,; so she could not have been born a Todd. So if she wasn't the sister of Caleb, then Mary Todd Scudder could be a sister. For Caleb to have had a daughter, Mary, Caleb born 1751 would have had to have been 16 when he had Mary and that Mary would have had to have been 16 when she married William Scudder in 1783. This is not impossible, but it seems more likely that Mary was a sister born about 1762 and therefore too old to be Caleb's daughter.

John Todd b 1770-1780 lived next door to Benjamin Todd b 1778 and had legal dealings with him and shares the same male DNA pattern. So he is considered a brother to Benjamin.

William b 1781 and Reuben b 1785 were shown to have the same male DNA pattern and also the Family Finder DNA test showed them closely related to both Benjamin Todd b 1778 and Abel Todd b 1795.

Abel Todd b 1795 was shown to have the same male DNA pattern as the others considered to be children and the family finder test showed them all to be close kin.

Though the Family Finder test was not absolutely 100% certain that all 5 of these were brothers, as opposed to first cousins, the preponderance of data suggests that that is the most likely interpretation of the data.

Land Lotteries 1803 page 299: "The land given out is this lottery was obtained from the Creek Indians in a treaty at Fort Wilkinson on Jun 16, 1802 and included the territory south of the Oconee and Altamaha Rivers. This land was divided into three counties: Wayne, Wilkinson, and Baldwin. The lots in Wayne consisted of 490 acres each, those in Baldwin and Wilkinson 202 ½ acres each, three thousand two hundred and forty acres reserved for a town to be called Milledgeville. Those entitled to draw were every free white male 21 years and upwards, and an inhabitant of the state twelve months immediately preceding the passage of this act, who had paid tax, one draw; every free white male having a wife and one or more legitimate children, two draws; all widows having legitimate children, two draws; all families of orphans having no parents, two draws. No mention is made of military service in this act and no provision is made for soldiers of any war."

Wilkes County, GA: "We the Justices of the Inferior Court having met the 13th day of Jun 1803 for the purpose of receiving the names of the inhabitants of the county and the draws to which they are entitled by an Act of the General Assembly, passed May 11 last, do hereby certify that the persons hereinafter named are entitled to the number of draws designated by the figures one and two opposite their names;

Todd, Benjamin-2
Caleb-2
Todd, Aaron-1."
Hence Benjamin and Caleb both had young children living with them and Aaron was single and a taxpayer 12 months before the census).

93 M viii.Samuel Bentley Todd was born on 26 Feb 1802. He died on 27 Feb 1876.

40.Peter Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 23 Jun 1756 in Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died on 18 Apr 1840 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He was buried in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Peter was born in the Easton area of Northampton Co PA in 1756. He came as a teenager to Rowan County with his parents about 1770. Peter served in the Revolutionary War as a guard at the Salisbury Jail and also in an expedition against the Cherokee Indian villages.

In December 24 and December 25, 1778 he made land entries for 400 acres on Abbott's Creek and 150 acres on Lick Creek. He never seems to have obtained a grant for this land.

He married in 1779 to Hannah Cornelison whose father Conrad Cornelison was a neighbor on Abbotts' Creek.

Hannah's father Conrad Cornelison went to Wilkes Co GA (where Peter's brother Caleb had gone in the 1780s) and died there in 1795. The Cornelison children left GA and migrated to Madison County to rejoin the rest of the family. Peter and family migrated from Rowan County to Madison Co about 1797. He died in Madison Co in 1840.

He settled on Muddy Creek where his brothers had settled when they came from Rowan County.

The birthdates for Peter Todd his wife Hannah and their 11 children were copied from a page ina a bible owned by Luke Thornton in his handwriting evidently copied from an older record. These dates were reported by Calvin L. Moore in 1964. He was grandson of Luke Thornton (son of Salley Todd b 1793) and Cyrania Todd (dau of Jesse Todd b 1792).

A bible record of Luke Thornton, grandson of Peter Todd, included copies of records from an older Bible which recorded the children of Peter Todd Peter's first three children, Jemima,Aaron, and Mary 'Polly' married children of Benjamin and Margaret Barkley Todd.

From Ralph Turner: "Pvt in American Revolution Military. Guard at Salisbury Dist Gaol, Rowan County, NC, 1778. Listed in Davidson County, near Jersey Meetinghouse, with four horses, mules, and six cattle in 1783. Listed in Jersey area of Rowan County, NC in 1784. He is listed on the 1784 and 1790 tax lists for Rowan County, NC with 3M under 16.

Peter was bondsman for Conrad Cornelison and Susanna Strange wedding.

Listed in 1790 Rowan County Census. (Peter, along with his bro,Thomas (son of Benjamin, I) witnessed the will of their uncle, Caleb, in 1794 in Rowan County, NC).

He applied for a pension on 15-Aug-1832 from Madison County, KY where he had lived for 37 years."

From Randall E Raider: "Peter Todd was a Pvt in the NC Militia. His pension application is dated 06-Nov-1832. His birthdates, as given on the application, was 1753 (actually 1756). The 1790 Federal Census of Rowan County, NC lists Peter as living in the Salisbury Dist of Rowan County. He moved his family ca 1796 on Muddy Creek, near Speedwell in Madison County, KY. I believe his original homestead in Madison County, KY is now part of the KY Blue Grass Depot. There was a large family cemetery located on the farm at Muddy Creek. There were over 70 graves located on the farm in 1943. Two Peter Todds were reinterred at the U.S. Cemetery. On the 1822 deed, Peter Todd is identified as Pete Todd Sr. This deed shows Peter Todd selling Jesse Todd 35acres on Muddy Creek."

Peter Todd was born near Easton, PA 23-Jul-1756.The family lived in the area called the Drylands between Bethlehem and Easton. (Easton and Bethlehem were two different taxed areas).

Peter served in the NCMilitia. His first six-month stint in 1776 was with Gen Rutherford under Cpt Robert Moore, Lt Davis, and Ens Joseph Cunningham. They went into Cherokee Indian country in retaliation for Indian attacks along the frontier. They 'burnt their towns and destroyed their corn.' He was out about six months. In 1780/81 he was drafted and spent three months fighting the Tories.

Rev War Pension #S31430, recorded Clk of Madison County Court, Book D page 62 (Vol 9). Peter and Hannah moved to Madison County, KY where several other Todds, his father, Benjamin,bro Thomas, and others had moved, as did at least two of Hannah's brothers."

Peter's will was probated in 1841. He was buried in the Todd Burial Ground. In 1942, their land near Speedwell, still in the hands of Todd descds, was taken over by the Bluegrass Ordinance Depot. The Todd graves were moved to the new cemetery across from the Ordinance Depot gate. Will dated 15-Mar-1824 and probated 23-Feb-1841, Madison County,KY. Wit: John Cornelison. Taxed in 1784 in Rowan County, NC in Cpt Carson's Company. (Peter Todd, 233 acres).

KY Document: "Whereas Joseph Todd on the 4th day of Oct 1808,purchased of Samuel Estill, twenty acres of land lying on Muddy Creek for which said Estill gave his bond to said Todd, which bond said,Todd has assigned Anderson Reed, and as doubts have been entertained about said Todd's wife having a right to Dower (?) therein. This is therefore to make known that I, Mary Todd, do relinquish all my rights of Dower to said Reed in and to said land. Given under my hand and seal this 26th of Jun 1819, State of Kentucky, Madison County."

Joseph married[1] Mary Berry on 3 May 1779 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Mary was born on 12 Nov 1760.

They had the following children:

106 F i.Margaret Todd was born in 1780 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Margaret Todd m. William Roberts on 26-May-1808 in Madison County, KY.

This does not appear to be the same Margaret Todd who married Samuel Long 21-May-1812 in Fayette County, KY and who must be a different family.

Margaret married Unknown .

107 M ii.Benjamin Todd was born on 7 Jan 1781.

108 M iii.William Todd was born about 1782 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

109 F iv.Berry Todd was born about 1783 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

There is a marriage bond record in Madison County, KY for Berry Todd to Amyl John and Peter Todd, Bondsman, and dated 16-Nov-1805.

110 M v.Joseph C. Todd was born about 1784 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Marriage bond dated 03-Dec-1804 for Joseph Todd and Jean Cox.
Signed by Joseph Todd, Benjamin Todd, and John Cox.

Joseph married Jean Cox daughter of Benjamin Cox and Elizabeth Todd on 6 Dec 1804 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Jean was born about 1783.

111 M vi. Thomas Todd was born in 1792.

112 M vii. Caleb Todd was born in 1794.

113 M viii. Levi Todd was born in 1800/1806.

Levi appears on the tax lists from 1827 through 1843 (last year checked) and between 1834 and 1843 he appears as well as another Levi Todd, assumed to be Levi Todd b 1811 (coming of age in 1832) the son of John and Patsy Collier Todd. He appears as a witness on the court case brought by Susan Todd for desertion against Caleb Todd in 1835 and is therefore assumed to be a brother.

114 M ix. Son Todd was born in 1800/1810.

The census record for Joseph Todd indicates 2 sons b. 1800-1810 and one son b. 1794-1800.

42. Benjamin Todd II (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 17 Aug 1759 in Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died on 24 Jan 1854 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Benjamin Todd was born in Northampton County Pennsylvania near Easton and Bethlehem in 1759. He came to Rowan County as a young boy with his parents about 1770. He served in the Revolutionary War as described in his pension application below. At the end of the War, he married Margaret Barclay in Rowan Co in 1783.

He (or his father) entered 200 acres on Lick Creek on December 29, 1778 and grant a grant for it in 1786 and sold it in 1796.

Benjamin got a grant on Second Creek of the Uwaharrie River in 1792 and sold it in 1795. This was just south of where his brother Caleb Todd owned land on Tom's Creek.

In the late 1790s (abt 1797), he migrated with his siblings and his father to Madison Co KY where he lived for about 10 years. In 1806, he and his wife Margaret sold land on Drowning Creek in Madison County and then they migrated with his nephews and other kin to Rutherford Co TN settling in the Big Springs area SE of Murfreesboro.

By 1809, he was on the tax list for Rutherford Co. He obtained a 30 acre grant and then an 80 acre grant at the west end of Todd Hollow north of Big Spring. This land lay just south of the lands that his nephews Aaron and Reuben had obtained. He also obtained a 50 acre grant along Cripple Creek just north of the lands of his nephew William Todd at the east end of Todd Hollow.

He served in the War of 1812, destroying the towns of Cherokee Indians.

He died at the advanced age of 96 in 1855 in Rutherford County.

Probate Records

Benjamin witnessed the wills of John Green 20-Apr-1781 and Thomas

McCartney 03-Apr-1785, and was executor of Robert Barkley's will 05-Dec-1786, as was Peter Todd, in Rowan County, NC.

1854 - State of TN, Rutherford County Court Feb/Jun 1854: "To Fielden Todd and Asa Todd, citizens of Rutherford County, appearing to the county court now in session that Benjamin Todd has died leaving no will and the court being satisfied as to your claim to the administration, and you having given bonds and qualified as directed by law, and the court having ordered that Letters of Administration be issued to you. Those are therefore to authorize and empower you to take into your possession and control, all the goods, claims, and papers of said estate intestate and return a true and perfect inventory thereof to our County Court in 90 days, to collect and pay all debts, and transact all the duties in relation to said estate, which lawfully devotive in you as admns, and aft having settled said estate, to deliver the residue thereof to whom are by law instilled."Wit: John Woods, Clk of said Court at Office, this 11th day of Feb1854 and 78th year of Admission Independence.

Record Book 17: Feb 1854,Fielden Todd and Asa Todd were appointed admns of estate of Benjamin Todd who had died intestate.

On 02-Feb-1854 an estate sale was held for his personal property. Buyers included Margaret, Anderson, Reuben, Holden, Hiram, Robin, Pinkney, William, Harris, Harrison, Benjamin,Asa, and Fielden Todd.

From: Minute Book of Chancery Court B page 385 to 386
Robin Todd and others Heirs and Administrators of Benjamin Todd decd.

Benjamin Todd and others Heirs of Said Benjamin Todd deceased. Be it remembered that on this 28th day of April 1854 this cause was heard before Chancellor Ridley, presiding at Murfreesboro .. It appeared to the Court that Benjamin Todd lately died intestate in Rutherford County and Complaintants Robin Todd, Sally Todd, Margaret Lusk, Jemima Espy, and Defendants Benjamin Todd and Mary Lusk ...the only surviving children of the said Benjamin Todd deceased . It appeared that the defendants Levi Medford, Jonathan Medford, Andrew Medford, ____ Ables and his wife Margaret Ables and Polly Waters are the only children of Leah Medford decd, who was one of the children of said Benjamin Todd deceased. It appeared to the Court that Complaintants Fielden Todd and Asa Todd have been regularly appointed the Administrators of the estate of said intestate. (Benjamin owned a tract of 143 acres bounded on the north by John McCrary, on the east by John McCrary and William Todd, on the south by lands of William Todd and on the west by the lands of Samuel McCrary. ..land was unsusceptible of a division between the heirs and it should be sold..

This document does not mention Lucinda Todd b 1809 who had married Abner Summers in 1844 and Malinda Todd b 1810 who had married James Wright 1848; so it is not clear how either could be a daughter of Benjamin, given the above suit and given that Lucinda was definitely still alive. We have not found Margaret Lusk in Texas. So it is not clear if there enough girls in the 1810 census for there to be a daughter who had Jefferson Todd out-of-wedlock.

Also, Caleb Todd is not reflected in either the 1830 or the 1810 census; so we have not included him as a son of Benjamin despite Nannie Polk's reference to a Caleb Todd.

I am not sure which Benjamin Todd the following record pertains to:
1837/8 - Todd, Benjamin, Cherry's Company, Pvt, Card #886731D and#8867416, stamped May 13, 1891 states he was a Pvt in Cpt Cherry's Company (Spies), Lauderdale's BATTN TN MTD INF, Cherokee War. COMuster-In Roll Oct 31, 1837 and Muster-Out Roll May 1838. Clothing account due soldier, $35.

HISTORICAL FACTS OF NORTH CAROLINA MILITIA CONCERNING BENJAMIN TODD:

I. In the summer of 1776, Griffith Rutherford, with more than two thousand NC men, marched into Cherokee country and destroyed thirty-six of their towns and gave a crushing defeat to the Indians.Ans. Griffith Rutherford might be the Gen Rutherford that Benjamin Todd is referring to.

II. More than one thousand NC soldiers were Washington's army during the terrible winter at Valley Forge in 1777 and 1778. These troops fought bravely at Brandyvine and Germantown, suffered at Valley Forge and helped fight the British in NJ in 1778. Ans. I do not know if Benjamin Todd was among these soldiers, as we do not have his company's number nor do we know the number of the soldiers at Valley Forge.

III. The Loyalists were active at Ramsour's Mill, Elizabethtown, and many other places, where sharp fighting between Loyalists and Patriots took place. In most of these fights, the Patriots were victorious. The people of Charlotte worried the British so much that this section was called the Hornet's Nest of the Revolution. Tarleton, one of Cornwallis' ablest officers, wrote that Mecklenburg and Rowan Counties were "more hostile to England than any others in America. " Ans.Benjamin Todd stated in his second tour in 1777 that he was drafted atRamsour's Mills and was acquainted with Gen Rutherford.

IV. The Battle of King's Mountain was on Oct 7, 1780. The British and Americans met at King's Mountain, located on the border between North and South Carolina, and was the turning point of the war in the south.Gen Cornwallis attempted to protect his left flank by cleaning out the western section of NC. He sent out Maj Patrick Fergonson (Furguson)into the western mountain country with a force of one thousand Tories. The invasion stirred up the Over-Mountain-Men of the Watauga settlements, some 900, who rallied around their leaders: Shelby, Cleveland, Sevier, McDowell, Campbell, and others, killed Fergonson,and wiped out his Army. Only some 200 men Fergonson had sent out on a foraging expedition, before the battle, managed to stumble back to safety with Cornwallis. Ans. Benjamin Todd stated on his third tour of service, he marched British prisoners from King's Mountain and delivered them to Col Penn in Henry County, VA in 1778.

V. The Battle of Cowpens was fought on Jan 17, 1781 and has been called the most brilliant, best fought action of the war. Cornwallis was so shocked over his losses, and with lashed-out fury, turned and fled toward the Fords over the Catawba River on Jan 28, 1781. He then set out to catch militia forces led by Greene and Morgan, before they could reach the Fords over the Dan River, leading into VA. Ans.Benjamin Todd stated on his fourth tour to service in 1778, he marched from Salisbury, NC to Benties Ford on the Catawba River, then marched down to Tool's Ford, where the Americans lost the battle. He made note he did not fight in this battle in which Gen Davidson was killed. Heathen marched back to Rowan County where he was discharged.

"Know all men by those present that I, Benjamin Todd of Rutherford County, State of TN, a Pensioner of the United States, do hereby constitute and appoint Jeremiah Doughters my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name, to receive from the Agent of the United States for paying pensions in Nashville, State of TN, my pension from the 4th day of Sep 1813 to the 4th day of Mar 814.Witness my hand and seal this 26th day of Mar 1814." He made his mark with the x.

One source has Date of birth as 20-Feb-1759 and Date of death as 24-Jan-1855.

Sterling Brown's History of Woodbury and Cannon County, TN page 103-104says: "Benjamin Todd, who died on Carson's Fork of Brawley's Fork of Stones River." (It is interesting that the history records that he died on Carson's Fork which is where Mary Todd lived whereas all his land was in Todd Hollow near Big Springs.) The history also claims that Mary Todd 1762-1866 was Benjamin's sister.

Benjamin married (1) Margaret Barkely on 24 Jan 1783 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Margaret was born about 1760 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died before 1830 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Rowan County Marriages 1753-1868 by Brent H. Holcomb has: "Benjaminand Margaret Barkley m. 24-Jan-1785, Thomas Todd, Bondsman, and William Crawford, Wit." SQS Enterprises' Early NC Marriages had DATE OF MARRAIGE of 24-Jan-1783.

Benjamin and Margaret had the following children:

115 M i.Robert 'Robbin' Todd I was born in 1784. He died on 29 Jun 1859.

116 M ii.Benjamin Todd III was born in 1785/1787. He died after 1876.

117 F iii.Female Todd was born about 1786 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Female married Unknown .

118 F iv.Sally Todd was born in 1790. She died after 1857.

119 F v.Mary Todd was born about 1797 in North Carolina or Kentucky, USA.

This could be Mary Margaret Todd b. 1797 in NC, d. 1853 in TX.

120 F vi.Leah Todd .

121 F vii.Jemima Todd was born in 1800.

122 F viii.Lucinda Todd was born on 16 Aug 1809. She died on 5 Mar 1879.

123 F ix.Malinda Todd was born in 1810 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. She died after 1851. She was buried in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Lived with Benjamin in 1850, but not mentioned as heir in 1855 court ordered land sale by heirs..

Malinda married James H. Wright on 24 May 1848 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Benjamin married (2) Mary Todd daughter of Mary's Father. Mary was born in 1762 in Prob. Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died on 20 Nov 1866 in Cannon County, Tennessee, USA. She was buried in Burt, Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

Mary Todd was born in 1762 according to her tombstone and in North Carolina according to the 1850 and 1860 census records. Given that she was born in NC before the Todds came to NC, she was likely not born a Todd of the Benjamin Todd b 1759 family..

There are various stories of her arrival in TN - some saying she came by 1784 and others saying that she came from KY after Walker Todd was born (1822). She probably came from KY but later than the 1784 date stated in Sterling Brown's 1936 History of Woodbury and Cannon County, since most settlement in the area took place much later than 1784, mostly around 1800-1810. Another story was that she came from Kentucky in a wagon with Walker Todd b 1822. The two stories are not compatible without assuming some movement back and forth between KY and TN.

She was reported to have danced with the Indians on Carson's Fork where she later settled with her grandson Walker Todd. Her home at the time of the dancing (1784) was said to be several miles to the west which would make her home near where Benjamin Todd b 1759 and the other Todds settled about 1809. So perhaps the dancing actually took place much later than reported.

Mary Todd 1762-1866 is listed here as a wife of Benjamin Todd because Walker Todd b 1822 was Mary's grandson and because DNA of two desc of Walker b 1822 was more closely related to two descendants of Benjamin Todd b 1759 than to other branches of the Todd family. This implies that Walker's mother was the daughter of Benjamin b 1759.

Since she was identified as the grandmother of Walker Todd and since Walker Todd's DNA doesn't match the male Todds of either of the two Todd families in the area, Mary must have had a daughter about 1794-1804 (assuming 14 to 24 for age of daughter at birth of Walker in 1822) and this daughter must have been the mother of Walker Todd b 1822. DNA for two descendants of Walker Todd b 1822 are more closely related to descendants of Benjamin Todd b 1759; hence implying that Walker Todd was a grandson of Benjamin Todd b 1769. In order for Benjamin Todd b 1759 to have fathered Walker's mother during that period, the daughter would have had to have been born in KY, possibly in Madison Co where he lived between 1797 and 1809. Benjamin was married to Margaret Barclay at the time that Mary's daughter was born. Perhaps Mary was a young widow and took the name Todd after this liaison with Benjamin.

We can not prove the birth place of Walker's mother (Mary's daughter). The 1880 census for Walker Todd says his mother was born in NC, but the 1900 census says both parents were born in TN.

Mary appears in the 1850 and 1860 census living with Walker Todd and born in NC in the 1760s.

She died in 1866 and was buried in the cemetery in Burt. Her tombstone reads: b. in 1762 and d. on 20-Nov-1866. Holy Bible is above her name on tombstone.

One curious new discovery is that a Mary Todd b 1789 married Samuel Kerr in 1812 in Rowan Co and came to Rutherford Co prior to Samuel Kerr's death in 1827, possibly by 1813. Also, this younger Mary Todd's sister Elizabeth Todd married Henry Trott in 1811 in Rowan Co and came to Rutherford Co about the same time. These two sisters had an aunt Mary Todd born late 1750s or early 1760s who was still single in 1798 when her father willed her some land. If this Mary Todd came to Rutherford Co with Mary (Todd) Kerr, then we would have a Mary Todd b 1760s in Rutherford Co. which would make her a candidate for being the grandmother of Walker Todd. DNA from the Kerr's would tell if Walker Todd was kin to these Todds.

DNA evidence from other samples taken on the various branches of the Todds is contradictory. Some shows that Jefferson Todd b 1814 and Mary's grandson Walker Todd b 1822 were distant kin, too distant for Jefferson to have been her grandson. Other DNA show a match between both Walker and Jefferson to a family that had ancestors that included the Jones' family who came from Rowan Co to Madison and then Montgomery Co and then Bath Co KY. So one interpretation of this is that Mary was a Jones and that Jefferson Todd b 1814 was a grandson of a sibling or uncle of hers and that she took in this grandson. But there are other interpretations possible.

If Elizabeth who married James Duncan was the mother of Jefferson, then Elizabeth would have been a niece or the wife of a nephew of Mary (Jones) Todd. The DNA suggests this as a possibility but we do not have enough samples to prove this. For now, we have placed Mary as the daughter of a Jones and place Jefferson Todd b 1814 as a great-grandson of Mary's grandfather.

Notes and Documentation:

We have placed Mrs. Mary Todd as the consort of Benjamin Todd b 1759 (meaning she had a daughter with Benjamin) because of DNA evidence suggesting that Walker Todd b 1822 (Mary's grandson) was more closely related to Benjamin Todd than to any of Benjamin Todd's brothers or cousins. This would make Benjamin the grandfather of Walker Todd b 1822. However, this evidence is not conclusive; so below we list the evidence for and against each theory and suggest a way to resolve this puzzle..

There are several theories about the identity of Mrs. Mary Todd.
1. That Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 was the daughter of Benjamin Todd b 1730 and hence the sister of Benjamin Todd b 1759, the Revolutionary War soldier of Rutherford Co. This is based on a statement that she was Benjamin's sister in a 1936 history of Woodbury and Cannon County based on statements made to the author of the history by Ora Todd (1898-1984), Walker's granddaughter.

2. That Mrs. Mary Todd 17622-1866 was the wife of a male Todd, but not born a Todd. This is based on the observation that the 1850 and 1860 census state that she was born in NC before the Todds came there from Pennsylvania. So she could not have been born a Todd. Since she was identified as Mary Todd, a widow, she could have been the wife of a male Todd. Her age places her either as:
(a) wife of an unknown son of Benjamin Todd b 1732,
(b) wife of an unknown son of Caleb Todd b 1730,
(c) a second wife or partner of Benjamin Todd 1759-1855 of Rutherford County, TN.

Mary Todd as sister of Benjamin

The only evidence for Mary Todd being the sister of Benjamin Todd is a statement to that effect made in the 1936 History of Cannon County and Woodbury by Sterling Brown. According to Yvonne Gamblin, a descendant of Walker Todd, this information was given to Mr. Brown by Ora Todd (1898-1984) , a granddaughter of Walker Todd.

There are several reasons to doubt that Mary Todd was a sister to Benjamin. As Roma Todd (1918-1997) pointed out, the 1850 and 1860 census state that Mary was born in NC in the 1760s before the Todds came to NC. Hence if the census is true, then Mary could not be a Todd by birth. Secondly, DNA testing from two descendants of Benjamin Todd b 1759 reveals that Walker Todd is more closely related to Benjamin b 1759 that to other branches of the Todds. Hence this suggests that Walker was the grandson of Benjamin. This means that Mrs. Mary Todd could not have been the sister of Benjamin or at least it is highly unlikely for Benjamin to have had a child with his sister.

The DNA from two descendants of Caleb Todd b 1730 does not show Walker Todd as being equally closely related to the Caleb line as to the Benjamin line. Hence it seems doubtful that Mary was a spouse of a son of Caleb.

Further study of the ancestors of those matching the DNA of Walker Todd descendants are needed to identify possible links of those matching to the family of Mary Todd's parents.

Mrs. Mary Todd according to her tombstone was born in 1762 and died 20 November 1866 and was buried in Todd Cemetery #1 in Burt (Cannon County TN).

In 1830, there is a Mary Todd in Rutherford County census age 50-60, hence born 1770-1780 along with three young males. This has been thought to be Mrs. Mary Todd, but the age is a decade off.

In 1840, she was said to be living with Jefferson Todd, but the age is a decade off from Mrs. Mary Todd.

In 1850 she was living with Walker b 1822, and wife, Julia Ann Painter Todd, in Cannon County, TN. She was listed as Mary Todd 86 b. NC. In 1860 she was living with Walker b 1822, and wife, Elvira Haynes Todd, in Cannon County, TN.

There are traditions reported below that Mrs. Mary Todd was in the area in 1784 based on the 1936 county history. This seems highly unlikely because this was prior to substantial settlement in the area. There are also statements about her brothers being killed by Indians in TN and KY. Since she was born in NC in the 1760s according to the 1850 and 1860 census, and this was before the Todds came to NC in 1770, it seems she was not born a Todd but married a Todd and that the brothers who died were not Todds.

Bradyville is a village eleven miles southeast of Woodbury on Brawley's Fork and the area that saw the first settlers that came into Cannon County. It is presently on State Hwy 64 and thought to be named for Mr. William Brady.

According the county history, “The Sagely family was the first to arrive and soon afterwards, Mary Todd and her brothers came and settled a few miles west of the Sagelys, who were the nearest neighbors on the east. Mary Todd is interred at the Todd Cemetery on Carson Fork and her monument shows her b. in 1762 and d. on 20-Nov-1866 at the age of 104 years. Holy Bible is above her name on tombstone”

Sterling Brown's History of Woodbury and Cannon County, TN (1936) page 30-31: "soon aft the arrival of the Sagely family (1784) Mrs. Mary Todd (widow) and her bros and family came and settled a few miles west of the Sagelys, who were her nearest neighbors on the east, while her nearest neighbors on the west were two families at Double Springs near Murfreesboro in Rutherford County. Three of Mrs. Todd's bros were killed by Indians in KY and two were killed by them at Old Fort Nash near where she lived. For seven years aft they settled, they had no bread to eat for there were no mills near to grind grist. For this very necessary article of diet, hominy and parched corn were substituted.

Benjamin Todd, her bro, came later. He was a Rev War soldier, and at the time of his death, was the owner of a piece of furniture (a secretary) which was handed to other generations of the family, resting later in the possession of, the daughter of Walker Todd b1822 Mrs. Tom Patton, who lives near Bradyville. This secretary had a secret drawer within a drawer, which was not discovered until Mrs. Patton became the possessor. In it she found papers, which were issued to him showing him to be a Rev War soldier, also quite a lot of Continental money, all of which she now has in her possession.

"Just a few incidents of the family life of these settlers. Mrs. Todd on several occasions attended Indian dances on Carson's Fork, a tributary of Brawley's Fork of Stones River on which she lived, but several miles east of her home. These dances were held just above where her gson, Walker Todd, afterwards settled and where Mrs. Todd was buried in 1866 at the age of 104 years. On the occasions of these Indian dances, Mrs. Todd was arrayed in her very best doe skin skirt and a fawn skin waist. On one occasion, a huge bear visited the home of Mrs. Todd when all the men were away and ascended to the board roof, which was weighted down with poles, and began to pry the boards apart, trying to reach down into the loft where some venison was hanging. While the bear was in the act of reaching the deer meat, Mrs. Todd seized her flint rock rifle and shot the bear, which toppled down onto the floor, furnishing more meat for the Todd family.

"These first settlers relied chiefly upon wild game, which was abundant in the country for their meat, and brought salt on horse back from KY to savor or cure it. These horses were laden with packs of salt and led through the wilderness along Indian or buffalo trails."

History of Cannon County by Robert L. Mason (1984) stated: "another family traditionally said to have settled on the waters of Brawley's Fork in the 1780s was a widow named Mary Todd and two of her brothers." And, "the strongest factor favorable to settlement in the area of Brawley's Fork by 1784 was the building of Fort Nash on the Nickajack Trail in that year." Old Fort Nash is supposed to be where Indians killed Mary's two brothers. Old Fort Nash was in operation until around 1806. TN became a state in 1796 and before that, it was part of NC. (Ed note: Mr. Mason probably based his statements on Sterling Brown's 1936 book.)

From Cannon County Gazetteer's, Communities Past and Present: "Robinson is on Robinson Ridge in the TN Basin Divide between the Cumberland River watershed and the Duck River watershed. It is near the site of the vanished Old Fort Nash established in 1784 by NC to help protect the Cumberland settlements. There is only a cemetery there now." From R. A. Dennis' records of Cannon County, TN: "

They followed the old Nickajack Trail. Nickajack was a hair lipped Indian. He was Chief of a tribe of Indians that lived or roamed about in OH, IN, and KY. This tribe of Indians would go east once or twice every year." Sterling Brown's History of Woodbury and Cannon County, TN states that "Moon, a celebrated warrior, was killed by Cpt James McKain. Moon was the only hairlipped Indian in that whole country as far as known."

Inventory list which reads:
"Widow Todd (2) years support, 75 bushels wheat, 200 lbs sugar, 110 barrels corn, 2500 lbs pork, 10 lbs soda, 4 lbs spice, 10 lbs rice, 1 barrel salt, and whatever on hand, 10 gallons molasses, 10 lbs. Vinegar (?) 8 lbs. pepper, 2 hogs supposed to weigh 125 lbs."
Dated 26-Oct-1857 and recorded Feb/Jul 1858, B Lassiter, Clk.

The Todds of Cannon and Rutherford Counties say Mary showed up in Cannon County with gson, Walker, was in a horse drawn wagon, and came from KY. This conflicts with the county history report that she was in the area in 1784.

Benjamin and Mary had the following children:

124 F x.Elizabeth Todd was born in 1792/1800.

43.Thomas Isaac Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 3 Jun 1760 in Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died on 5 Apr 1843 in Heltonville, Lawrence, Indiana, USA. He was buried on 7 Apr 1843 in Heltonville, Lawrence, Indiana, USA.

Thomas Todd was born in the Easton/Bethlehem area of Northampton County in 1760. He came to Rowan County as a boy and as a teenager served in the Revolutionary War. As the war was ending, he married Zipporah Conger in Rowan County in 1781. He and his wife and 7 children came to Madison Co KY about 1796 or so. There the rest of his children were born.

By 1805, he had acquired 100 acres in the Muddy Creek area.

In 1839, he moved to Lawrence County, Indiana and died there in 1843.

Notes and Documentation:

From Abstracts of Rev War Pension Files 3511: "Thomas, NC Line,S17736, sol was b. 03-Jun-1760 near Easton, PA and lived in Rowan County, NC at enlistment and about 1796 moved to Madison County, KYwhere he applied 13-Aug-1832. About 1839 moved to Lawrence County, IN and lived with his children (not named). Sol had also served as a sub for his bro, Benjamin Todd.

Sol's bro, Peter Todd, was b. in Jun 1756 in PA and during the Rev War, he lived in Rowan County, NC and in1832, was a resident of Madison County, KY. Sol's bro, William Todd, was aged 67 in 1832 and during the Rev War, lived with his father in Rowan County, NC and later moved to Madison County, KY. Sol had two bro-in-laws (not named) that served in Rev War."

Witnessed the will of Robert Barkley 05-Dec-1786 at Rowan County, NC. Thomas Todd Jr was on the 1784 and 1790 tax lists of Rowan County, NC.Jr prob used to distinguish between the other Thomas Todds in the area. There were three Thomas Todds on the tax list of Rowan County for 1784 and only Thomas Jr appeared on the 1790 tax list.

Thomas Todd was on the 1790 Federal Census of Rowan County, NC, Salisbury Dist, with 1M over 16, 3M under 16, and 3 Free White Females. Thomas Todd, along with his bro Peter, son of Benjamin Todd and Sarah Giffin, witnessed the will of Caleb Todd, uncle, son of Joshua, in 1794in Rowan County, NC.

Thomas Todd volunteered04-Jun-1777 and served as a Pvt in Cpt David Cowan and John Armstrong’s CO under Col Dixon's NC RGT for 14 months and 7 days. He volunteered in 1781 as a substitute for his bro, Benjamin Todd, and served two months as a Pvt in Cpt James Craig's CO of Light Horse, under Col Davis in the NC troops.

Thomas appears in the Madison County, KY tax records 1801-1809 and on Muddy Creek with 100 acres 1805-1809, where he was living when his pension application was executed 13-Aug 1832. Thomas moved about 1839 to Lawrence County, IN to live with his children. In addition to naming his bros, Peter, Benjamin, and William Todd, the declaration mentioned that two of his bro-in-laws served in the Rev War, but did not give their names.

Thomas married Zipporah Conger on 12 Feb 1781 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Zipporah was born on 11 Jan 1761 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died on 23 Jan 1832 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

They had the following children:

125 M i.Isaac Todd was born on 12 Aug 1782. He died on 9 Feb 1859.

126 F ii.Jane 'Jinny' Todd was born on 24 Aug 1784. She died on 24 Feb 1871.

127 M iii.Jonathan Todd was born on 22 Sep 1786. He died on 2 May 1865.

128 F iv.Hannah Susannah Todd was born on 23 Oct 1788. She died on 1 Mar 1868.

129 M v.Peter Todd was born on 15 Jun 1791. He died on 18 Jan 1859.

130 M vi.Henry Todd was born on 20 Mar 1793 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Henry married (1) Abigail 'Gilly' Roberts on 10 Apr 1817 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Henry married (2) Elizabeth Houston on 17 Jan 1847.

131 M vii.Daniel Todd was born on 11 Nov 1793 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Norma Todd Cansler has marriage date of 17-Apr-1817 and Maj Johnson,Bondsman.
Daniel was on the 1820 Madison County, KY Census.
ApparentlySQS Enterprises'
Early KY Marriages gave bond date as Date of marriage of10-Apr-1817.

Daniel married Lucy Johnson on 17 Apr 1817 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

132 M viii.Thomas Todd was born on 19 Dec 1799 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He died on 28 Dec 1873 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He was buried in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Thomas married Susan Johnson on 24 Apr 1825 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Susan was born in 1807. She died in 1865 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She was buried in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

133 F ix.Sally Todd was born on 10 May 1801 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

134 M x.Moses Todd was born on 16 Jul 1803.

135 F xi.Sally Todd was born on 21 Jul 1805 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She died on 10 May 1880.
Sally married William Morrow in 1859.

44.Mary 'Polly' Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1763 in Easton, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. She died after 29 Aug 1800 in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She was buried in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Mary Todd is listed here as the daughter of Benjamin Todd b 1732. This Mary married William Scudder in Rowan County in 1783 and later moved to Wilkes County Georgia, settling not far from where Caleb Todd b 1751 had settled.

However, there is disagreement as to the father of this Mary Todd. Some believe she is the daughter of Caleb Todd (including some Scudder family researchers) and some believe she is the sister of Caleb Todd.

Those who believe she is the daughter of Caleb Todd do so because they believe that Caleb's sister was the Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 of Cannon County TN who was cited in the 1936 History of Woodbury and Cannon County as being the sister of Benjamin Todd 1759-1855, son of Benjamin Todd I b 1725. If Mrs. Mary Todd were the daughter of Benjamin Todd b 1725, then Mary Todd Scudder could not be the daughter of this Benjamin.

Others look at the 32 year period between Caleb's birth in 1751 and Mary's marriage in 1783 and question whether it is likely for Caleb to have been 16 when Mary was born and Mary to have been 16 when she married William Scudder. This questioning leads to doubting the accuracy of the county history. Also, the children of Caleb appear to have been born between 1778 and 1802; some do not see a 14 year gap between Mary and Caleb's other children being a likely situation. Furthermore, Mary Todd 1762-1866 appears on the 1850 and 1860 census of Cannon Co TN as having been born in NC in the 1760s. Yet the Todds didn't get to NC until the 1770s; so Mary 1762-1866 was not likely born a Todd. DNA evidence suggests that Walker Todd b 1822 grandson of Mrs. Mary Todd was more closely related to Benjamin Todd b 1759, suggesting that Benjamin Todd was his grandfather and hence Mary Todd 1762-1866 was not likely to have been his sister.

William Scudder was listed on the 1790 tax list of Wilkes County, GA as one white male with 50 acres on Fishing Creek adjoining Joseph Herd and Lewis Davis.

In the Minutes of Inferior Court 1799-1801 page 13, it is recorded that William Scudder was decd with Polly Scudder and Lewis C Davis appointed temporary Admns and Benjamin Todd (first cousin) and Roger Green, Security.

In the Minutes of Inferior Court 1798-1811 page 129 07-Apr-1802, it is recorded that Lewis C Davis, Admns of William Scudder, decd, petitioned to sell real estate. In the Minutes of Inferior Court 1801-1803 page 89 (date not identified) it is recorded that Lewis C Davis, Admns of William Scudder, decd, was given permission to sell 50 acres of land adjoining said Davis and Druty Williams."

On the tax lists of 1799-1807 in Madison County, KY was Isaac Scudder.Henry Scudder appeared on the tax list of 1802 in Madison County, KY. Abner Scudder m. Catherine Barclay/Barkley on 19-Aug-1789 in Rowan County, NC.. Marriage record of Mary Todd, which was provided by Yvonne Todd Gamblin of OK. The date on this record is 22nd day of Feb 1783

Marriages to William Scudder, and marriage bond recorded in Book 22 page 1684.

There is a copy of another document, with the legible part as Dec 10,1799: " Citation granted unto Lewis C Davis and Polly Scudder to obtain Letters of Admns on the estate of William Scudder, decd. On Feb 24,1800, this Honorable Court, State of GA, Wilkes County, ordered that Letters of Admns be given to Polly (Mary) Scudder and Lewis C Davis.(Parts of this document are not legible). On the 29th of Aug 1800,State of GA, Wilkes County: Know all men by these present that we, Polly Scudder, Lewis C Davis, Benjamin Todd, and Roger Green are held and firmly bound unto their Honors, the Judges of the Court of Ordinary for said county, etc." This document was the inventory and condition of the obligation on William Scudder's estate, to sell goods and chattels of William Scudder. Benjamin Todd, Lewis C Davis, and Caleb Todd bought back part of this estate. So William Scudder died before Dec10, 1799 and his wife, Polly, was alive on 29-Aug-1800 in GA. She left GA and went to Madison County, KY.

Mary Todd Scudder was reported to have appeared in Madison County KY on 02-Oct-1807 along with Isaac Scudder.

Mary married William Scudder Sr. on 22 Feb 1783 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. William was born about 1763. He died before 10 Dec 1799 in Wilkes County, Georgia, USA.

They had the following children:

136 M i.William Scudder Jr. was born on 26 Jan 1795 in Richmond County, Georgia, USA. He died on 23 May 1858 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He was buried in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Was in Madison County, KY 1802, age 7, where he resided until his death on 23-May-1858, and age 63 years, 4 months, 27 days. Mark Scudder, Judge in Madison County, KY, told Yvonne Gamblin that William Scudder, who m. Lucy Fowler in Madison County, KY, was the son of Mary Todd Scudder, who m. William Scudder in NC. That William was hauling timber in the backwoods of KY, in the Muddy Creek area, and the wagon turned over on him.

William married Lucy Fowler in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

46.William Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 28 Apr 1768 in Bethlehem, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died before 5 Nov 1849 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He was buried in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

William Todd was born Pennsylvania in 1765 or 1768 and came to Rowan County as an infant. There he grew to adulthood and about 1790 he married a cousin, Elizabeth Todd daughter of his uncle Caleb Todd.

The 1790 Rowan County,NC tax list/census, Salisbury Dist, list him as 1 male over 16, 1male under 16, and 3 FreeWhite Females. If these were his children, then this would suggest that he had married somewhat prior to 1790 and that his oldest children were slightly older than historians have estimated their births.

He brought his growing family to Madison Co KY about 1797 and there the last four of his children were born.

In 1799, he bought 50 acres on Silver Creek and then in 1801 he bought another 30 acres on Muddy Creek near his kinfolk. Since he was not taxed on the Silver Creek land, we suspect that he rented out the land to his wife's siblings: John Todd b 1773, Caleb Todd and Joshua Todd b 1769. It was on Silver Creek that John Todd settled and appeared in the tax lists, even prior to his buying land. However, it could also be that the land lay where Muddy Creek and the Hays Fork of Silver Creek approach each other.

William died in 1849.

His will reads:

Madison County, KY Will Book J page 190, 29-Nov-1838 and proved 05-Nov-1849:"This is to certify that I, William Todd of Madison County, State ofKY, has this 29th day of Nov in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight, made this my Last Will and Testament, being somewhat frail in body but sound in mind and memory. First, my wish is that my body be buried Whereunto I have set my hand and affixed my seal the day and year first written above. Wits: Irv Searcy, G W Broaddus, and J D Park.

KY, Madison County Court: "I, J M Shackelford, Clk of the County of said county to certify that at a County Court held for said county on the fifth day of Nov, eighteen hundred and forty nine, this instrument of writing was produced in open court and proven to be the Last Will and Testament of William Todd, decd, by the oaths of George W Broaddus and Joshua

Notes and Documentation:

He was not listed in the Rowan County, North Carolina Marriage Records 1754-1866 by Frances T. Ingmire.

Edna Todd Lackie has William's Date of birth as 28-Apr-1765. If he were b. in1765 instead of 1768, Aaron and William would not be twins, as listed in other records. She also compiled the families of William Todd(father) and sons, John and Caleb, from family records of Sadie Ralston Kuhlman, Paint Lick, KY.

01-Apr-1799 Indenture made from John Bryant and wife, Mary Bryant, to William and Elizabeth Todd for land on Silver Creek in Madison County,KY, 50 acres more or less. 1801 Book E, John Dollard to William Todd, 33acres on Muddy Creek. William is listed on the tax records of Madison County, KY with these 33 acres on Muddy Creek1802-1809, then 33 plus 50 from 1814 to 1818, the 80 acres on Muddy in 1819-1820. It is almost as if the land lay where Muddy Creek and Silver Creek approach each other.

William married Elizabeth 'Jemima' Todd daughter of Caleb Todd Sr. and Margaret Catherine Williams in 1790 in Prob. Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Elizabeth was born about 1770 in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania or Rowan County, North Carolina. She died in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Elizabeth died bef Nov 1849, Madison County, KY, Bur. Prob U.S.Cemetery A (Madison) KY, Other: Tract #81-E, Sec. G, Lot #10.

William and Elizabeth had the following children:

137 F i.Sally Todd was born about 1790. She died in 1840/1844.

138 M ii.Caleb Todd was born about 1791. He died after Nov 1850.

139 F iii.Mary 'Polly' Todd was born about 1792.

140 F iv.Zipporah Zephorah /Todd was born on 30 May 1793. She died on 9 Aug 1875.

141 F v.Elizabeth Todd was born about 1797 in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She died after Nov 1849.
Elizabeth married Thomas O. Cullum on 23 Oct 1817 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

142 M vi.John Todd was born on 1 Dec 1799. He died on 29 Jan 1864.

143 F vii.Hannah Todd was born about 1800. She died after Nov 1849.

144 M viii.Thomas T. Todd was born in 1805. He died on 30 Nov 1863.

47.John Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 25 Mar 1773 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 15 Apr 1839 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

John Todd was born in 25 March 1773 (per family bible) in Rowan County, NC.
A North Carolina birth is confirmed by the 1880 census entry for John's son

Joel who indicated that his father was born in NC.

By 1821, John Todd had settled on Hayes Fork of Silver Creek, a few miles southwest of Muddy Creek where Benjamin Todd and his family had settled when they came to Madison Co.

John has previously been identified by earlier historians as son of Caleb Todd b 1730/1740 presumably because Benjamin Toddb 1721/1731 was thought to have a son John b 1752. However, the John born 1752 probably died young because there are no references to him other than the birth date. Benjamin b 1721/1731 has a male over 16 living with him in 1790 as well as 2 males under 16. So there is space in Benjamin's family for this John b 1773. Also, Caleb Todd b1730/1740 only had 4 sons in 1790, presumed to be Caleb, Joshua, Benjamin and Joseph.

Shortly after the Todds arrival in Madison County, John married Patsy Collier in the summer or early fall of 1797 (14 Aug 1797 in the Bible record, 7 Nov 1798 in the court bond).

John appears on the tax lists of Madison Co beginning in 1797. He is taxed on 102 acres between 1804 and 1822, sometimes on Hays Fork and sometimes of Silver Creek, suggesting that he was on Hays Fork of Silver Creek during this entire period. In 1821, he bought another 32 acres (possibly 50 acres) on Hays Fork (Book F, page ?) and was taxed on 152 acres after that date. in 1832, he bought another 120 acres on Silver Creek.

Since John was being taxed on land for which there is no record of his buying prior to 1821, it is possible that the was occupying and farming the land of William Todd who purchased 50 acre s on Silver Creek in 1799 and then 100 acres on Silver Creek in 1811.

In 1819, John's father-in-law, John Collier sold John Todd land on Muddy Creek.

John died 15 April 1839 (per family bible).

Darwin Newton reports that John was bondsman on the marriage of one of William Todd's daughters in 1817 (presumably Elizabeth Todd md 1817 John McCollum). Since William Todd's son John was only 18 years old in 1817, then the John Todd who appeared as bondsman on the marriage recod must have been John Todd b 1773. This further supports the sense of a close association between John Todd b 1773 and William Todd b 1768 and William's wife Elizabeth (dau of Caleb Todd b 1731).

Darwin writes, "There is a marriage bond on file in Madison County, KY for John Todd and Patsy Collier. It was issued7-Nov-1798 with Walter Barclay as the bondsman and consent from John'Cholar' as father of the bride. There are estate records for John'Collier' that confirm his dau, Patsy, m. John Todd."

There is also a note of an additional sale bill of 05-Apr-1841 that may well be a logical disposition of the dower aft Martha's death.

John Todd d. on 15-Apr-1839 and Martha Todd d. 18-May-1846.

On the three geographically ordered tax lists for Madison County in this era, John appeared on the list that had only himself, Benjamin Todd m to Alsey Nickerson, and briefly Reuben and William. This Benjamin, Reuben and William were all grandsons of Benjamin b 1721/1731.

John married Martha Patsy Collier on 7 Nov 1798 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Martha was born on 16 Jan 1782 in Kentucky, USA. She died on 18 May 1846.

They had the following children:

145 F i.Nancy Todd was born about 1799.

146 M ii.Joel Elias Todd I was born on 8 Mar 1801. He died in 1886.

147 M iii.William Todd was born on 4 Nov 1802 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He died on 24 Dec 1802 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

148 F iv.Amelia Permelia /Todd was born on 20 Dec 1803. She died on 24 Oct 1832.

149 F v.Jaly Todd was born on 16 Jun 1805. She died on 29 Jun 1834.

150 M vi.John Todd II was born on 14 Feb 1807. He died on 2 Sep 1861.

151 F vii.Lucy Todd was born on 8 Apr 1808 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.
Lucy married Perry Bicknell on 11 Aug 1839 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Perry was born about 1816.

152 F viii.Minerva Todd was born on 8 Sep 1809 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She died on 2 Jul 1834.
Minerva married Edward Hawkins on 25 Mar 1830 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

153 M ix.Levi Todd was born on 14 Aug 1811. He died on 12 Feb 1849.

50.placeholder Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the).

We do not know the identity of Elizabeth Duncan but DNA suggested the possibility that she was kin to the Todds. We have placed an unknown Todd as child of Benjamin b 1721/1731 just as a placeholder to indicate close kinship. Further research is needed to determine how Elizabeth Dunkin is related to the Todds.

placeholder had the following children:

154 F i. Elizabeth LNU was born about 1798. She died in 1860/1870.

51. Caleb Todd Jr. (Caleb Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1764 in Northampton Co, PA. He died about 1806 in Prob. Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Caleb Todd was born about 1764 in Northampton Co PA. This birth year is approximated based on him being 23 at the birth of his eldest son in 1787 and his other siblings being born 1765-1773. Caleb b 1764 was the son of Caleb Todd b 1735-40 in Philadelphia or Bucks County, PA. He moved with his parents and uncles and their families to Rowan County about 1770, when only 12 years old.

After his father's death in 1795, he obtained in February 1797 a grant for 400 acres on Crows and Abbots Creek (presumably the land entered by his father in 1778 and mentioned in his father'w will) and sold it in March to Mary Gilstrap. He then migrated to Madison Co KY with his other Todd kin.

He appeared on the tax lists 1799 and 1800 and then went to Missouri where his daughter Sarah was born in 1800 and son John was born about 1804/5. He returned to Kentucky (probably Hopkins Co) where his son Reuben Todd was born about 1806. He died shortly thereafter and his widow Sarah appeared on the 1810 census in Hopkins Co. along with her young children.

This Caleb has been confused with the Caleb Todd b 1751 who migrated from Rowan County to Wilkes Co GA by 1781 and then to Madison Co in 1803 and then died about 1806. This Caleb b 1751 also had a wife Sarah (Sarah Bentley) who seems to be the Sarah who appeared in the Madison Co Tax list the year after Caleb b 1751 disappeared from the list. By 1810, Sarah Bentley Todd was on a tax list in Scott Co KY.

Another confusion was with Caleb Todd b 1794, presumed son of Joseph Todd b 1757 and Mary Berry. This Caleb is assumed to be the Caleb who was the father of Baxter Todd b 1813, and the husband of Frankey Roberts married 1817, and the husband of Susan Cradlebaugh married 1835

This latter Caleb is probably the Caleb listed with 46 acres on Drowning Creek in 1806.

Going back to our Caleb b 1758, his widow Sarah bought land in Hopkins County in 1818 from Hiram Hodge and sold it in 1820 to Harrison Davis. Her purchase was witnessed by Jonathan Todd, who is assumed to be her son. In 1825, Jonathan Todd sells a parcel adjacent to Sarah's land to Nathan Fox who immediately turns it over to Joshua Todd, the brother of Caleb b 1758. This supports the theory that Sarah had a close connection to the Caleb Todd family and was likely Caleb's widow.

“Sarah is on the 1810 Madisonville (Hopkins) County, KY Census:22000-12010.

“1818 Hopkins County, KY Deed Book II, 1816-1818 page 40 Excerpt: ‘Hiram Hodge of Hopkins County to Sarah Todd of same, $120 for land lying in Hopkins County, KY, 20 acres.’ Wit: Jeremiah Palmer and Jonathan Todd. Sam Woodson, Clk page 231.

“The 1790 census of Rowan County indicates a Caleb Todd Jr with only one son under 16, not three (error, below shows 1 male and 3 females)as shown below. This one male would have been Jonathan b 1787.

Caleb married Sarah L. N. Unknown about 1786.

possibly Sarah L. N. Unknown

Caleb and Sarah had the following children:

155 M i.Jonathan Todd was born about 1787 in North Carolina, South Carolina, or Georgia.

Jonathan is the assumed son of Sarah Todd of Hopkins County, KY and Caleb Todd of Madison County because he appears in the 1810 census in Hopkins County, and because his land is adjacent to the land that Sarah Todd bought in 1818. Jonathan sold his property to Nathan Fox in 1825 who turned it around and sold to Joshua Todd, brother of Caleb b. 1758, suggesting a close family connection.

Jonathan was in White County, IL by 1830, along with Reuben and Damara. Census records of his children alternatively indicate a NC,SC, and GA birth place for Jonathan.

1820 Hopkins County, KY Census page 267 Jonathan Todd: 310010-10010.

156 M ii. Thomas Todd was born about 1793.

157 F iii. Damara Todd was born about 1796 in North Carolina, USA.

Moved to White County, IL in the1830s and to Clayton County, Iowa bef the Civil War. Jake says "a quilt made by Damara in 1832 is in a museum in Washington State and her children fought for the Iowa Volunteers during the Civil War.

"The oldest quilt in the WRVM's collection was made in 1832. The quiltis red and green on a white background. Pieced blocks in the TurkeyTracks pattern alternate with white blocks quilted with wreaths andcrosshatched lines. This quilt was made by Damara Todd Lockridge. Bornin 1796 in North Carolina, she married John Lockridge in 1822.
During the period the quilt was made, the family lived in Illinois. In the1840s the family moved to a farm in Iowa. There, Damara Lockridge diedin 1857. The quilt was given to their son, John, who moved to theEnumclaw area in 1884. Over the years, the rest of the Lockridgechildren settled in the Auburn-Enumclaw-

Buckley area. The quilt was passed down in the family and was generously donated to the museum by Jane Gattavara in 1989. We are proud to feature the Lockridge quilt inthe new exhibits at the museum."

Rachelle Emigh of Post Falls, Idaho says that "Damey and JohnLockridge lived in Hopkins County, KY until 1830 (m. in 1822) and thenmoved with Sarah Todd, a younger sister (Sarah was m. (1819) to Benjamin Cates when they moved to IL) and Reuben Todd to White County,IL where Reuben married Sarah Emerson. They all moved back to KY in1835. In 1850 John and Damey Lochridge moved to Clayton County, IA but three of their children, Isaac, Samuel, and Mary Jane stayed with their uncle, Reuben's family. John and Damey's youngest son, Benjamin Cates Lochridge was listed as part of the honor guard who flanked President Lincoln's coffin in the rotunda during his funeral. "

Damara married John Lockridge in 1822 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, USA.

158 F iv.Sarah Sally /Todd was born in 1800 in Missouri, USA.

Moved to White County, IL in1830 with husband, Benjamin Cates. This was the same time Damara andher husband, John Lockridge, along with Damara's brother, Reuben Todd,moved to White County, IL. The three siblings, Sarah, Damara, andReuben, with their families, moved back to Hopkins County, KY in 1835, apparently next door to another brother, John Todd.”

Sarah married Benjamin Cates in 1819 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, USA.

159 M v.John Todd was born about 1805. He died before 1860.

160 M vi.Reuben Todd was born about 1806.

52.Joshua Todd I (Caleb Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1765 in Prob. Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 3 Mar 1826 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, USA.

Joshua was born in Northampton Co PA about 1765 based on the 1810 census indicating he was over 45 and his wife being 26-45. This is a few years older than the 1769 birth estimated by earlier historians.

Joshua married Elizabeth Palmer on 3 Mar 1792 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Elizabeth was born about 1773 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died in 1840/1850 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, USA.

Joshua listed on tax records of Madison County KY 1801-1809, on the 1810 census and the 1811 tax list. In 1809 was listed on Muddy Creek. He was on the 1820 census of Hopkins County, KY.

Joshua on the 1810 census for Madison Co and the 1820 for Hopkins County, KY Census page 267: 120101-00001.

Joshua, settled in Hopkins County, KY and bought land from Jonathan Todd (assumed son of Joshua's brother Caleb b 1758 thru Nathan Fox for $1, representing a close family tie between Caleb and Joshua, probably brothers.

Will dated 03-Mar-1826 and recorded Oct 1826, Hopkins County, KY named wife, Elizabeth; sons, William, Joshua, John, and Solomon, and daus,Amy Gamblin and Sally Oldham. Marriage bond date was 03-Mar-1792 in Rowan County, NC. They moved to Madison County, KY bef 1800.

Joshua married Elizabeth Palmer on 3 Mar 1792 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. Elizabeth was born about 1773 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died in 1840/1850 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, USA.

They had the following children:

161 F i.Diama 'Amy' Todd was born in 1793.

162 F ii.Sarah 'Sally' Todd was born on 20 Aug 1800. She died on 11 Aug 1857.

163 M iii.Solomon Todd was born about 1802.

164 M iv.John Todd was born about 1805 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He died before Mar 1859 in Hopkinsville, Christian, Kentucky, USA.

"Was living alone in 1850 in Hopkins County, KY. In Mar 1859, hisestate was divided among his brothers, sisters, or their heirs," perBeverly Todd Johnson. John was single.

John was not married to Unknown .

165 M v.William Todd was born about 1807.

166 M vi.Joshua R. Todd II was born on 10 Jul 1810. He died on 15 Jul 1876.

53.Elizabeth 'Jemima' Todd (Caleb Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1770 in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania or Rowan County, North Carolina. She died in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Elizabeth died bef Nov 1849, Madison County, KY, Bur. Prob U.S.Cemetery A (Madison) KY, Other: Tract #81-E, Sec. G, Lot #10.

Elizabeth married William Todd son of Benjamin Todd I and Sarah Griffin in 1790 in Prob. Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. William was born on 28 Apr 1768 in Bethlehem, Northampton, Pennsylvania, USA. He died before 5 Nov 1849 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He was buried in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

William Todd was born Pennsylvania in 1765 or 1768 and came to Rowan County as an infant. There he grew to adulthood and about 1790 he married a cousin, Elizabeth Todd daughter of his uncle Caleb Todd.

The 1790 Rowan County,NC tax list/census, Salisbury Dist, list him as 1 male over 16, 1male under 16, and 3 FreeWhite Females. If these were his children, then this would suggest that he had married somewhat prior to 1790 and that his oldest children were slightly older than historians have estimated their births.

He brought his growing family to Madison Co KY about 1797 and there the last four of his children were born.

In 1799, he bought 50 acres on Silver Creek and then in 1801 he bought another 30 acres on Muddy Creek near his kinfolk. Since he was not taxed on the Silver Creek land, we suspect that he rented out the land to his wife's siblings: John Todd b 1773, Caleb Todd and Joshua Todd b 1769. It was on Silver Creek that John Todd settled and appeared in the tax lists, even prior to his buying land. However, it could also be that the land lay where Muddy Creek and the Hays Fork of Silver Creek approach each other.

William died in 1849.

His will reads:

Madison County, KY Will Book J page 190, 29-Nov-1838 and proved 05-Nov-1849:"This is to certify that I, William Todd of Madison County, State ofKY, has this 29th day of Nov in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight, made this my Last Will and Testament, being somewhat frail in body but sound in mind and memory. First, my wish is that my body be buried in decency and my funeral charges paid, Amen. Also all my lawful debts paid, if any, by my executors hereafter named. Second, my will is that my gson, Madison Todd, has the benefit of my farm for the term of five years from the first day of Jan 1839.The whole and sole involvement thereof on which I now reside and do so as long as I shall live, he is to have the same benefit and privileges. Thirdly, immediately aft my decease my land and holdings and kitchen furniture, and all the rest of my property be sold by my executors at public sale giving same to the credit thereon and so somas the money is collected, both of the former and last sales, then division to be made among my heirs as followeth:

"I wish my beloved daughter, Sally Todd, to have an equal share of the said estate above named. Also, I give and bequeath to my beloved son, Caleb Todd, an equal share of said estate. Also I give and bequeath to my dau, Polly Skinner's sons, one-eighth part of my estate; to Madison Todd, he is to have one-half of the eighth part and the other half to be equally divided between Silas Todd and William Todd, heirs of Polly Skinner. Also I give unto my beloved daughter, Zipporah Dodd, an equal part of said estate, also I give unto my beloved son, John Todd, equal part of said estate, also I give unto my beloved daughter, Elizabeth Cullen and the lawful heirs of her body, an equal part of said estate, also Give unto my beloved son, Thomas Todd, and equal share of said estate.

"Also I give unto by beloved daughter, Hannah Quinn (Guinn) an equal share of said estate, also I wish and give unto Madison Todd one hundred dollars for the attention paid to me in addition of what I have already given him in the will. Also I give unto Elizabeth Shannon, my granddaughter, fifty dollars out of my estate. I appoint to this my Last Will and Testament, John Todd, Madison Todd and Thomas Ballew, executors of this will.

Whereunto I have set my hand and affixed my seal the day and year first written above. Wits: Irv Searcy, G W Broaddus, and J D Park.

KY, Madison County Court: "I, J M Shackelford, Clk of the County of said county to certify that at a County Court held for said county on the fifth day of Nov, eighteen hundred and forty nine, this instrument of writing was produced in open court and proven to be the Last Will and Testament of William Todd, decd, by the oaths of George W Broaddus and Joshua 54.Benjamin Todd (Caleb Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1771 in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania or Rowan County, North Carolina. He died after 1860 in Montgomery County, Illinois, USA.

Benjamin Todd was born in 1771 in Rowan County. This birth year is what is listed in the 1860 census and is consistent with the 1770-1780 birth suggested by the 1830 and 1840 census.

After the death of his father Caleb in 1795, he and his siblings and his mother, Margaret Williams Todd, went to Madison County KY with the rest of the Todd kin. One record says, "Please let the (?) Benjamin Todd have marriage license given under my hand this 25th of May 1803," signed by Andrew McClanahan and Wm Ervin, Clk.

Though it is difficult to determine which of the tax list entries pertains to this Benjamin, it seems as if he appears in 1797, 1799, 1803 and 1806-1809 and in the 1810 census. In the census, he is shown with 2 daus b. 1800-1810 and he and his wife are identified as being born 1784-1794. The census taker appears in error on their ages, but accurate as to their children.

Research in 2006 supports the tradition of Benjamin´s moving to Warren County and identifies this Benjamin as the same Benjamin who later marries Rachel Moore in Warren County in 1818. Benjamin appears first in the 1810 census, with four females born 1800-1810 and he and his wife are identified as being born in 1784-1794. The census taker appears to have made the same error in ages as when he enumerated Benjamin just before he left Madison County. The age of Benjamin in the 1820 Warren County and 1840/50 Montgomery County, IL census are consistent that Benjamin was born 1770-1780 with the 1850 census supporting a birth in 1771. Also, we have documented only two daus b.before 1800 for Benjamin. So Benjamin of Warren County and Benjamin of Madison appear to be the same age and have the same family structure.

Benjamin appears first in the Warren County tax lists in 1812. Then in the 1815, 1817, and 1819 tax lists, he is listed as owning 66-68acres of land though no record of purchase or sale has been found. In1818, he remarried to Rachel Moore, Sarah presumably having died aft1815, and the Date of birth of their last child. He settled in Montgomery County, IL by 1839. His son Thomas and daughter Catherine married there in1835 and 1838 respectively. He last appears in the 1860 census in Montgomery County, IL.

In 1819, he went to court against John Sammons claiming that Sammons attacked him with `sticks and staves´ and `did beat and bruise´ him.

Uncle Ben was in the late war with England, the War of 1812. He served out in the same Company with Hiram Roundtree, under the immediate command of Governor Shelby of Kentucky, and aft serving with General Harrisons army in Ohio, crossed Lake Erie with Commodore Perry´s fleet, and was in the celebrated Battle of the Thames, which was so decisive that the allied forces of the British and Indians were so completely defeated, that so far as the North was concerned, the war was ended. Uncle Ben did not come to our county until perhaps, 1840´(from 1873 issue of Hillsboro, IL newspaper).´´

58.Joseph Todd (Caleb Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1770/1779 in Rowan Co NC. He died in 1810/1812 in St Louis Co, Missouri Territory.

Joseph died about 1810/1812 and that year 1810 Benjamin Quick sold to Rachel Todd (his sister) 40 arpents (32 acres) of land near Spanish Pond, about 14 miles north of the town of St Louis. The sale confirmed that Rachel was still alive in 1810. Joseph died by 1810-1812 based on the sale of his goods for the benefit of his heirs recorded in 1817 by Vincent Carrico, his brother-in-law. Rachel died by 1816 based on her brother Daniel Quick assuming guardianship of her sons Moses and Aaron in that year.

Probate records for Joseph Todd filed in 1817 in St Louis County of Missouri Territory documented that his heirs included: Moses Todd, Lydia Todd, Margaret Todd, Aaron Todd and Jonas Todd. Daniel Quick, Rachel's brother, filed for guardianship of Moses and Aaron in 1816.

Seventh Generation

62.Elizabeth 'Eliza' Meredith (Mary Todd, Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 4 Nov 1773.

Rev. Dr. Andrews of Philadelphia performed the marriage on 5 December 1795.

Elizabeth married Abraham Chapman Esquire on 5 Dec 1795. Abraham was born about 1736.

They had the following children:

184 F i.Mary Chapman was born on 17 Mar 1797. She died on 28 Aug 1797.

187 F iv.Ann Chapman .

188 M v.Henry Chapman .

189 M vi.Isaac Chapman .

190 F vii.Elizabeth Chapman .

191 M viii.Samuel Chapman .

65.Isaiah Todd (Joseph Todd, Thomas Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1770 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died before 1850 in St Louis County, Missouri, USA.

Isaiah was one of the four earliest arrivals in Madison County, KY.

The 1795 tax record:

Todd, Isaiah 1770 Madison son of Joseph Todd/Anne Crose
Todd, Joseph 1748 Madison son of Thomas Todd/Elizabeth Unknown
Todd, Thomas Jr 1771 Madison son of Joseph Todd/Anne Crose
Todd, Thomas Sr 1749 Madison son of Thomas Todd/Elizabeth Unknown
Sr and Jr used to distinguish between same names and not necessarily father and son. So we have two sets of brothers as the first Todd arrivals.

Isaiah married Elizabeth Unknown . Elizabeth was born about 1794 in North Carolina, USA.

They had the following children:

192 M i.John A. Todd was born about 1834.

193 M ii.Cortes Todd was born about 1835 in Missouri, USA.

194 F iii.Margaret Todd was born about 1837 in Missouri, USA.

66.Thomas Todd (Joseph Todd, Thomas Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 25 Dec 1771 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 13 Jun 1857 in Fayette, Howard, Missouri, USA.

Marriages Solemnized by Andrew Tribble that statesThomas Todd to Polly Chenault on Mar 4, 1795.

Thomas Jr listed on the tax record of Madison County, KY in 1795. Sr and Jr used to distinguish between same names and not necessarily father and son.

There were four Todds listed as the earliest arrivals in Madison County, KY:

Thomas Sr 1749 (son ofThomas Todd/Elizabeth Unknown);
Thomas Jr 1771 (son of Joseph Todd/AnneCrose); Isaiah 1770 (son of Joseph Todd/Anne Crose); and Joseph 1748 (son of Thomas Todd/Elizabeth Unknown).

So we have two sets of brothers as the first Todd arrivals.

Thomas married Mary 'Polly' Chenault on 4 Mar 1795 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Mary was born on 14 May 1775. She died on 2 Jan 1834.

67.Joseph C. Todd (Joseph Todd, Thomas Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 4 Nov 1777 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 17 Feb 1851 in Platte County, Missouri, USA.

Richard McMurtry has Joseph listed on the tax records of MadisonCounty, KY in 1800, 1802, 1804-1809.

The following excerpt from the Annals of Platte County (Missouri) shows the error about Joseph b 1748 migrating to Hardin Co and then Howard Co. Joseph b 1748 died by 1810 in Madison Co. It was his son Joseph C. Todd who migrated to Hardin Co and then to Howard Co as described below:

Joseph Todd was b in Pennsylvania about 1748. He m'd Ann Crose, a German lady, and after residing a time in Rowan Co NC removed to Hardin Co KY and thence to Madison Co KY. In 1817, he pressed forward to Howard Co MO. Here most of his children remained. We will name his 13 children, reserving full notices for those who came to Platte (County):

1. Thomas Todd lived and died in Howard (County)
2. Isiah Todd, went to St Louis
3. Elisha Todd , lived in Clay
4. Davis, lived in Howard
5. Jonathan, was killed by Indians
6. Levi, lived in Howard
7. Jesse, lived in Clay
8. Joseph, came to Platte
9. Nancy, m'd Murphy and went to St Louis Co
10. Susan, m'd McCrea and went to Illinois
11. Betsy, m'd Burnan, and lived in Howard
12. Phoebe, m'd John Wagle, perhaps a cousin
13. Maj. William Todd, came to Platte

Joseph and William were the only sons that came to Platte. We will therdfore notice them only.

I. Joseph Todd

He was born in Rowan Co NC Nov 4, 1777 died in Platte Feb 17, 1851; married in Madison Co KY. Cynthia Williams, Dr. of Jarred Williams of Jefferson Co Ky. She died in Platte June 27, 1870, aged 89. The marriage took place about 1803. IN 1817, the family came in Wagons to the Boonslick Country of Missouri and formed a large settlement in the new lands. In the spring of 1823, the pioneers pressed forward to Clay, the utmost verge of civilization. Mr. Todd's homestead was one mile east of the site of Barry. Here he was know as an expert hunter, and an unerring rifleman. Attracted by the lovely prairies and the noble forest of our present home, frequent excursions were made into the territory. Mr. Todd and his sons with Robert Cain established a sugar camp at the mouth of the creek still known as Todd's

Creek. Long before our lands were open for settlement, the patriarch and his sons had chosen valuable claims in the neighborhood known as "Hackberry" which is remarkable for fertility. It lay three miles west of the Falls of Platte, and on the Military Road from Fr Leavenworth to Liberty. I often met the tall and stately old gentleman. He was upwards of six feet high and weighed over 200 pounds. He had spent his life on the western order and was a typical backwoodsman. He was buried in the sacred graveyard of the Todds, where several generations of his descendants already lie.

86.Benjamin Todd [7,8,9,10,11,12] (Caleb Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born[13,14,15] in 1778 in North Carolina, USA. He died[16,17,18] on 10 Jan 1855 in Jones, Georgia, USA. The cause of death was Crushed by a falling tree. He was buried in 1855 in Georgia, USA.

Benjamin Todd was born in North Carolina about 1778 according to the 1850 census record. He came with his parents from Rowan Co to Wilkes Co GA as a young boy, sometime prior to 1786 when Caleb is listed as a neighbor on a deed and possibly prior to 1781when his assumed brother William was born.

He married about 1798 based on the birth of his first son in 1799. Bucker family researchers had assumed that his being the executor of the estate of David Montgomery in 1810 implied that Benjamin's first wife was a Montgomery. They have assumed this wife was a Rebecca Montgomery but there is no evidence as to how this inference was made.

Benjamin had come of age living next door to the Montgomery family . Both Caleb Todd and the Montgomery family owned land stretching between the Clark's Creek and Fishing Creek watersheds, . David Montgomery Sr died in 1791 and his estate refers to David, James, Mathew and a daughter who had married Robert Montogmery. There was no reference to a daughter Rebecca. James Montgomery died in 1794, just a few years later, and Rebecca and David Montgomery were administrators, presumably the widow and brother of James Montgomery. Caleb Todd and Thomas Brown (his neighbors) did the inventory. The estate was distributed to Rebecca, Ester, James and John S. Montgomery. Then in 1810, David Montgomery died and his estate was administered by Benjamin Todd. Given that one researcher has listed the death date of Rebecca Montgomery Todd in 14 Sept 1839 Jones Co GA, we can not discount that Benjamin's wife COULD have been a Rebecca Montgomery but we can find no documentary evidence of this.

In any event, In 1799, he appears in the tax list of Wilkes County GA for the first time, being taxed for 60 acres which were originally granted to Caleb Todd, Benjamin's father. By 1804, he has acquired 187 acres of Caleb's land and Caleb has disappeared from the tax lists, presumably having gone to Madison County Kentucky where most of his kin had settled.

Benjamin was still on the tax lists in 1809 and departed for Jones Co between 1809 and 1812. By 1816, only a George Hughs was taxed on land that had been originally granted to K Todd. George was presumably some relative of the Robert Hughes who owned 210 acres on Fishing Creek adjacent to K. Todd.

In any event, by 1812, Benjamin had moved to the Jones/Putnam County border where he remained for the rest of his life. By 1812, Benjamin and his brother John Todd b 1770-1780 had settled along the border between Jones and Putname County. In 1812, Benjamin Todd bought Parcel 183 just south of the boundary line. Also, in 1812, Benjamin was a witness to a strange deed recorded by John Todd of Putnam County transferring ownership of John's livestock to his "beloved sons Benjamin and Levi". This type of deed was traditionaly used as a legal maneuver to avoid having one's estate taken by creditors.

In 1816, Lot 169 in Putnam County, , a parcel immediately to the NW of Benjamin Todd's land was sold to his brother John Todd by J. F. Martin/ Martain. . Benjamin and his son John B. were on the 1816 Jones County tax list, Capt Green's District 378) Benjamin would have been 33 or 34 years old when he come to Jones Co. In 1Then in 1817, Benjamin bought Lot 170, an adjacent parcel just south of Lot 169, and in 1821 and 1823 acquired Lot 184, just to the west of Lot 169. Benjamin was referred to as Benjamin Todd Sr in the 1823 deed reflecting that Benjamin G. Todd b 1800 son of John Todd b 1770-1780 had turned 21 between 1821 and 1823.

By 1823, John and Benjamin Todd owned over a square mile of land (800 acres) with Benjamin Todd owning adjoining parcels on the south, south east and southwest of John Todd.

By the 1830s, additional lands were acquired. Benjamin's son, William and William's wife Charity somehow acquired interest in Lots 162 and 163 which they sold to John Todd, William's brother, and to Benjamin Todd, William's father - each one getting about 130 acres. Benjamin received the 50 acres that straddled the county border. John seems to have acquired another 120 acres on his own further south in Lot 161 (though no deed is recorded).

Then in 1833, Benjamin sold the land he got from William and Charity to his son-in-law Thomas Vincent. Then, in 1839, John sold to Benjamin Todd 80 acres in Lot 162 he got from William and 121 acres in Lot 161 he had obtained on his own. Then, in 1847, John sold 100 acres to Joseph Messer which probably included the 50 acres in Lot 163 he had gotten from William.

In February of 1855 Benjamin was struck by a falling tree and killed.He was over seventy-five years old and had outlived all three of his sons.

"An abstract of Benjamin's will shows the following in Will BK 1851-64, dated 10

-Sep-1853 and recorded 10-Jan-1855:

I give to my beloved wife Charity Todd during her natural life and aft death, to be returned to my estate and equally divided among my children and their legal representatives, one hundred one and a fourth acres of land being one half of lot number (not known) in Dist 6 of formerly Baldwin, but now Jones County, being the place where I now reside with all the improvements thereon. Also one Negro woman named Harriet, abt twenty six or seven years of age, and a Negro girl named Louisa, abt thirteen years old, and one Negro fellow named Jesse, abt fifty years old, two cows and calves, two sows and pigs, two beds and bedsteads, furniture, one loom and gearing, and as many of the bedclothes as she may wish, etc.

"His heirs are listed as his wife Charity, children and gchildren; Mary Green and children, Susan and Richmond Buckner, Rebecca and Thomas Vincent, Elizabeth and Reason Buckner, the wives and children of John B Todd and Benjamin A Todd. From his will one may reasonably assume that any children of his son, William Lewis Todd, who had predeceased him bef 1833, were either dead or had disappeared. William's orphans drew land in the 1832

Lottery BK D, though a widow was not listed. One of those was possibly the William L Todd 17, though named as a Vincent listed with Benjamin Todd on 1850 census.

Note: Previous family historians were led to believe that Benjamin Todd was son of John Todd of Clinton, Jones Co GA and that this John was father of Benjamin and Levi Todd of Putnam Co and that Benjamin bought land from the John Todd of Clinton, Jones Co. See the discussion under Benjamin's brother, John Todd b1770-80, to sort out this confusion.

Buckner researchers have Benjamin m. to Rebecca Montgomery, d/o David and Mary. These Todds went from Rowan County, NC to GA with the Buckner and Avery families.

House just down the road. The Mathis House is now (1999)much modified from its original form and used as a deer check station.

Benjamin Todd appears on the 1832 Land Lottery list Bk D.

Unfortunately, his first wife's name does not appear on any deeds and a record of the marriage has not yet been found. A very strong clue,however, to her identity was that Benjamin was named Administer of the 1810 Wilkes Co GA estate of David A. Montgomery. Benjamin Todd was appointed May 7,1810. Buckner researchers have named her RebeccaMontgomery, and she may have well been so.

He was married a second time to Miss Charity Kilby on July 18, 1841.Miss Kilby was born in South Carolina and was unable to read or write.She remarried after Benjamin's death, a decent year later to John Harrup on 3-16-1856.

It is reported by Anita Steele that there was a bible record of Benjamin's family in a bible having belonged originally to John B.Todd. Among her Aunt's partially typed and partially handwritten notes is this: "from Bible owned by Jn B Todd, published by H.E. Phinney,Cooperstown, NY, 1829" listing two additional sons of Benjamin and Rebecca, who died in infancy. [We do not now know who owns this bible.]

From his will one may reasonably assume that any children of his son William Lewis Todd, who had predeceased him before 1833, were either dead or had disappeared. William's orphans drew land in the 1832 lottery book D, though a widow was not listed. One of those was possibly the William L. Todd, age 17 (though named as a Vincent) listed with Benj. Todd on 1850 census.

After Benjamin's death and his wife's remarriage, the house was occupied by the Vincent family (his daughter Rebecca had marriedThomas Vincent). By the time an 1879 map was drawn of the area, the house had become known as the Driscol House.

Lorena Spillers notes, via Anita Steel:
"Benjamin TODD, born 1778 Rowan County, NC, died 1855 Jones County,GA; married (1st) 1798 Wilkes County, GA, Rebecca Montgomery, born1775-1785 NC, died 1830 Jones County, GA. The book "History of Jones County Georgia" by Carolyn White Williams contains an article on the Todd and Buckner families who lived in the Union Hill area straddling the Putnam/Jones border in the first half of the nineteenth century. There is no author credited for this article, and Ms. Williams' house burned after the book was published, losing all her notes forever, so we are completely at a loss as to who wrote the piece or what their sources were. I have come to believe that the source for the Williams' article was a Buckner descendant -most likely the late Lorena Martin Spillers.

(See discussion under Benjamin's brother John Todd to sort out the various John Todd's.)

Ms. Spillers' did most of her research from 1925 through 1975, and the Williams' book was published in 1957.

The assertions in Williams' book are that Benjamin Todd was the son of John Todd Jr and his wife Margaret Erwin, and that Benjamin had a brother named Levi Todd. Further it states that John Jr was the son of John Todd Sr of Rowan County, North Carolina, and his wife, Sarah, who also had a son they named Giles Todd. This is in some conflict with research by other Todd investigators.

Annette B. Todd has a rather extensive webpage (at the Family TreeMaker website) offering scads of documentation proving that John Todd Sr and his wife Sarah (they theorize her maiden name was Giles), who were the parents of John Jr and Giles, could not have been the grandparents of Benjamin Todd of Jones County, Georgia.

Further, the Wautauga County NC website has a section quoting a work on prominent families of Wautauga wherein a Todd family bible contains the following:

"From the old Todd family Bible, printed in Edinborough by Mark andCharles Kerr, MDCCXCI, it is learned that James Todd was born July 31,1757, and Margaret Erwin, his wife, October 14, 1759. These were married March 11, 1784; and that John Sharp Todd, father of James, was born December 11, 1724, and his wife, Nancy, was born June 7, 1739. James Todd died November 17 1814. He was a soldier of the Revolution,and Mrs. Lizzie McGhee, of Boone, has the old powder-horn he used inthat war."

Owing to the anonymous nature of the article's author, the excellent work done by Annette B. Todd on the John Todd Sr line, and the bible quoted by the Wautaga website, the assertions in the Williams book concerning the earlier generations of Todds (those before they arrived in Georgia) must be considered highly suspect, and I believe them to be entirely false.

Todd researcher Lorena Martin Spillers concluded that Benjamin's father John was descended from the Joseph Todd line out of Eling,England. She did not cite source notes. See the discussion under John Todd b 1770-1780 for clarification of the five different John Todds confused with being one John Todd and with being the father of Benjamin.

The next documents are a series of deeds to land David Montgomery purchased along Davis Creek in Amherst County Virginia, beginning in1763. By 1788, David owned 600 acres in the area. 271 M ix.Benjamin Allen Todd was born in 1817. He died in Jan 1843.

87.John Todd (Caleb Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1770/1780 in Rowan Co NC or Wilkes Co GA. He died in 1835/1840 in Meriwether Co GA.

John Todd was born 1770-80 per the 1820 and 1830 census of Putnam and Henry Co, GA. He was married prior to 1800 based on the birth of his oldest son in 1800. It is conceivable that he was the John Todd of Burke County, GA since he had a son in 1802 making him eligible for two draws in the 1805 land lottery, but we have no evidence to support his conjecture. The only unidentified John Todd in the 1805 land lottery with two draws is a John Todd in Burke Co GA.

What we do know is that by 1812, he had settled on the Putnam side of the Putnam-Jones County border and recorded a deed to his minor sons Benjamin G. Todd b 1800 and Levi Todd b 1810 . (John Todd, Deed, Putnam Co. Ga, Deed book 1812 to 1814, page 86)

“To all whom these presents shall come; I, John Todd of the county aforesaid for and in consideration of the love, good will, and affection which I have and do bear towards my loving sons Benjamin Todd and Levi Todd have given and granted and by these present doth fully give and grant unto the aforesaid Benjamin and Levi, their heirs, executrix, admrs, etc. all and singular, my estate now being in my possession, that is one chestnut sorrel mare, one heirs forever. In witness whereof I have here unto set my hand and seal this August 18, 1812.

Signed, John Todd recorded November 3, 1812 witnessed by:
Benjamin Todd
David Clark
Peyton Holt, J.P.

This strange arrangement may have been caused by a need to create a legal separation from his property to avoid creditors.

His son Benjamin was born 1800, son Levi was born 1810-1812, son John was born 1810-1812 and son William A. was born about 1817. Between 1820 and 1830, he moved to Henry County. In 1835, he moved to Meriwether County selling land he had acquired in Henry County on Shoal Creek. Levi Todd was a witness. In 1836, Levi Todd married Elizabeth Keith in Meriwether County. That same year, John recorded a deed documenting in Meriwether County attesting to his witnessing of a deed in Jones County along the Jones-Putnam Count border back in 1821. He probably died in Meriwether County.

Male DNA for two descendants of John Todd b 1770-80 matched the DNA for Benjamin Todd 1778-1855 and the other descendants of the Rowan County Todds, proving that John and Benjamin were members of that family through their fathers' lines. Family Finder DNA showed that John and Benjamin were brothers and probable brothers to William and Reuben and to Abel b 1795 and his siblings.

William Todd was born in Georgia in 1781. He came to Madison County Kentucky and was on the tax lists there 1803-1806. It appears that he came with his father Caleb Todd b 1751 and his step-mother Sarah Bentley Todd, as well as his brother Reuben and his step-brothers and sisters. After a few short years, he left Madison County and along with his uncle Benjamin b 1759 settled in the Cripple Creek area of Rutherford County, TN by 1809.

William listed in the Silver Creek area of Madison County, KY in 1803, 1804, and 1806. 1803: 10002; one male over 21 and 2 horses. 1804: 10001; one male over 21 and one-horse. 1806: 10003; one male over 21 and three horses. "He disappears abt the same time as his uncle Benjamin 1759-1854 left Madison County, KY. His brother, Reuben, also left at this time.

1850 Rutherford County, TN Census shows William 62 GA and Jane 59 BookY. Some researchers have him b. in Rowan County, NC and others in Madison County, KY. Both Reuben and William stated in census records they were born in GA. Resided in Rutherford County, TN near Big Springs. Census:

William 62GA, Jane 59 KY, Alexander 24 - RU CO HH# 791/609.

Marriage bond of William Todd and Jane Douglass, both of Madison County, dated Jan 10, 1804 and signed by William Todd and William Glenn. Robert Elkins m.
William and Jane.

Previous historians thought that William and Reuben were sons of Mrs. Mary Todd 1762-1866 and therefore uncles to Walker Todd b 1822. Family Finder DNA in 2011 shows that Walker was related to William and Reuben but not so close as uncles to nephew. Though the Family Finder tests were somewhat contradictory, one of the Abel Todd tests showed brotherhood connection to both John Todd b 1770-80 and Reuben Todd b 1785.

Edna Todd Lackie wrote in 1985 that she and Jean Douglas Van Meter went looking for William's grave. "I had searched for years with no success. Many old markers had fallen apart. Jean and I started digging around the front of some old ones and dug up enough pieces to put together just like a jigsaw puzzle and there they were, dates and names. It was so exciting for us. In the following fall, my brothers and sisters pooled enough money to make new markers for William, Jane, Levi, and Mary. We set them at their graves on top of the pieces from the old markers. Two hundred years from now, if someone starts digging, will they be surprised!"

William was on the 1809/10/11 Rutherford County, TN tax records. He was a 1st Lt in War of 1812 and served in the 2nd RGT of the West Tonsillitis INF from 20-Sep-1814 until 20-Mar-1815. He enlisted under Col Alex Lowry and

Cpt James Kincaid, and I have a copy of the CO Muster Roll for this time period. The National Archives in Washington has no record of a Full Pension Application. I have a copy of another document showing his "Cpt discharged him on 07-Dec-1815," for the purpose of obtaining the bounty land to which he may be entitled. The document was signed by William Todd and witnessed by Lewis Harrell,JP.

Col Alexander Lowry and Lt Col Leroy Hammons, Designation, 2nd RGTWest TN Militia, Sep 1814/Apr 1815. Men mostly from Davidson, Warren, Humphreys, Lincoln, Maury, Robertson, Smith, Sumner, White, and Williamson Counties. Cpts: James Craig, Thomas Delaney, James Kincaid, John Looney, Gabriel Mastin, Asahel Rains, George Sarver, James Tubb,Thomas Wells, and Joseph N Williamson. Brief History: Part of GenNathaniel Taylor's brigade, this regiment was scattered throughout the Creek territory and the vicinity of Mobile to man the various forts in the region; Forts Jackson, Montgomery, Claiborne, and Pierce. Some of the companies participated in the taking of Pensacola (07-Nov-1814)from Spanish authorities that were accused by Jackson of supporting British troops there. Lowry resigned on 20-Nov-1814 and Lt Col Leroy Hammonds took over as commander. The regiment was plagued by disease during its tenure in the MS Territory. For example, a morning report of Cpt Asahel Rains on 06-Jan-1815 shows twenty-seven on the sick list and twenty-seven additional men required to take care of the sick (totaling half the company).

Was a 1st Lieutenant in War of 1812, and served in the 2nd Regiment of the West Tennessee Militia from 20-Sep-1814 until 10-Apr-1815. He enlisted under Colonel Alex Lowry and Captain James Kincaid.

William married[24,25] Mary Jane Douglass on 12 Jan 1804 in Richmond, Madison, Kentucky, USA. Mary was born about 1787 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. She died in 1868 in Rutherford, Tennessee, USA. She was buried in Rutherford, Tennessee, USA.

Todd-Bowman Cemetery is near Big Springs. Headstones have 'Douglass' for Mary Jane and son, Levi Douglass.

William and Mary had the following children:

276 M i.John B. Todd was born on 15 Feb 1805. He died about 1871.

277 F ii.Elizabeth Todd was born on 30 Aug 1806. She died on 3 Nov 1874.

278 F iii.Mary Jane Todd was born on 5 Aug 1808. She died on 15 Aug 1892.

279 M iv.James Phillip Todd was born on 15 Feb 1810. He died on 19 Dec 1875.

280 F v.Cynthia Todd was born about 1811.

281 M vi.Levi Douglass Todd was born about 1819. He died about 1863.

282 M vii.William M. Todd Jr. was born about 1820. He died after 1880.

283 F viii.Malvina Jane Todd was born in Feb 1822. She died about 1904.

284 M ix.Caleb Washington Todd was born in Mar 1824. He died in 1900/1910.

285 M x.Walker M. Todd was born in Apr 1827. He died about 1914.

286 M xi.Newton Todd was born about 1828 in Rutherford, Tennessee, USA. He died in Kentucky, USA.

Apparently Newton was single. It was said he went to KY and died inthe Civil War. Another record says Newton inherited his share in the estate of his father and sold it to his sis, Melvina Campbell, in1872. Said Newton lived and died in KY.

287 M xii. Alexander E. Todd was born about 1829 in Rutherford, Tennessee, USA. He died before 1870.

Was not named in his father's will. Alexander was single.

Alexander was not married to Unknown .

89. Reuben Todd Sr. (Caleb Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1785 in Georgia, USA. He died before 22 Mar 1888 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. He was buried in Prob. Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Reuben Todd was born in Wilkes Co GA in 1785. He came to Madison Co and was on the tax lists 1803 to 1805 and then went with his brother William and uncle Benjamin 1759-1854 to Rutherford Co TN. He lived to over 100 years old.

Reuben is listed in the Silver Creek area of Madison County, KY between 1803 and 1805. 1803: 10003; one male over 21 and 3 horses. 1804: 10002; one male over 21 and 2 horses.Same for 1805. Reuben disappears about the same time his uncle Benjamin1759-1854 disappears from Madison County, KY. "It is likely that he is the Reuben Todd who appeared in the Madison County, KY tax lists

1803-1805 since we know his brother, William, married in Madison County. This would mean that he came from GA to KY five or six yrs aft the main 1796 migration of Todds from
Rowan County, NC to Madison County, KY."

Reuben was on 1810 Rutherford County, TN Census: 1M 16/26, 1F 16/26,and 1F u 10. I have seen his name spelled Reubin and Rubin, but his military records have Reuben.

On the date of Mar 23, 1871 Reuben Todd appeared before the court at the age of 86, resident of Rutherford County, stated his wife as Gemmated, whom he m. aft the War of 1812, and stated he served in the War of 1812, that his bro, William Todd, was a Lt in his company, and was stationed mostly at Fort Williams, AL; was in several skirmishes with Indians when he crossed through the Cherokee Nation. He was at Fort Lasly in Talledega aft the fights and has drawn two land warrants, 80acres each. Declaration of Surviving Soldier for Pension, Act of Feb14, 1871, Original #4418 and Certificate #3517. D P Jacobs and Aaron Runnels witnessed his mark. He was in Cpt Abner Pierce's CO TN MilitiaPvt, commanded by Maj William Woodfolk. He enlisted 20-Sep-1814 and discharged 10-Apr-1815.

Full Pension Application and his length of service was 203 days, which states he d.on 17-Dec-1883.

Family Finder DNA tests done in 2011 show that Reuben was not the son of Mary Todd and that Walker Todd b 1822, though related, was not a nephew. Though some of the Family Finder tests were contradictory, one sample from a descendant of Abel Todd b 1795 test, one from a desc of Reuben Todd b 1785 and one from a desc of John Todd b 1770-80 , suggested that they were all brothers and therefore sons of Caleb Todd b 1751.

Jemima, in her application for a widow's pension in 1885, swore that the family records had been destroyed, but she believed Reuben was 107years old at the time of his death. A newspaper article (NB & NW,11-19-1880) named Reuben Todd of Dist 25, age 100, the oldest man in Rutherford County, TN. Reuben lived in Carlocksville (Rutherford) TN.

History of Clarksdale Area, Sherman Twp, Clark and Thornton FamiliesP/164: "

He was Pastor for the Bethlehem Church for 30 years and was Primitive Baptist. In 1839/40, the family moved from Callaway County to DeKalb County with the Thorntons, DeShaezers, Adams and others. He started the Bethlehem Church in Clarksdale in 1842 and became the first minister of any denomination in the county. He was ordained in 1845. The church closed in 1867 with differences and conflicts as the result of the Civil War. The Salem Church was organized a few years later. Jeremiah Todd's funeral was the last held in the church. All three of this preacher's daus m. their first cousins in the WilliamThornton family. On the land jointly owned by Jesse, Thornton, and Wm Adams, the first school house in the county was erected. It was built and used until 1854.

"Elder Jesse Todd, was born in NC and came to DeKalb County in 1839. He was ordained a minister in 1845 and served the Bethlehem Church for abt 30 years. He was the first minister of any denomination in the county. Bef coming to this county, he was a teacher, Justice of Peace in Clinton County, and a coppersmith. This was when DeKalb was a part of Clinton County. The first school housein the county was erected on the corner of land belonging to JesseTodd, W M Thornton, and W M Adams. It was erected in the 40s for school and church purposes and was used until 1854. These three men made entries in Twp 57 R 33 between 1836 and 1841 and were owners of real estate when the county was organized in 1845.

"Moved with father to Madison County, KY in 1797, locating near Speedwell. On the 1820 Madison County, KY Census. Went to MO aft that (1822 Madison Co tax list) and was in Howard County, MO abt 1825. When the family was grown, they moved to DeKalb County, MO settling in the western part of WashingtonTwp. Cemetery is in the Washington Twp." (Article sent by Randall E Raider).

Martin married Sarah Martha Hollis on 13 Dec 1866 in Pike County, Illinois, USA.

Hannah married (2) William Givens .

107.Benjamin Todd (Joseph Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 7 Jan 1781 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA.

Benjamin Todd who married Alsey Nickerson is the son of Joseph Todd b 1757 and Mary Berry, not the son of Caleb Todd b 1758, as previously reported.

Joseph's widow's pension application showed that Benjamin Todd his son was born in 1781 and that he was still in Madison County in 1845. The only Benjamin of this era still in Madion County in 1845 was the Benjamin who married Alsey Nickerson.

Benjamin is listed on the tax records of Madison County, KY1801-1805 and 1807-1811. He is listed with 1 son and 1 daughter on the 1810ccensus record and is also listed as Clay's Overseer and not Benjamin(I) Todd as earlier records stated. "He appears to be the Benjamin listed on the tax lists in 1804 and 1805 as owning 70 acres on Silver Creek, but we have no record of any purchase or sale for this land."

In Madison County, KY, Benjamin is listed as an Overseer for Green Clay in 1810 census. Clay was the wealthiest man in KY at the time. He built the home, Clermont 1798/99, which his son, Cassius, turned into Whitehall in the 1860s. Whitehall is now a tourist attraction and his son, Cassius, was Ambassador to Russia during the time of Abraham Lincoln.

1803 Book E, Green Clay to Benjamin Todd, 68 acres. The 1803 Deed of Benjamin Todd from Green Clay was for 68 acres on Drowning Creek; neighbors: John Mobley, Childers, William Gennings, and Thomas Paden. The 68 acres was part of Clay's 640 acre grant. This land may have been the land sold by Benjamin and Margaret Todd in 1806; hence it is not likley that Benjamin b 1781 was the purchaser of the land from Green Clay.

"Synthesis: Benjamin b 1780/84, Alsey b 1780/84, 2 Daus b 1806/10, Son b 1810, Son b 1810/15, Son b 1815/20, Dau b 1810/20, Dau b 1815/20,Son b 1820, 2 Sons b 1820/1825, Dau b 1820/25, Dau b 1825/30 (Mary),Dau b 1830/35 (Minerva), and Dau b 1835/40 (Jemima)."

Benjamin married[43] Alsey Nickerson on 15 Aug 1806 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Alsey was born about 1785 in Virginia, USA.

Alsey Todd 65 b. VA is on 1850 Madison County Census, Dwelling #330, Family 334, with seven children ages 21 to 1. Next door, Dwelling#329, Family 333, Benjamin Todd

69 b. ca 1781 NC, was living with William Burton 30, wife Martha 28, Ruthy 4,
and
Elizabeth 1. Children in Alsey's household: Mary ca 1829, Minerva ca 1830, Jemima ca

1840,Eliza ca 1844, David ca 1848, John ca 1846/48, and Alfred ca 1849.
These children b in the late 1840s were prob not Alsey's children. She would have
least 65 in 1849.

Benjamin and Alsey had the following children:

443 F i.daughter Todd .

111.Thomas Todd (Joseph Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1792 in Rowan Co NC .

Thomas is thought to be the son of Joseph Todd b 1757 because the family Finder DNA of a descendant of his matches a desc of Benjamin Todd b 1781, the son of Joseph b 1757 at a closer level than with the other Todds in the DNA study.

Also, there are two unidentified sons of Joseph b 1784-1794. So this matches as well.

Thomas married Charity Carney in 1824 in Madison, Kentucky, USA. Charity was born in 1803.

They had the following children:

444 F i.Mary Elizabeth Todd was born in 1828. She died in 1860.

445 F ii.Martha Jane Todd was born in 1825 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.
Martha married Rufus Stevens .

446 F iii.Susan Elizabeth Todd was born in 1825.
Susan married Talton Stevens .

447 F iv.Mary Elizabeth Todd was born in 1830. She died in 1919.
Mary married Barney Coulter Stagner about 1860 in Madison, Kentucky, USA. Barney was born in 1815.

448 M v.Thomas Jefferson Todd was born on 25 Oct 1830. He died on 7 May 1886.

449 F vi.Sally Ann Todd was born in 1831.
Sally married Sinclair Ogg .

450 M vii.James Carney Todd was born on 4 Oct 1834. He died on 30 Jun 1930.

451 F viii.Nancy Todd was born in 1834/1837 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.

452 M ix.William Todd was born in 1838.

453 F x.Arthusa or Ursula Parthenia Todd was born in 1842. She died in 1929.
Arthusa married Henry Irvine Todd .

112.Caleb Todd (Joseph Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1794.

This Caleb appears on the Madison County tax lists 1821 to 1843 (last year checked) and possibly in 1816, and in the Madison County 1850 census as Caleb b. about 1794 living with Susan Todd b. about 1815. Since he is the only Caleb on the tax lists in 1830s, we assume he is the Caleb who m. Susan Cradlebaugh in 1834 and who was sued for abandonment by her in 1835. We place him as son of Joseph and Mary Berrry based on a somewhat contradictory pair of reports on the1833 marriage of Baxter Todd in Madison County.

Annie Walker Burns Bell's book, Madison County Kentucky Marriages 1785-1851 lists:
Backster Todd, father: Caleb married Eliz Mitchell 7-30-1833 bondsman: Major Johnson
Bill and Kathy Vockery's book, Madison county Kentucky Marriage Records Vol. II, 1823-1851:
Groom: Baxter Todd - Bride: Elizabeth Mitchell - Bond date: 30 July 1833 - Bondsman: Major Johnson - Grandfather of the Groom: Joseph Todd - Mother of the Groom: Mary Todd - Listed on bond but relationship unknown: Nancy Mitchell - Marriage Return: 13 August 1833.
A microfilm of the Madison County Court Marriage Records:
And on the 13th day of August, Baxter Todd and Elizabeth Mitchell, 1833
Baxter Todd was born in about 1814. Caleb Todd was born in about 1794, so he was old enough to be Baxter's father.
Caleb Todd is probably the Caleb who married Frankey Roberts in 1817 though it is remotely possible that the Caleb who married Frankey Roberts was the Caleb b.1790, son of William Todd and Elizabeth Todd.

Caleb married (1) Roberts, Frankey in 1817 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.

Caleb married (2) Cradelbaugh Susan in 1835 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.

Caleb married (3) unknown unknown .

They had the following children:

454 M i.Baxter Todd was born in 1813.

115.Robert 'Robbin' Todd I (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1784 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 29 Jun 1859 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Robert enlisted 24-Sep-1813 and was discharged 22-Dec-1813, under Col N

Cannon and Cpt George Brandon, of MTD Riflemen. According to deposition of Reuben Todd, in Jemima's Pension Declaration, she and Robert had six children, but were not listed. Robert Todd was listed on the Rutherford County tax list in 1811. Company Muster Roll has Cannon’s MTD Gunmen, W TN VOL Pvt under Cpt George Brandon's CO of WTN MTD Riflemen. Settlement made Jul 1, 1814 for $68.63. Card#38459841 and #9897.

Robert married Jemima Todd daughter of Peter Todd and Hannah Anne Cornelison on 17 Feb 1811 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. Jemima was born on 8 Dec 1780 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died in 1872 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Robert and Jemima m. by Esq Thomas Berry. He was a soldier in the War of 1812 and Jemima's Declaration for a Widow's Pension stated they had six children, but did not name them. Robert and Jemima were first cousins. One researcher has Date of birth as 12-Aug-1780 and another 09-Dec-1780. A Land Grant for Robert Todd #3309-3310, 25-27 ½ acres on Jun 12, 1826 in Rutherford County, TN.

Robert and Jemima had the following children:

460 M vi.Robert Todd II is printed as #358 on page 145.

116.Benjamin Todd III (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1785/1787 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died after 1876 in Crittenden or Sheridan County, Kentucky, USA.

Benjamin got a land grant in 1832 along the Murfreesboro Road at the mouth of Fox Hollow just a mile west of lands obtained by John Simmons. About 1835, Mary Simmons, daughter of John Simmons, married Jefferson Todd b 1814. This suggests a possible connection between Benjamin b 1785 and Jefferson b 1814, possibly through a sister of Benjamin.

Benjamin married[35] Mary 'Polly' Todd [34] daughter of Peter Todd and Hannah Anne Cornelison on 22 Aug 1808 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Mary was born on 16 Jul 1786 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died on 16 Jan 1879 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

Mary 'Polly' Todd and Benjamin were first cousins.

Benjamin and Mary had the following children:

461 M i.Sally Todd is printed as #365 on page 147.

462 F ii.Spicey Todd is printed as #366 on page 147.

463 M iii.Benjamin Todd IV is printed as #367 on page 147.

468 M viii.Peter Griffin Todd is printed as #372 on page 147.

118.Sally Todd (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1790 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. She died after 1857 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Sally married Aaron 'Captain' Todd son of Peter Todd and Hannah Anne Cornelison on 28 Aug 1808 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Aaron was born on 27 Aug 1784 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died before 1 Aug 1859 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. He was buried in Big Spring, Rutherford, Tennessee, USA.

Aaron Todd was born in 1784 in Rowan County NC. He came as a teen to Madison Co with his parents and siblings about 1797. Aaron was listed on the 1801, 1804, and 1806 tax records of Madison County, KY. In 1808, he married his cousin Sally, daughter ot Benjamin Todd b 1759 and joined with his father-in-law/uncle in the 1809 move to Rutherford Co TN.

He settled nearby his uncle and cousins in what became Todd Hollow north of Big Springs in Rutherford Co.

Aaron was on Rutherford County Tax Lists 1809/10/11. 1810 census with 1M 16/26, 1F u 10, and 1F 16/26.

Deed Book Z page 309, Aaron Prater to Aaron Todd, 15 acres, indenture May 14,1842 for $76.87. Wit: Robert Todd and Ed Summers. Reg May 24, 1842.

Grant #10679 to Aaron Todd on Aug 30, 1831 Rutherford County, TN for 55 acres.

His will was signed 22-Dec-1856 and proved in Rutherford County 01-Aug-1859. Six children were named in his will.

He served in the militia in the War of 1812: 22nd RGT and 53rd RGT TN Militia

Aaron and Sally had the following children:

469 F i.Jemima Todd is printed as #359 on page 299.

470 M ii.Fielding Todd is printed as #360 on page 146.

120.Leah Todd (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the).

Leah married Isham Medford . Isham was born in 1788 in NC. He died in 1848 in Texas.

Isham Medford was said by some sources to be husband of Sarah Hopkins and had a son Mark Hopkins Medford b 1809. She was said to be mother to the children listed as children of Leah Medford in the estate settlement land sale. So perhaps Leah married Isham after 1809 and before 1813.

Isham and Leah had the following children:

475 M i.Jonathan Medford was born on 11 Mar 1812 in Rutherford Co, TN.

476 F ii.Mary Medford was born on 19 Dec 1813 in Rutherford Co, TN. She died on 30 Apr 1872 in Smith Co, TX.

Mary went to MS about 1832 and then Texas about 1837.

Mary married Charles Walters about 1828 in Rutherford Co, TN. Charles was born in 1807 in GA .

477 F iii.Margaret Medford was born on 19 Dec 1814 in Rutherford Co, TN.
Margaret married Joseph S. Ables .

478 M iv.Levi Medford was born on 18 Jan 1818 in Rutherford Co, TN.

479 M v.John Anderson "Andrew" Medford was born in 1819 in Rutherford Co, TN.

The court ordered land sale in 1855 in RUtherford Co TN lists five children for Leah Todd and Mr. Medford, Jonathan, Mary, Margaret, Levi and Andrew. We assume that this Andrew corresponds to Anderson Medford.

121.Jemima Todd (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1800 in Kentucky.

Jemima Todd had a son Asa Todd b 1817 in Rutherford or Cannon Co TN. She later married Alexander Espy in 9 April 1837 in Rutherford Co and then in 1859 married Hollis Cooper. Asa Todd appears in the 1850 census for Rutherford Co living next door to an Elizabeth Duncan b 1800 KY and then next to Jemima Espy. In 1880, he is living with Jemima Cooper who is identified as his mother.

See court record ordering sale of Benjamin's property by Benjamin's heirs.and naming all heirs.

Jemima married (1) Alexander Espy in 1837.

Jemima married (2) Hollis Cooper in 1859 in Rutherford Co TN.

Jemima married (3) unknown .

They had the following children:

480 M i.Asa Todd Esquire was born on 24 Oct 1817. He died on 24 May 1904.

122.Lucinda Todd (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 16 Aug 1809 in Prob. Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. She died on 5 Mar 1879. She was buried in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Lucinda (Todd) Summers was not named in the court ordered land sale naming all heirs.

Lucinda married Abner Summers on 13 Dec 1844 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. Abner was born on 2 Jun 1803. He died on 20 May 1876. He was buried in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

They had the following children:

481 F i.Malinda Summers was born on 11 Dec 1845. She died on 30 Apr 1860. She was buried in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

482 M ii.James M. Summers was born on 17 Oct 1847. He died on 14 Nov 1887. He was buried in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

124.Elizabeth Todd (Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1792/1800 in North Carolina or Kentucky, USA.

Elizabeth Todd was reported to be the mother of Walker Todd b 1822 and the daughter of Mary Todd 1762-1866. This is all we know for sure about Elizabeth.

There is a Rutherford Co deed in 1831 from Elizabeth Thompson to Elizabeth Todd, but this deed book has been destroyed. We do not know who this Elizabeth Todd was.

The father of Walker Todd is unknown as yet. Family tradition reports that Walker Todd b 1822 did not know who is father was. Yvonne Gamblin, a descendant of Walker Todd b 1822 reported in 2011 that Elizabeth Siler, 1903-1997, Walker's granddaughter, said that "when Walker b. 1822 was born. Some of the Todd's in TN didn't claim kin to each other."

Ora Todd asked family researchers to not "research our line, my great grandmother was not married". It is hoped that the DNA results from two descendants of Walker Todd will eventually match up with a descendant of Walker Todd's father or paternal grandfather.

We have no proof as yet as to Elizabeth's father; however, DNA from two descendants of Benjamin Todd suggests that Benjamin was more closely related to Walker Todd than the other branches of the family. This implies that Benjamin Todd b 1759 may have been Walker Todd's grandfather and hence Elizabeth's father at a time when he was still married to Margaret Barclay.

According to Yvonne Gamblin, Ora was the source of the information in the 1936 History of Cannon County and Woodbury, that Benjamin Todd b 1759 was the brother of Mary Todd 1762-1866. Given Ora's desire to not reveal the full truth about the family, it is possible that Benjamin Todd was the father of Elizabeth and hence NOT the brother of Mary Todd. Also, Roma Todd (1918-1997) has pointed out if Mary was born in NC in the 1760s as the 1850 and 1860 census state, then Mary could not have been born a Todd because the Todds were still in Pennsylvania during that decade. So this would support the idea that Mary was not Benjamin's sister.

There was a tradition that Elizabeth Todd (Walker's mother) was also mother to Jefferson Todd b 1814 and Asa Todd b 1817. However, recent documentation and DNA show that Asa Todd and Jefferson Todd were not brothers to Walker Todd. The evidence for Asa's ancestry came from a settlement document of the estate of Benjamin Todd b1759 which stated that Jemima Espy Cooper was the daughter of Benjamin and the 1880 census shows that Jemima was the mother of Asa. Similarly, DNA for a Jefferson Todd descendant shows Jefferson to not have the same father as Walker and to not be closely enough related to Walker to be his brother, but could possibly be his cousin.

A note in Roma Todd's records stated Elizabeth (Walker's mother) married a Duncan, moved from Cannon County, TN and was never heard of again. However DNA suggests that this Elizabeth Duncan was not the mother of Walker, but could possibly have been the mother of Jefferson. So there may have been two Elizabeth's - one the mother of Walker and the other the mother of Jefferson.

Notes and Documentation:

From Yvonne Gamblin, desc of Walker Todd b 1822:
1. "When my parents visited TN away back when my Dad ask Ora Todd who Walker's b. 1822 father was and she said his parents were cousins. My Dad remembered that she said his Dad was a William Todd. He was up in years at this time and could not have remembered correctly. The family of TN also agrees that Mary Todd b. 1762 had a daughter Elizabeth is Walker's mother."

2. “Elizabeth Siler told me that it got real nasty when Walker b. 1822 was born. Some of the Todd's in TN didn't claim kin to each other.”

3, “I knew Elizabeth Siler real well. I have been a guest in her home several times. She also handed down a box of family history she and her sister Jemima and another person did in Kentucky, I will have to go through it. Elizabeth Siler knew a lot more then she would tell. She is the daughter of Cora Alice (Todd) And Tom Patton a younger daughter of Walker Todd b. 1822.

Elizabeth had the following children:

483 M i.Walker Todd Sr. was born on 5 May 1822. He died on 28 Jul 1906.

125.Isaac Todd (Thomas Isaac Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 12 Aug 1782 in Rowan County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 9 Feb 1859 in Lawrence County, Indiana, USA.

William and Elizabeth Todd, parents of Sally, sold Isaac Todd a parcel of land in Madison County, KY on Muddy Creek on 26-Apr-1819 Book N,William and wife, Elizabeth, to Isaac Todd. The document has William and Elizabeth Todd's seal and witnessed by Thomas O Cullum and CalebTodd. Isaac Todd was on the 1820 Madison County, KY Census. The names of the children of Isaac and Sally Todd are listed on an agreement between Isaac Todd heirs and Catherine Laneheart Todd. The Article ofAgreement was made 23-Feb-1860.

From Nancy Teruya:
“1830 Census for Madison County KY shows Isaac Todd with males 1(5-10), 2 (10-15), 2(20-30), 1(40-50); females 1(10-15), 1(15-20), and 1(40-50). The female 15-20 would be Phoebe. Even though her obit states she married in 1830, the marriage agreement is 1833. 1840 Census for Madison County, KY shows Isaac Todd with males 1(15-20), 1(20-30), 1(50-60); females 1(20-30, and1(50-60). Sally is close in age to Isaac and died 1840-1844.

"U.S. Federal Mortality Schedules, 1850-1880. Schedule 3. Persons who Died during the Year ending 1st June 1860 in The First Division in the County of Madison State of Kentucky, shows Isaac Todd age 78, male, married, born NC, died Sep, Farmer, Heart Dropsy, ill for seven days"

Isaac married (1) Sally Todd daughter of William Todd and Elizabeth 'Jemima' Todd on 14 Feb 1805 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. Sally was born about 1790 in North Carolina, USA. She died in 1840/1844 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA.

From Randall E Raider: "Joel Todd was a member and supporter of John G Fee's 'Free Church' (Glade Church, American Missionary Association).He was a radical abolitionist and was in the group of exiles when they fled to Cincinnati, OH. Later he would sell land to freed African American slaves. From A Utopian Experiment in Kentucky page 81, 'One family of white Bereans sold hundreds of acres to black settlers.' Joel Todd Sr and his wife, Nancy Mills, who had been exiled, for their support of abolitionism in 1860, made land available to many black families. On Feb 17, 1868 Todd sold land on Bushy Fork to Anderson Crawford, Stephen Hagan, and Horace Yates. These settlers living neighbors to one another, constitutes the now nonexistent town of Canton, apparently their name for black settlers on Bushy Fork.

Daniel Herron bought Town Lot #4 in Canton from Joel Todd Sr on Feb 2, 1869.(Lest it appear that Rev. John Fee's policy of interspersion was spoiled by this black village, it should be pointed out that everyone in it owned land neighboring a white person's land on one boundary line at least). In 1873, Joel Todd Sr sold another parcel of land on Bushy Fork to Henry Adams, who had purchased materials for building a house in 1866. Probably blacks were permitted to erect houses on land they planned to purchase sometime later. Adams is not the only instance of a black man in Berea building a house before he owned land to put it on. The five acres Stephen Hagan bought in 1868 included the house where he already lived.

Joel Todd Jr, a pre-Civil War student in the Berea school and owner of land near his father, also sold to blacks, including Horace Yates (1874) and Gibson Gill (1878)."

From James Douglas Todd: "Joel was an abolitionist. Just before the start of the Civil War, the mob spirit raged in Madison County, aft John Brown’s raid on Harper's Ferry. Fee and others were threatened, but they continued to crusade for human rights. Joel was a member of John Gregg Fee's anti-slavery Free Glade Church. Two days before Christmas, 62armed men rode into J A R Rodger's yard (another leader and preacher of the Glade Church) and told them their group had 10 days to leave the state. When the governor refused their protection, their exodus to OH began on the seventh day. The group numbering 94 carried only their necessary possessions, confident of their return. And return they did in six months."

Joel was bondsman for the marriages of John Todd and Martha Elder,Silas William and Lucinda Todd, and James Elder and Martha Ann Todd. He gave consent to marriage of William Newton and Amanda Todd. He was bondsman for the marriage of Amanda and John Dodds and witnessed the marriage of Mary Margaret Dodds, his gdau, in 1865. The gggparents of Darwin Newton. Darwin says Joel indicated on the 1880 census that his father, John, was b. in NC. James T Todd had marriage date of18-Dec-1841 for Nancy Mills. Darwin has verified 17-Aug-1841.

154.Elizabeth LNU (placeholder Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born about 1798 in Kentucky, USA. She died in 1860/1870 in Sharp Co AR.

Elizabeth LNU who married James V. Duncan was born about 1798 in Kentucky. About 1823, she married James Virgil Duncan, a Cherokee Indian.

She had several children by him between 1824 and 1842. James died in 1842. In 1850, Elizbeth was living next door to Asa Todd b 1817 and his mother Jemima Todd Espy and her husband Alexander Espy.

Elizabeth Duncan is an important person to research. For one thing, in 1850, she lived next door to Asa Todd b 1817 and his mother Jemima Todd Epsy and her husband Alexander Espy and for another thing there was a family tradition that Walker Todd's mother Elizabeth was perhaps married to a Duncan who left the area and that Walker, Asa and Jefferson Todd were brothers to each other. We have proved that the three men were not brothers and that Asa's mother was Jemima Todd, daughter of Benjamin Todd b 1759, not Elizabeth Duncan. But this still leaves open the question of who Elizabeth was in relation to the Todd family, given her residence near Jemima Todd Espy.

The DNA suggests that Elizabeth's descendants had a consistently distant (6,5 generations to common ancestor) relationship to the various lines descended from Caleb Todd b 1751-58 and to Walker Todd and Jefferson Todd. This in turn suggests that she might have been a granddaughter of Caleb's parents, Benjamin Todd and Sarah Griffin or perhaps to someone in the Griffin family. We have placed her on the family tree as such a granddaughter, not because we are certain of this relationship, but more as a placeholder to guide further research..

James V. Dunkin is found on a 50mm film strip 1835-1842 in the Delaware District Mortuary, Tennessee. The film strip is located at the Archives of the Cherokee Indians at Tehlequah, Oklahoma. They show James V. Dunkin died one month after his youngest child W. M. A. Dunkin was born. They show his survivors as Elisabeth, Ky.; -children Daniel, Owin, Rebecca, Lucinda, Louisa, Eli, (Louisa and Eli were twins), John W., and W. M. A. Dunkin, Washington County, Tennessee. They also show he fought in the Southern War. This was a war between two Indian Chiefs. In the Indian Census 1839-1840 it shows James V. Dunkin and Elisabeth Dunkin had twins, but didn't give their ages or names.

Elizabeth married James Virgil Dunkin about 1823. James was born in 1800 in NC. He died in 1842 in Rutherford Co TN.

The Southern War was started in the 1830's, the first was a result of the difference between Chief Ridge and Chief Ross as to the removal questions and treaty...follow-up war started after the assassination of the Ridge's by the Ross's in Oklahoma...lasted until 1846 when the Ridge Band and the CNO Cherokee Nation led by Ross, signed a treaty..but the war continued. Then during the Civil War, the Ridge's allied with the Confederacy in August 1861, the Ross's feared the power of the Ridge's and also allied for a short time with the Confederacy..then deserted and fought for the North against the Ridge's. In 1865 the Ross (Cherokee Nation) surrendered to the North, even though they were allies with the North. The Ridge's (Southern Cherokee) refused to surrender, but instead signed a Cease-hostilities agreement in 1865...where they still legally remain to date...Sovereign.

The Feud unfortunately still continues.....old wounds it seems have not healed, (from Gary Ridge, Southern Cherokee) This story was passed to me from Myrvin G. Harris, 3769 Denver, Memphis, Tennessee 38127-4439.

"According to Obbie Todd, the pension record of Isaac Todd mentions a half-brother named Benjamin. Then I got the pension papers on Isaac from the Civil War and it listed him as having a half-brother named Benjamin who saved his life. Then I researched Benjamin whom later, based on the pension papers, said he lived in Illinois. So, I found a historical article that did a bibliography on Benjamin and it says that John was his father from TN. It would appear that William B. ‘Williamson’ Todd is indeed William Benjamin Todd.

“Isaac was in the 35th KY MNTD INF in the Civil was, the same unit as Williamson, his half-brother. Isaac lived in Webster County, KY(branched off of Hopkins County in 1860). His father, John Todd, lived in Hopkins County, KY and is on the 1830/40/50 census records. In 1860Isaac is living with his cousin, Henry E. Todd. Isaac m. Unknown; Children: Lonnie Todd b. 1871. Lonnie m. Unknown; Children:
Earnie Barrett Sr. Todd b. 1901 and John Todd b. 1902/3 in Webster County, KY.”

Earnie says Lonnie was a minister at the General Baptist Church in Henderson and had fourteen children.”

From Jacob Todd: "John Todd listed on the 1830/40/50Hopkins County, KY Census as being from MO b. 1804/05. Williamson's bio states that John died right before the Civil War broke out. It also states that John and a stepmother raised Williamson.

Reuben is a little younger than John is and they also live next to a Thomas Todd b. NC 1793/96. When John dies, his youngest children move in with Reuben's family (Isaac b.1848 and William b. 1845/46). This is all on the Webster County Census of 1860 and the first Todds to live in Webster County that was formed off of Hopkins County in 1860."

Hopkins County formed in 1807 from Henderson County; Henderson formed in 1799 from Christian County;

By 1820 Moses was living in Jefferson Co. on the Big River next to an uncle, Benjamin Quick. Presume Moses was still living with his guardian, Daniel Quick. They got into a fight and Moses shot and killed Benjamin. I have copies of the court records. Moses was eventually cleared as self defense but this apparently caused him to leave Jefferson Co. I next caught up with him as an apprentice to Uriah Brock a few years later. As you said, his first wife was Rebecca Brock.

It appears, from the estimated birth dates of her children (1850 census) that she married Moses Todd about 1826/27, and had the following children: Joseph Todd, b. ca 1828; Mary Todd, b. ca 1830; Jonas Todd, b. ca 1832; Malinda Todd b. ca 1834. These four children are named in the estate records of Uriah Brock as being the heirs of Rebecca Brock, married to Moses Todd, " who has departed this life". … Rebecca must have died between about 1834 and late 1837, for on 25 Feb 1838, Moses married Maria Carnes in Washington Co. Missouri. The 1850 census of Johnson Twp., Washington County, Missouri , page 155, shows the family of Moses (b. ca 1800, KY) and Maria ( b. ca 1810, MO) with Joseph, Jonas, Mary and Malinda, children of Rebecca, all born in the 1830's as indicated above and then the oldest of the second family, Margaret R. b. ca 1840; Henry b. ca 1842; Washington, ca 1844; Eliza, age 1; and George B. Rickman, age 16.

Moses married (1) Rachel Brock about 1826 in Jefferson Co MO.

Moses married (2) Maria Carnes on 25 Feb 1838 in Washington Co, MO. Maria was born in 1810 in Missouri.

They had the following children:

656 M i.Joseph Todd was born in 1821 in Jefferson Co MO.

657 M ii.Jonas Todd was born in 1831 in Washington Co, MO.

658 F iii.Mary Todd was born in 1830 in Washington Co, MO.

John never really left home; he lived next to his father his entireadult life. He married Elizabeth "Betsey" Greene in 1819 and they raised their children right there at the crossroads near Union HillChurch. John predeceased his father.

All three of John B. Todd's sons living at the time of the war, as well as his son-in-law and eldest grandson served in the Confederate forces;

Elijah enlisted 4 Mar 1862, as a private in Co. F 45th GeorgiaVolunteers, "the Gray Infantry" (also known as Co B 12th GA Vol), andwas eventually appointed Sargent. He died of Gastritis in GeneralHospital at Camp Winder, Richmond VA 10/3/1863, and was buried inHollywood Cemetery.

John Mason joined Co B of the 45th Georgia Infantry (Brig. Gen'lEdward Thomas's Brigade) under Wilcox's division. He died at thebattle at Spottsylvania Court House on May 19th, 1864.

Samuel J. Todd had moved to Decatur, Mississippi, just before the warwhere he worked as a steam engine mechanic. He joined the 2nd MissCavalry, but was assigned to special detail in Canton MS for most ofthe war. He was paroled from hospital after the General Surrender.

Andrew Jackson Ross' tombstone is inscribed "CSA Co A 7th GA Mil", andhis son Edmund Jackson Ross served in B Co. 45th Inf Reg. GA,enlisting 26 February 1862 in the same unit as his uncle John MasonTodd.

At the end of the Civil War the surviving family members werescattered, and most lost contact with each other after leaving JonesCounty. Elijah was dead and his widow disappeared. The Ross childrenlost their mother the year after the war ended. John Mason's orphanswere farmed out to different families. Samuel only lived three yearsafter the end of the war, and his widow raised their two children inArkansas.

(Research):Message from Anita Steele, 1998:
"Some partially typed and partially handwritten notes ("from Bibleowned by Jn B Todd, published by H.E. Phinney, Cooperstown, NY, 1829")list two additional sons of Benjamin and Rebecca, who died ininfancy. Do you have them? [I have no idea who owns the Bible.]"

A land sale recorded in book 1R page 142 - 1847 John B Todd to Joseph Merser by Sheriff 100ac for land district 13, but there is some error regarding the location. Three years later Merser may have sold the land to Richmond Buckner: 1R-336 1850 Joseph Merser to Richmond Buckner John has a son named John M. Todd (age 21) and the child Rebecca Greer (age 5) living with him in 1850, indicating that perhaps the Clowers,Greers, and Todds were close for quite some time.

In the months leading up to Elijah's death, his Company was occupiedas follows:
"Around mid-June, 1863, the second invasion of enemy territorycommenced. Thomas' Brigade marched by way of Culpepper Court House,Chester Gap, Berryville, Shepherdstown, and Hagerstown, into the stateof Pennsylvania. The invasion ended with the Battle of Gettysburg, inwhich Thomas' Brigade did not participate, except in very heavyskirmishing, and in being subjected to one of the most awful artillerybarrages ever witnessed. The losses of the brigade amounted to about250 men killed, wounded, or captured.
After leaving Pennsylvania, the brigade returned through the lowerValley, and across the Blue Ridge Mountains, to the vicinity of OrangeCourt House, where it was encamped until about October 9, 1863. Atthat time, the army broke camp and marched against the enemy encampedaround Culpepper Court House. Thomas' Brigade was not engaged in theaffair with the rear guard of the enemy at Bristow station."

The Capt. of this company was a neighbor: Richard Bonner. The Historyof Jones County, Ga.1807-1907 list Richard W. Bonner in the 1850census living in the household of Jonathan Parish 68, farmer,Nancy T.Parish 54, Richard W. Bonner 27 ,occupation merchant, Richard H.Hutchings 30 merchant, William A Juhan 30 Clerk,James D. Williams 21and John Raley 25. Could this have been a rooming house? There is alsosome information of the BONNER family. Included is the family of JohnRichard Bonner Married Mary Julia Lester.Capt John Richard Bonnerenlisted in the Conf Army as Capt of Co H. 57, GA Vol. Was wounded atBaker's Creek, Miss and in the Battle of Atlanta. Surrendered

April1866 near Durham, NC.Listed elsewhere with residents of

Jones Co asVets. of the Confederacy. is R.W. Bonner who served in Co B 12th Ga.Vol.

(Research):38 is a little old to be marrying for the first time; perhaps he was the father of little "Rebecca Greer" age 5 living withhis parents on the 1850 census? If so, that would have made her nameactually Rebecca Green Todd, following the traditional naming patternin his mother's family.

From the Richmond Daily Whig, 7 May 1862:
CAMP WINDER – There are at the camp near the Reservoir, about 2,500sick soldiers, who are suffering very much for want of suitable foodand attendance. It is impossible that their wants can be suppliedwithout the cooperation of the citizens; and we are authorized to saythat any provisions suitable to the exigencies of the case, that maybe deposited at the depot of the Young Men's Christian Association(corner of Bank & 9th street) will be promptly sent to the camp. Wetrust the ladies – so ready to aid in every good work, - will lendtheir assistance. Cooked provisions of all kinds, bed clothing, andservants, are particularly needed. The Surgeon at the post is Dr. A. G. Lane, who has done everything inhis power to promote the sanitary condition of the place, and tominister to the relief of the patients. He has six assistants, who arealso, we learn, very attentive to their duties. It is obvious,however, that this force is inadequate – that it is impossible forseven physicians, however assiduous they may be to give properattention to so large a number of patients. If the Surgeon Generalcannot, or will not, detail other assistants, we hope that some of ourmedical men will volunteer their services hour an hour or two eachday.

From the Richmond Daily Dispatch, 2 October 1862:
Revivals of Religion in the Hospitals. – At Camp Winder for someweeks there has been in progress a revival of religion. Thirty-fivesoldiers have professed to be converted. Daily meetings are being heldand numbers are manifesting a deep interest in reference to spiritualthings.
A revival is also in progress at Chimborazo, and frequently from 30 to40 present themselves as "inquirers." Many have professed toexperience the saving change.
One hundred have professed conversion within a comparatively briefperiod in the hospitals in Petersburg.
For more than a month a protracted meeting has been in progress inLynchburg, at which some twenty soldiers have made the goodprofession.
We learn from the post chaplain in Farmville that there isconsiderable religions interest among the hospitals there and thateight have professed conversion.

At other points the divine blessing is being richly bestowed upon thepious efforts of chaplains and colporteurs. There can ban be no moreinviting field for Christian enterprise than that presented by thehospitals. At no time do men feel more grateful to the giver of allgood, and more like becoming pious, than when recovering from longspells of sickness.

Lin,

Think I have been in touch with you before, but had lost a bunch ofstuff when my computer was "revamped". Have not seen the pictures thatyou mentioned. Will have to check that out. I have some pictures thatI do not know who the people are because I got them after mygrandmother (Lanny Ross, dau of Edmond) died. Appreciate your sendingthe info that you did, also. Did you get confirmation that Roland wasthe father of Jackson or Andrew Jackson?? Do know by the census thatthere was also a brother of Edmond that was Andrew Jackson, so I callthem one and two. Do not have anything on the rest of Edmond's family.Have tried to write to Sarah Drowning Bear, but the e-mail address forher did not work. Did post to one of her messages, so hopefully shewill get in touch.

Thanks again
Vicky

I am beginning to think that I have been mistaken on the 2nd AJRoss--can't find what I had before that said that there was a AJ 2. Dosee where the A. M. Ross on the census must have been Elazar Mitchell.Also I was missing some of the later born children. Did not know thatthere was a brother Ewell--Edmond had a son Ewell, also. Thought Ibetter clarify some of this.
Thanks
Vicky

Mary married[112,113,114] Andrew Jackson Ross [104,105,106,107,108,109,110,111] on 24 Jan 1840 in Jones, Georgia, USA. Andrew was born[115,116,117,118] on 18 Mar 1820 in Jones, Georgia, USA. He died[119] on 4 Feb 1900.

Minute Book 1868-1873, Probate Court, Jones Co, GA page 191 withrecording date of 4/23/1872 lists Jackson Ross as agreeing toprovisions of the Administration of the Estate of Roland Ross, additional persons agreeing to this document include Julia A Kendrick,Francis Lazenby and her husband T J Lazenby, Narciss

Ross, Meary Rosswidow, George W Ross, Susannah Ross, Lydia Simpson and her husbandThomas Simpson. Unfortunately the document does not list the full names of thechildren or even all of them. Various letters in possession of thefamily refer to Jackson as Andrew Jackson and I understand even asJack. In addition I have a copy of a note written and signed by EwellWashington Ross,(a son of Andrew Jackson) who states that AndrewJackson Ross was the son of Roand Ross and that he (Andrew JacksonRoss) married "Marrian Todd". They settled on a farm in Monroe Countyand reared 4 boys, Edward Jackson, Ewlliaza sp? Mitchell, ErashisBartow who remained on the home place and Ewell Washington who movedto Barnesville. There were also 7 girls. It also seems to me that oneof the census lists him in the family group but I do not have a copyof that. Hope that this will help, if I find anything more I will letyou know. ---Kathy Ross, Dec. of Roland Ross Sr.

Boling and wife Susan P. Morris appear in the 1850 Census of Jones Co.(Visit #285) Their children were: Mary A., James, William, Martha andJohn C.
Visit #286 is Jeremiah Griffin Smith b. 1818 and wife Bethenia (Bethana) Morris who is thought to be from Monroe County.
Any information on these Morris or Smith lines would be greatlyappreciated.

Wayne Morrison: I do not have enough information to determine if JamesMorris was related to Boling G. Morris or Bethana Morris, myGr-Grandmother from Jones County.

Bethana married Jeremiah Griffin Smith in Jones County - his secondwife. His first wife was Temperance Morrison. They had one son, Moses,b. 1838 in Jones Co., killed at battle of 2nd Manassas, "War of YankeeAgression". Temperance may have died in childbirth, was dead by 1841when JGS married Bethana.

Bethana is thought to have been from Monroe County but that is notcertain. I have good reason to believe that Boling G. (Griffin?) Morris was married to a Smith from Jasper Co. or Monroe County, adaughter of Jeremiah Smith, uncle of Jeremiah Griffin Smith, thebrother of Bolling or Bolin Smith in Jasper Co.

As you can tell, I am pulling together various documents and courtrecords to construct a family tree. That Bethana Morris Smith andBoling G. Morris were next door neighbors (by Census of 1850) andBoling is a family name used by all male members of this family. It isfrom the mother of Bolling, Moses, Jeremiah and Rolling Smith and istraced to Col. Robert Bolling who married Jane Rolfe, thegranddaughter of Pocahontas in early Virginia. Their father was Dr.Griffin Smith who died in 1819 in Baldwin County, Ga.

738 F v.Mary Ann Green died before Aug 1870.

Her children are living with her brother in law on the 1870 census inDooly Co GA

Mary married Alladon Wilkens Folds on 3 Jun 1852 in Putnam, Georgia, USA. Alladon was born about 1826. He died in Nov 1863.

1850 United States Federal Census, Georgia, Putnam, District 70
Wilkins A. Folds, 20 living with Zach Folds, 23, farmer just a few houses from Wiley A. Todd (is this how he met Wiley'scousin Mary Green?)

Folds Aladin W. G 8th GA Inf. Reg't Private

Company G 8th Georgia Volunteer Infantry, The Pulaski
Volunteers, Sam"Sammy" Andrew made mention of a George Folds and A.W. Folds in hisletters to home. He was writing to his wife Rena and others.
Camped at Fredericksburg, Va, January 5, 1863
"George Folds is poking the fire hurrying up the cooks and I am in myfeeble way writing to my Dolly."
Camped near Orange Court House, May 31, 1863
"on the 25th of the present month I ran against Sergt G.W. Folds forthe 2nd Lieutenancy gr and at last I was elected by a majority of 12votes." and
Camp near Rogersville, Tennessee, on the road to Bristol, Virginia,December 11, 1863
"A.W. Folds was killed, Charley Vaughn was killed and George W.
Foldswas shot in the back of his right eye and the Ball peeped out behindhis left ear. I fear he will not recover. We had to leave him in thehands of the enemy."

GAInf Co G from Historical Sketch of the Pulaski Volunteers, Company G, 8th Ga. Regiment as it appeared inThe Hawkinsville Dispatch, July 17, 1879, p. 3 By David Green Fleming

A quote regarding his death from the same article:
"We were sent from Charleston to Chicamauga (sic), Tenn., arrivingseveral days after that battle, and being stationed on the top ofLookout Mountain several days, we were marched to Knoxville, wherebegan Longstreet's celebrated campaign of East Tennessee. In thenotorious charge on Fort Loudon, at Knoxville, the Eeighth (sic)Georgia bore a dangerous part, but the attempt was unsuccessful, andour loss heavy. The Volunteers lost (word undecipherable) ... GeorgeW. Folds, Wick Folds and Charlie Vaughn, and several wounded. This wasone of the hottest places the Volunteers were ever in. "

265.William Lewis Todd (Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born in 1804 in Georgia, USA. He died in 1832.

William married Charity Coleman on 6 Dec 1827 in Putnam, Georgia, USA.

1830 census finds Willis's family in Putnam co. Capt Jn. Bekafhesis dist (could not make out spelling of name, this is a guess) Males in family 1 (50-60) 1 in to 5; 1 in (5-10). girls 1 in (40-50) , 1 in to 5, 1 in (5-10), 1in (10-15).

Wiley and William=boys, three girls+ Charlotte, Matilda and Mazoury) These are the children's names listed in his will. They match thenumber of children in the above census. His will was in court 1832.

Baldwin Co census 1820 for Willis Coleman: male 1 under 10, 1 age 26to 45, female: 3 females under 10, one female over forty five.

Mildred's age is correct in 1830 but wrong in 1920. I think this is an error. In 1920 he had one son (under 10), and three daughters (under10).

compare to 1830 census: He added two young sons, but one son who would be teenager is missing. Added two young daughters, has one in 10-15who could be from first census. Leaves two daughters who would be in teens unaccounted for. For a total of 8 children.

Wiley, Missouri, Charlotte, & Matilda must all be children on first census.
In 1820 Wiley is not in the home, William Powell b. 1821 is one added son, John b. 1821 must be other. This accounts for all males. Add Nancy b. c1827, and Frances b c.1822 . These two fit the 1830 ages for two girls, Two girls who are now teens are out of the home. Leaves one at home in the 10-15 bracket. All this fits. But why are two youngest daughters and one son not mentioned in will? He even names, my five children. In 1840 we see these three children plus William Powell, still with Milly, now in Muscogee Co. Ga. (William marries in Muscogeein 1842).

Will of Willis Coleman " In the name of God Amen. I Willis Coleman of the County of Baldwin, being sick and week in body but in perfectsound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament in form and manner and following.
1st. I recomment my soul to God and for my body to be buried in a Christian like manner.
2nd I will that all my just debts be paid out of my Estate.
3. I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife Milly Coleman all myestate both real and professional during her natural life. siz. one hundredone and fourth acres of land in Baldwin County where on I know live andfour hundred and ninety acres in Irwin County and I also will that mybeloved wife shall have the priviledge to sell the land, and make a good and lawful tithes at her disposition. I also will and bequeath to mybeloved wife my nine Negroes named as follows Patey, Emily, Bird and Josiah, Amey, Betsy, and Mary, Maklin and Simon, with all and singular, myhorses and stock of all kinds, Household and kitchen furniture during her natural life and after her death to be equally divided among mybeloved children. viz. Wiley W. Coleman and Charlotte T. Coleman and MatildaT. Coleman and Mazousy W. Coleman and William P. Coleman and I will thatmy wife shall school and raise my fine children out of my Estate and asmy children become of age. I will that my beloved wife or executor shall pay them of their equal part of my estate, and I do further constitute nominate and appoint as my lawful Executor my beloved wife MillyColeman and my friend Ambrose Chapman (this is Milly's brother), to transactand dispose of my estate agreable to their ....will given under my handand ...this 2nd day of January Eighteenhundred and twenty two, Signed in front of Milly Coleman Robert Miles (?) John Miles. "

Willis Coleman's will cont. Georgia Putnam co. Personally appraised in open Court. ...April 2, 1832.

ROBERT REASON (REESE)4 ROOKS (JULIA ANNE3 BUCKNER, JOHN2, BENJAMIN1)was born September 29, 1844, and died November 11, 1911. He married(1) MARY J.

ELIZABETH BUCKNER, daughter of RICHMOND BUCKNER andSUSANNAH TODD. He married (2) MARTHA IDA FRANCES (MATTIE) JOINEROctober 12, 1879 in Monroe Co., GA, daughter of BENJAMIN JOINER andMARY SMITH. She was born July 20, 1863 in Georgia, and died July 01,1901. He met (3) ROSE ELLA WILLABY July 31, 1903 in Married in theProbate Office by M.F Murphy, Justice of the Peace, Marshall Co., AL, daughter of ISAIAH WILLABY and BETTY LACKEY. She was born October 12,and died February 04, 1917.

Notes for ROBERT REASON (REESE) ROOKS:

Reason Robert (Reese) Rooks, eldest son of John Rooks and JulianWheeler Rooks.

Reese joined the Confederate Army in 1861. His enlistment period beingfor the war. He was a 16 year old private in Co. A 14th Regiment,Georgia Infantry under Captain Ethridge, Monroe County, Georgia. Hewas shot through the right knee in the Battle on Fredricksburg on the13th day of December 1862. He was taken to the Richmond, Virginiahospital and arrived there on the 20th of December 1862, seven daysafter being shot.

He was married to Martha Ida Joiner October 12, 1879. The Rooks andJoiners moved to a Marshall Co., Alabama after the war, to the AsburyCommunity (Albertville address) atop Sand Mountain. They traveled fromMonroe County, GA., in a covered wagon pulled by oxen, which theytraded for their land.

Reason Robert and Martha Ida Joiner had four boys and four girls.

Around 1895 Reese's old war wound became so bad that he had to havehis right leg amputated. This was done by an old Doctor Jackson (somesay Dr. Smith) from Guntersville who road a black horse. He road outto the Reese Rooks farm and amputated his leg at his home. He wouldride out there every few days to dress it, Martha would cook dinnerfor him. Reese's wife Martha Ida died on the 1st day of July 1901.Before Reese had his leg amputated he made his Will out to his wifeMartha Ida, but after she died in

After Martha died Reese ran off all of his children with the exceptionof Frank and Dewey who were very small, in order that he could marryagain.
He married Ella Willaby who would have nothing to do with his olderchildren and was very cruel to Frank and Dewey. One such occasionbeing when Frank and Dewey picked an apple from an apple tree on thefarm and she beat Dewey until the blood ran. The older children wanted to come back home so they could take care ofFrank and Dewey, but Reese would not let them. They finally got Frankand Dewey away from Reese and Ella and raised them.
Reese and Ella Willaby had two boys and two girls.
Reese died on the 11th day of November, 1911 of kidney failure and wasburied in the family cemetery on his farm beside his first wife Marthawhere his Mother and Martha's family are also buried. His body isburied across the cemetery from his amputated leg. The Cemetery iscalled the Rooks Cemetery and is located at Asbury, just outsideAlbertville in Marshall Co., Al.
On his death he left his entire estate to his wife Ella and hischildren by her, with nothing going to his children by Martha. His sonRobert has maintained the cemetery through the years even though hesold the property several years back.
The Rooks and Joiners came to Alabama from Monroe County, Georgia inwagons pulled by oxen they traded for their land.

R. Rooks
The name of the above gentleman residing in Thompson beat is announcedin this weeks issue as a candidate for Tax Assessor of this county.
He was born in Monroe County, Ga., and moved to this state in 1880,where he has since resided and has been engaged in farming. He wentinto the War in '61 with the 14th Ga. regiment. He was in the secondbattles of Manassas, Sharpsburg, Seven Pines, Virginia, and waswounded in the battle of Fredricksburg on December 13, 1862. He wastaken to the first Ga. Hospital at Richmond, Va. He arrived there onthe 20th day of December, 1862, seven days after being shot. He waspermanently disabled by the wound for further service in the army. Hecame from the war to his home and family, poor and with nothing but anincurable wound which never healed perfectly, and for thirty yearsstruggled manfully to make a living for himself and family. In thesummer of 1894 he was prostrated by fever caused by this same wound,and on the 27 of September. Dr Jackson of Guntersville, amputated thewounded leg successfully.

He has seven children, the oldest a daughter 14 years of age. Herequests us to say that but for his present inability to labor to makea living for his family, he would never have thought of asking thepeople for an office. He was a brave, true soldier; he is an honest,upright citizen, and his case appeals to the sympathies of all andespecially to old confederates who suffered and bled in the same causein which the subject of this sketch was so unfortunate as to bepermanently disabled. Mr. Rooks is a pioneer so to speak, among thereformers of this section, and if the people elect him to the officehe seeks, he will make them an excellent officer.

NOTE: Reese lost his bid for county Tax Assessor by 10 votes, with703.

Some of her brother's descendants have her name as "Luby" but I haveseen the census from which they drew that conclusion and they arewrong. It looks like "July", which I believe was the particularcensus taker's way of spelling "Julie", as another family not far fromthe Buckners and Todds have another "July."

Putnam County Georgia Marriage index:
Todd, B GSpouse : Legget, Lurany
Marriage date : Dec 30, 1823

Notes received from Melba and Douglas Lowe of Allgood, Alabama, January 1998:

1. Suspect that Benjamin G. Todd's middle name was "Garfield", possibly named for the President. That name goes on down through the family. (This is not possible since James A Garfield was born in Ohio in 1831.)

Notes received from Jo and Curtis Medlock at <curtisandjo@charter.net> of Arab, Alabama. Mrs. Medlock is a descendant of Elizabeth Todd (daughter of Benjamin and Lureny).

1. Mrs. Medlock found in her Carter family (Micajah Carter married one of B.G. Todd and Luraney Leggitt daughters Elizabeth) that Benjamin G. Todd and Luraney Leggitt Todd moved to Alabama in 1843 from Geogia.

2. In the 1870 census of Randolph County, Alabama Luraney Todd (Widow is residing with Micajah and Elizabeth Todd Carter. This is Lureney's Daughter and Son in law.

BENJAMIN married LURENEY LEGGIT daughter of LEWIS LEGGITT and ALSEY on 30 Dec 1823 in Putnam County, Georgia. LURENEY was born in 1805 in Greene County, Georgia. She died in Randolph County, Alabama. She was buried in Possibly in the Sweet Water Cemetery in Randolph County, Alabama.

From all accounts Lurena was documented as Luraney as well. In fact on the marriage license her name is spelled Lureny Leggitt.

BENJAMIN and LURENEY had the following children:

768 M i.J.H. TODD was born about 1824.

769 M ii.LEWIS E. TODD was born about 1825.

770 M iii.ELI J. TODD was born in 1826. He died on 7 Jan 1900.

771 F iv.MARTHA TODD was born about 1835.

772 F v.PRETTINIA TODD was born about 1837.

Todd, Benjamin F. Confederate Cavalry 6th Regiment, Alabama Cavalry

6th Regiment, Alabama Cavalry

6th Cavalry Regiment was organized at Pine Level, Alabama, during the spring of 1863. It contained men from Montgomery, Coffee, Tallapoosa, Pike, Barbour, Macon, Henry, and Coosa counties. The unit was brigaded under General Clanton, served for a time in Florida, then in August became part of the garrison at Montgomery. Later it was attached to Armstrong's command and saw action in various conflicts during the Atlanta Campaign. In August, 1864, the regiment returned to Clanton's Brigade and fought at Bluff Springs, Florida, and in southern Alabama. With less than 200 men it was included in the surrender of the Department of Alabama,

Mississippi, and East Louisiana. Its commanders were Colonel C.H.
Colvin, Lieutenant Colonel Washington T. Lary, and Major E.A.
McWhorter.

WILLIAM A. TODD, the son of John and _____Todd, was born 14 August 1817 in Putnam County, Georgia. William moved with his parents to Henry Co GA by 1830 and then to Meriwether Co by 1835. William married Elizabeth ____, born ca. 1818 in South Carolina. William and Elizabeth were married ca. 1836. . Their five children, Mary Jane, Elizabeth Ann, John Edward, William J., and Sarah Catherine were born in Georgia.
Around 1849-50, William and his family left Georgia and started west. William and Elizabeth settled in the Coldbath Township of Clark County early in 1851. Coldbath Township is located in the northwestern section of Clark County. This township was annexed by Pike County in 1873. They lived near the Caddo River on land that would later become the town of Glenwood. William A. is first mentioned on the tax records in Clark County, Arkansas in 1853. In 1853, William owned two horses valued at one hundred dollars, two cattle valued at sixty dollars, and one slave valued at seven hundred dollars. In 1854, he owned two horses at one hundred dollars, two cattle at twenty dollars, and one slave at seven hundred dollars. In 1858, his assets had grown to two horses at two hundred ninety dollars, seven cattle at one hundred fifteen dollars, and three slaves at one thousand five hundred dollars. The 1860 census state that he had a total of six slaves.

Neighbors of William and Elizabeth in 1860 were J. Erwin and W. A. Francis from Tennessee, John Wilson from Ohio, David M. Hart, R. H. Hill, and James Coleman from Georgia. Perhaps one of the last three families came to Arkansas with William.

William was a farmer, but he supplemented his income with other jobs while he lived in the Coldbath Township. In 1859, William worked as a guard for the county in the case of the State vs. Charles, a slave. Charles was being held for murder. His income for that duty was $6.75. He served on the Petit Jury in 1863 and was appointed election judge for Coldbath Township County. He was appointed as overseer on the Mt. Ida Road that started at the Caddo River and ended at the Montgomery County Line in January 1860 for a period of three years. (1 )
With the outbreak of the Civil War, William's two sons volunteered for service with their neighbor J. F. Erwin, the Captain of the Caddo Rifles. The unit was organized in the Mt. Ida area. On 17 August 1861, the Caddo Rifles became a part of the 4th Arkansas Infantry Regiment in Lawrence County, Missouri. William J. was given a medical discharge while in Mississippi, and it is not known if he returned home or died on the way. John Edward returned home safely. His son-in-law, Enoch Nelson died during the war, and his son-in-law, George Pettitt returned home. Following the war, William could no longer manage the farm along the Caddo River. William and Elizabeth moved about 45 miles south to Caddo Township and settled in the Hart's Chapel Community. Hart's Chapel is located about two and one-half miles east of Curtis.
Sarah Catherine, their youngest daughter, died in 1866, leaving a son, William Arnett. Sarah's husband, James M. Callaway, remarried, but William Arnett remained with his grandparents. Susannah Terakins, age 16 and listed on the census as deaf, dumb, blind, idiotic, or insane, also lived with the Todd family. About 1874, three other grandsons came to live with their grandparents for several years--William Houston, John Erwin, and Perry Franklin Nelson. Their daughter, Mary Jane, moved next door to them before 1880.

William and Elizabeth moved again to the Anderson Township to the farm of John Pollard. They were sharecroppers with the Pollard family.
Elizabeth died 01 February 1877 at their home in Hart's Chapel. She is buried in the Hart's Chapel Cemetery.
William married secondly, Clara Catherine Ewing 27 October 1879. (Clark County Marriages, I43) Clara was born 13 April 1849 in Mississippi. Clara had a daughter, Louie, age 7. Louie married J. F.Hart.
William's son John Edward, died 21 August 1884. His second wife, Mary Ann, died 23 March 1885, leaving a five month old son, John William Thomas. John Edward's 6 children moved into the home of their grandparents. (2) Mary Ann's children must have gone to live with her relatives.
William died 02 February 1896 at his home while the family was having dinner. William had been suffering from skin cancers for several years. He is buried in the Hart's Chapel Cemetery.
Clara and her grand step-son, William A. Callaway, continued living in Hart's Chapel. Clara applied for, and received, a homestead of 80 acres in 1889. (3) She sold this land to her son-in-law, J. F. Hart in 1912. Clara died 11 April 1922. She is buried in Hart's Chapel Cemetery near her daughter.

William had five children and one step-daughter, but he was also the guardian for ten grandchildren.

William married (1) Elizabeth Todd about 1836 in GA. Elizabeth was born[256,257,258,259,260] in 1813 in SC. She died[261,262,263,264,265] on 1 Feb 1877 in Clark Co, AR.

Married 41 years when she died.

William and Elizabeth had the following children:

783 F i.Mary Jane Todd was born[266,267,268,269,270] in 1836 in GA. She was buried in Harts Chapel Cem, Curtis, Clark Co, AR.

MARY JANE TODD, the first child of William and Elizabeth Todd, was born ___ 1837 in Georgia. Mary Jane was 14 years old when she came with her family to Arkansas. Mary Jane married Enoch

R. Nelson on 06 August 1856 in Clark County Arkansas. (Clark County Marriages, C-411) Enoch was born ca. 1824 in Tennessee, the son of Sterling and Nancy Butler Nelson. The Nelson family consisted of Marshall, Minerva, William Butler, Enoch R., Archibald, and Melvina Malinda.
Enoch was previously married to Delilah Strawn 25 April 185l Montgomery County, the daughter of Fielding and Nancy Ann Thomas Strawn. (Montgomery County Marriages, ). Enoch and Delilah had 1 son, Fielding, born ca. 1852. Delilah died ca. 1854 in Montgomery County, Arkansas.

Enoch purchased 40 acres of land near the Caddo River in 1855. (4 ) Cotton was the main crop grown on the land, but he soon had a good orchard established.
Enoch and Mary Jane had three children, William Houston, John Erwin, and Perry Franklin.
Enoch enlisted with the “Caddo Rifles” that was organized in the Mt. Ida area and joined with the 4th Arkansas Infantry. Family legend says that he was captured and imprisoned in Louisiana. He tried to escape and was probably killed 04 June 1863. Enoch was listed as a deserter. (6 )
Mary Jane’s name is found on a list of soldiers and nurses required to take the Oath of Amnesty following the end of the Civil War. Mary Jane could have worked as a nurse during the war, because there were several skirmishes in and around Montgomery County. The Oath was taken at Mt. Ida, Montgomery County between 26 October - 18 November 1865. (7 )

carried him home with her and nursed him until Mary Jane was well enough to again care for her baby. Later the Nelson children were frequent visitors in the Hill home playing with their sons, Abe and Morgan along the river. (8 )

Mary Jane married secondly, Cyrus B. Hazelton, born in South Carolina, 24 November 1869 in Montgomery County. (Montgomery County Marriages, A-237) Cyrus was always dressed in a black suit with a small string tie and riding a fancy horse. Cyrus had been a school teacher, but when he married Mary Jane he began farming and raising fruit. He must have been a successful farmer, because every fall he would ship his cotton to New Orleans and stay for an extended visit. Upon his return, he would bring fancy clothes for his wife and daughters, but not for his step-sons. (9)

Family legend says that he was very mean to the three boys, and would not let them sleep inside the home. The boys worked in the fields, cut wood, kept the fires burning in the house, picked up the fallen fruit and fed it to the hogs, and kept his horse groomed and ready. They were forbidden to eat any of the fruit. About 1874, their mother packed some food and sent them to their grandparents with instructions to stay in the woods while en route. (10 ) The trip was ca. 45 miles.

Cyrus and Mary Jane had 3 daughters, Sarah Jane, Elizabeth, and Mary E..

Cyrus and Mary Jane could not resolve their differences, so the land was sold in 1878 and she moved to Hart's Chapel and built a small home next to her father. Cyrus remained in Montgomery County, living as a boarder in the home of John W. Bowers. On June 30, 1882, he applied for a homestead in Montgomery County. Cyrus died before 1900, and he may be buried in the County Line Cemetery near his daughter. Family legend says that Cyrus visited Mary Jane and the children in Hart's Chapel. Upon leaving, the men walked with him as far as the gate at the end of the lane to see him off. A shot was heard in the distance before the men returned. Cyrus never returned to Hart's Chapel. (11 ) Another family legend says that he died when his horse fell on him while jumping a ditch in Montgomery Co.. (12 )

Mary Jane became ill with "Inward Cancer" ca. 1901-02. She moved into the home of her son Perry. Mary Jane, being a large person, made it difficult for her daughter-in-law to properly care for her. Perry moved his work near the house so he could help with her care when he was called. (13 )
Mary Jane's funeral was held in the Hart's Chapel Methodist Church. The congregation sang "Chariots Come to Carry Me Home." She was buried in the cemetery across the road. Perry made a marker by inserting carved wooden letters into the concrete form. (14)

The following information was contributed by Glenda Dodd,Glendafd@aol.com.
LEVI DOUGLAS TODD was hanged during the Civil War by guerrillas at Christiana, (Rutherford), TN. There are three versions of why Levi was hanged:
1) Levi was a blacksmith and was forced to shoe Yankee horses and Prater's gang, a band of guerrillas, hung him because of this. 2) Levi had a daughter that Prater was interested in and Levi would not let him see her. 3) Levi was hung by Yankees because he would not divulge information. The Yankees reputedly cut out his tongue.

The story that Levi Newton Todd, grandson of Levi Douglas Todd, told his daughter, Edna K. Todd, was Levi Douglas was riding horseback on his way to Murfreesboro, TN to take the oath of allegiance to the US.Government. Prater's gang caught him and three other men named Tribble, Brown and Mears. Levi, Tribble and Brown were hanged at Christiana behind the old school building in Rutherford County; but because Mears gave the Mason sign, he was released. Columbus Campbell cut Levi down and took him to Big Springs in Rutherford County. The children of Levi Douglas & Mary Vardelle

Todd were small when their parents died and were passed from guardian to guardian until all were of age. Prater's gang, guerrilla's who raided both the Rebels and the Yankees, hung out at Wartrace, TN. Everyone feared his gang and several people left the area because of this. Prater was killed in a bar fight being hit over the head with a bottle. C. Ray Stacy has provided me with a copy of their photograph. Mary: Mary died on the first day of the Three-Day Battle of Murfreesboro.

On the1870 Decatur County, Indiana Census with Thomas and wife Mahala there is a child listed Luella Braden 8/12 born Oct. 1869 Indiana. I'm not sure where this child fits in as yet.
Luella Braden was not found on the 1880 Decatur Co. Indiana Census.

Tomas MIERS as listed on the 1900 Decatur Indiana Census without his wife Mahala, It seem Tomas had no idea when he or his children were born because the date are way off.

If you need more info please contact Lesley email: lesley66@charter.net

Thomas married Mahala D. Braden on 13 Jul 1843 in Indiana, U.S.. Mahala was born about 1826 in Decatur Co., Indiana, U.S.. She died on 18 Oct 1887 in Indiana, U.S..

There is a child Luella Braden listed in the household 1870 with Mahala and her husband Thomas Myres, I have not found the connection as of yet. Mahala's maiden name is Braden so I figure they are related i'm just not sure how yet. Luella was not found on the 1880 census with Mahala and Thomas.

Mahala D. Braden Myres was not found on the 1900 Decatur Co. Indiana with her husband, later I got a death date of Oct. 18, 1887 although I can not verify the exact date the census proves she did live to see June 7, 1900 when the census was taken.

If you need more info please contact Lesley email: lesley66@charter.net

John L. Myres/Miers/Mier was not found on the 1920 Census and since he was 78 years old on the 1910 I have to assume he died before 1920.

If you need more info please contact Lesley email: lesley66@charter.net

John married Rebecca Braden on 25 Mar 1852 in Indiana, U.S.. Rebecca was born in Dec 1829 in Decatur Co., Indiana, U.S.. She died in May 1910/1920 in Indiana, Decatur Co., U.S..

Rebecca Myres/Miers/Mier was not found on the 1920 Census and since she was 80 years old on the 1910 Census I am assuming she died before the 1920 Census came out.

If you need more info please contact Lesley email: lesley66@charter.net

John and Rebecca had the following children:

956 M i. Thomas A. Myres was born in 1853 in Indiana, U.S..

Reuben married (2) Jemima Todd daughter of Aaron 'Captain' Todd and Sally Todd on 11 Apr 1827 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. Jemima was born about 1810 in Carlocksville, Rutherford, Tennessee, USA. She died before 22 Mar 1888 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. She was buried in Prob. Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.
Jemima Todd appeared before the Clk on Jan 8, 1885, age 75, and made Declaration for Widow's Pension, and stated that Reuben had d. of old age on Dec 16, 1883 (actually the 17th). That she was m. under the name of Jemima Todd to said Reuben Todd on the (?) day of March (actually Apr) 1827 in Rutherford County. Said that she had not, but her husband had been previously married. On May 20, 1885 Jemima signed(her mark) a document stating the family records have been destroyed and that "my oldest children are Pheby and Reuben. Pheby is 56 years old and Reuben is 54 years old." On Jan 18, 1888 Jemima was sent notice from the Dept of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions, that she would receive accrued monies by Certificate #3517 (Reuben's) in thecae up to and including the date of Reuben's death. Her Orig. No 43732 and Cert. No. 34867, Service Pension, War of 1812, Act of Mar 9, 1878.

State of TN - Rutherford County: ``I, W D Robinson, Clk of the County Court of said county, hereby certify that I am custodian of the marriage records of said county and I have made search for the marriage license of Reuben Todd and Jemima Todd, but the same cannot be found. No permanent record of marriages was kept in this county until the year 1838. It was only required by law that the person performing the marriage ceremony should return the license with his endorsement thereon, which said license was filed away, and during the late (?) a large number of said files were destroyed so that the license in this case cannot be found. Witness my hand and seal of said court at office in Murfreesboro this 11th day of Jun 1885.´´ Signed byW D Robinson, Clk County Court.

On Mar 19, 1888 (postmarked Mar 23, 1888) the Dept of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions wrote, "Sir, will you please inform this Bureau as to the present post office address of Jemima Todd? Her claim has been allowed, but the Pension Certificate, which was addressed to Murfreesboro, TN, was returned to the pension agent at Knoxville, TN,unclaimed." Mar 22, 1888 response: "returned with the info that the within mentioned claimant is now dead." Signed J L McFarland. (NanniePolk Todd's records had Date of Birth of 28-Aug-1808. Samuel Lusk was Surety on marriage).

Jemima married[430,431] Reuben Todd Sr. son of Caleb Todd and Unknown on 11 Apr 1827 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. Reuben was born about 1785 in Georgia, USA. He died before 22 Mar 1888 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA. He was buried in Prob. Rutherford County, Tennessee, USA.

Reuben Todd was born in Wilkes Co GA in 1785. He came to Madison Co and was on the tax lists 1803 to 1805 and then went with his brother William and uncle Benjamin 1759-1854 to Rutherford Co TN. He lived to over 100 years old.

Reuben is listed in the Silver Creek area of Madison County, KY between 1803 and 1805. 1803: 10003; one male over 21 and 3 horses. 1804: 10002; one male over 21 and 2 horses.Same for 1805. Reuben disappears about the same time his uncle Benjamin1759-1854 disappears from Madison County, KY. "It is likely that he is the Reuben Todd who appeared in the Madison County, KY tax lists 1803-1805 since we know his brother, William, married in Madison County. This would mean that he came from GA to KY five or six yrs aft the main 1796 migration of Todds from Rowan County, NC to Madison County, KY."

Reuben was on 1810 Rutherford County, TN Census: 1M 16/26, 1F 16/26,and 1F u 10. I have seen his name spelled Reubin and Rubin, but his military records have Reuben.

On the date of Mar 23, 1871 Reuben Todd appeared before the court at the age of 86, resident of Rutherford County, stated his wife as Gemmated, whom he m. aft the War of 1812, and stated he served in the War of 1812, that his bro, William Todd, was a Lt in his company, and was stationed mostly at Fort Williams, AL; was in several skirmishes with Indians when he crossed through the Cherokee Nation. He was at Fort Lasly in Talledega aft the fights and has drawn two land warrants, 80acres each. Declaration of Surviving Soldier for and Aaron Runnels witnessed his mark. He was in Cpt Abner Pierce's CO TN MilitiaPvt, commanded by Maj William Woodfolk. He enlisted 20-Sep-1814 and discharged 10-Apr-1815.

Full Pension Application and his length of service was 203 days, which states he d.on 17-Dec-1883.

Family Finder DNA tests done in 2011 show that Reuben was not the son of Mary Todd and that Walker Todd b 1822, though related, was not a nephew. Though some of the Family Finder tests were contradictory, one sample from a descendant of Abel Todd b 1795 test, one from a desc of Reuben Todd b 1785 and one from a desc of John Todd b 1770-80 , suggested that they were all brothers and therefore sons of Caleb Todd b 1751.

Jemima, in her application for a widow's pension in 1885, swore that the family records had been destroyed, but she believed Reuben was 107years old at the time of his death. A newspaper article (NB & NW,11-19-1880) named Reuben Todd of Dist 25, age 100, the oldest man in Rutherford County, TN. Reuben lived in Carlocksville (Rutherford) TN.

Annie Walker Burns Bell's book, Madison County Kentucky Marriages 1785-

1851 lists:

Bill and Kathy Vockery's book, Madison county Kentucky Marriage Records Vol. II, 1823-1851:
Groom: Baxter Todd - Bride: Elizabeth Mitchell - Bond date: 30 July 1833 - Bondsman: Major Johnson - Grandfather of the Groom: Joseph Todd - Mother of the Groom: Mary Todd - Listed on bond but relationship unknown: Nancy Mitchell - Marriage Return: 13 August 1833.

Elizabeth Mitchell was born in about 1813 in Madison County, the daughter of William Mitchell and Nancy Estes. Since Baxter married for a second time in 1866, it seems likely that Elizabeth died sometime between 1860 and 1865. Baxter's second marriage was to Martha Jane Norris on 10 July 1866 in Madison County. Baxter doesn't appear on the 1880 census.

Baxter married (1) Elizabeth Mitchell on 13 Aug 1833 in Madison, Kentucky, USA. Elizabeth was born in 1813 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.

1175 F xviii.Jemima Todd was born in 1877 in Madison, Kentucky, USA.

480.Asa Todd Esquire (Jemima Todd, Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born on 24 Oct 1817 in Madison County, Kentucky, USA. He died on 24 May 1904 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA. He was buried in Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

Asa Todd was born in 1817, son to Jemima Todd and grandson of Benjamin Todd b 1759.

A family tradition had earlier reported that Asa Todd was the brother to Walker Todd b 1822 and Jefferson Todd b 1814, and that Walker's mother (and therefore Asa's) was Elizabeth. However, census records indicate that Asa Todd was son of Jemima Todd who married Alexander Espy two decades after Asa's birth and then married Hollis Cooper in 1859. A recently discovered court ordered land sale listed the living children of Benjamin Todd b 1759 and included Jemima Espy in that list. Though we don't know Asa Todd's father, he indicated that in the 1880 and 1900 census that his father was born in Tennessee.

He moved to Cannon County about 1842 and settled near where his step-father Alexander Espy had gotten a grant in the 1830s along Dug Hollow of Brawley's Fork.

A letter from Asa Todd to Sarah Cornelison 06-Mar-1843, Benjamin Todd Pension papers from 04-Sep- 1813 to 04-Mar-1844, and some Confederate money were found in a drawer of a secretary purchased by Mr. Tom Patton, h/o Cora Todd. Estate of Asa Todd submitted Jul 2 1907, B F Wood, Clk, and W P Todd, Admns.

State of TN, Mar 6, 1843 Coffee County: "Dear Mrs. Sarah Ann Cornelison, I received your letter some time in the fall which gave me much satisfaction. I am well at present for which I have great reasons to be thankful. And I hope when these few lines come by hand they may find you enjoying the same blessings. I have wrote two letters bef this time but have not had the opportunity that I wished to send by before. I hope you have not forgot me yet. I should have been there bef now but is has been out of my power. I beg to be excused. I have to go to the south this spring and if nothing happens more than I expect, I will come out to your house in four or five weeks and then we can make our arrangements to soot ourselves. As I reckon the old people will not get any better reconcilers. If we was to let them (?) longer when I come, there shall not (?) because I don't expect to pester them anymore at home. If you have the opportunity to write to me bef I come, do so, as I would be glad to hear from you. The last account of word from you bef this time I understood that you was abt marrying to no one at present but remain yours until death. My pen is bad. My ink is pale. My love with you shall never fail. Mr. Davidson Todd wishing you much joy." Mr. Asa Todd to Mrs. Sarah Ann Cornelison. Regarding statement of Mr. Davidson Todd wishing you much joy, was this the Davidson Todd who m. Orlena Cornelison, and related to Sarah Cornelison?

1184 F ix.Nancy Angeline Todd [452] was born[453] on 26 Apr 1860 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA. She died[454] on 18 Feb 1935 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

Nancy married[456] William B. Ingles [455] on 6 Nov 1879 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA. William was born[457] on 28 Oct 1855. He died[458] on 1 Jun 1927.

1185 F x.Sarah I. Todd [459] was born[460] on 5 Nov 1863 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA. She died[461] on 17 Apr 1875 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

Asa married (2) Sarah Jane McCrary on 26 Jan 1880. Sarah was buried in Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

483.Walker Todd Sr. (Elizabeth Todd, Benjamin Todd, Benjamin Todd, Caleb Todd, Joseph Todd, William Tod, Introduction to the) was born[462] on 5 May 1822 in Tennessee, USA. He died on 28 Jul 1906 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA. He was buried[463] in Bradyville, Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

Walker Todd was born May 5, 1822 most likely in Tennessee, according to the census. His mother was said to be named Elizabeth and his father is unknown. He was raised by his grandmother, the widow Mary Todd 1762-1866. His grandmother cared for him until the role changed, then in turn, Walker cared for his grandmother.

Walker bought land in 1847 in Cannon County near what became the town of Burt and next door to Jefferson Todd who bought land there in 1848.

Walker may have lived near to Jefferson Todd in the Fox Hollow area of Rutherford County before coming to Cannon County. Walker's wife Julia Painter who he married in Rutherford County in 1849 appears to be the daughter of John Painter 1781-1851 who lived close to Jefferson Todd in the Fox Hollow area in 1840. The other evidence for Walker being closely associated with Jefferson is in the 1830 census. Family historians have asserted that the Mary Todd b 1762 (Walker's grandmother) was the Mary Todd in the 1830 census born 1770-80 with male children born 1810-15 (possibly Jefferson), 1820-25 (possibly Walker) and 1825-30 (unknown) along with a woman 1800-1810. This is definitely a possibility. If so, then the young woman in the household could have been Walker's mother or Jefferson's mother or the mother of the youngest boy.

Walker first married Julianna Painter 12 April 1849 in Rutherford County. The couple along with Mary Todd b 1764 NC. Julianna died shortly after the 1850 Census Schedule was taken. Walker married for the second time to Elvira Frances Haynes 5 March 1855.

In the year of 1863, Tennessee was drawn into the Civil War. Walker,at the age of 43, enrolled in Company A-18-Regt, Capt. M. B. Rushings Company, Tennessee Volunteers at McMinnville on January 10, 1863. He was detailed as a nurse at the hospital in Ringold, GA. Walker was also assigned for extra duties at the Ford's Hospital August 8, 1863. He served 31 days at $.25 per day. He was paid a total of $15.25 for his services. On January 15, 1865, Walker was admitted to the hospital for disabilities and, on April 14, 1865, was sent to C.S.A. General Hospital No 11,Charlotte, NC. At the end of the war, Walker, at age 43, was administered the Oath of Allegiance to the United States of America at Chattanooga, TN. At this time, a description of him was given as living in Cannon County Tennessee, dark complexion, grey hair, greyeyes, and 5'11" tall.

Walker returned to his home and resumed his farming operation. He and Elvira had ten children: Mary Jane, Stephen Alexander, Abner Newton, Archibald Jasper, Martha Frances, Walker Everett, Asa Benjamin, SarahElizabeth, Ivy John Creel, and Cora Alice. They also reared a granddaughter Nellie Lee Todd, the daughter of their son Walker.

In 1869, Mary Todd, widow of Granville, conveyed 65 acres to Walker Todd in Cannon County, located on Carson's Fork of Stones River, southside of Petty Gap Road on James Todd's corner. This James Todd is presumably the James B. Todd b 1788 NC who got a grant in the area in 1831. This James Todd is not from the same Todd family as Walker Todd.

Walker and Elvira continued living on the farm until their deaths.Grandmother Mary died in 1866, Elvira in 1904 and Walker died in 1906.They lie resting in the Todd Cemetery, located on the hillside of the family farm just a few yards from where their frame dwelling house stood. Their memories will long remain in the hearts of those who loved them. (story recd from Juanita Burks)

See discussions under his mother Elizabeth and grandmother Mary for possible links to Benjamin Todd b 1759, who may be his grandfather.

DNA samples done in 2011 have the potential to both determine his father and determine the parents of Mary Todd. See DNA report for details on this.

Walker married (1) Elvira Francis 'Misa' Haynes on 3 May 1855 in Manchester, Coffee, Tennessee, USA. Elvira was born[464] on 22 May 1835 in Nashville, Davidson, Tennessee, USA. She died[465] on 6 Aug 1904 in Cannon, Tennessee, USA. She was buried[466] in Bradyville, Cannon, Tennessee, USA.

They had the following children:

1195 F x.Cora Alice Todd was born on 26 Jul 1875. She died on 18 Nov 1956.

Walker married (2) Julie Ann Painters on 12 Apr 1849. Julie was born in 1830 in Rutherford Co, TN.

Julia Painter is probably the daughter of John Painter 1781-1851 and Malinda/ Milly Jacobs. John Painter was a neighbor of Jefferson Todd b 1814 in the Fox Hollow area in 1840. His two older daughters reported in the 1830 census (Tabitha b 1817 and Catherine b 1824) were out of the house and married by 1840; the 1840 census showed a daughter born 1826-1830. There are no other Painters in Rutherford Co who could have been Julia's parents.

He joined Co B 45th GA Infantry, Brig. Gen'l Edward Thomas's Brigade01 March 1862 under Wilcox's division.

Regarding the battle that cost John his life:
"Leaving the gory field of the Wilderness, the brigade marched toSpottsylvania Court House, where it was engaged in repulsing thedesperate effort of the enemy to break Gen. Lee's center on May 12.The battle lasted from daylight until past midday, and was one of thebloodiest and hardest contested fields of the war. The enemy werefinally repulsed with sickening slaughter. Thomas' Brigade foughtbravely and suffered severely. It drove the enemy out of a positionpreviously ceded by another portion of the line, and held thatposition through the battle."

Thomas' Brigade left Spottsylvania Court House on May 20, the dayafter John died.

Another description of the actions of Thomas' Brigade during the lastweek of John's life:
Grant's strategy was to attack and then pull back in the direction ofRichmond. The Federals moved east toward the small courthousecommunity of Spotsylvania. A.P. Hill was severely sick with prostateproblems. Jubal A. Early took over command of the corps. On the 8thEarly moved east to the Shady Grove Church area, six miles west ofSpotsylvania Courthouse. The armies then began to close their lines.Early moved to the Confederate right along the road running throughthe town. Lee's forces were now aligned in a fish hook formation. Leesent Heth to move all the way around to attack the Federal right. Burnside then moved toward Early with the main Federal attacksconcentrated on the Confederate center and left.
The main attack came early on the morning of the 12th. The weather waswet, chilly, and foggy. The focal point of the attack came to be knownas the "Bloody Angle." Thomas' Brigade was positioned a mile north oftown and a half mile south of the apex of the angle. Federal forcesunder Gen. Wright launched a massive assault on the Confederatecenter. Three thousand prisoners were taken. Thousands others werekilled and wounded. The Federals swept Ewell's men back toward thecreek. Thomas's Brigade, positioned just beyond the creek, wasassaulted by Burnside. Confederate artillery pounded the attackingcolumns. Parts of Scale's and Thomas's brigades were sent to relieveLane on the far right. Early launched a flank attack on Burnsidecausing him to pull back away from the apex of the angle. The fightinglasted for nearly 22 hours. Finally the men had no more to give. Thefighting died out. The rain continued throughout the night and thenext two days washing away the blood of twenty thousand souls. Thearmies rested and strengthened their lines before another shift to thesoutheast on the 20th.

This was the same unit as contained Mahlon Potts and John's nephewEdmund Jackson Ross.

He died on 7 Jan 1900 in Cullman County, Alabama. He was buried in Hood's Cemetery, Blount County, Alabama (unmarked Grave).

Notes recieved from Doug and Melba Lowe of Allgood, Al:

About Eli J Todd. From all deductions we come up with 1826 as birth date. When you get to his pension records you will really be confused. I am going to send you his actual records and the breakdown I did of them and stored for quick reference. In one place he has himself born in 1820., three years before his parents married. I think this might have to do with a time frame of him receiving the pension. A shame the men of that war had to grovel for a mere piddling pension, when it was such a nasty war, and the soldiers fought so hard! The death date you have of Jan 07, 1900 is correct as it came from these records. Sarah gave this in deposition to rec. Eli's pen. rec.

The following information was received from Deborah and Max Rogers at drogers@

Eli Todd served in the Civil War. He was in the 25th Regiment Alabama Infantry Company F. He was wounded in the Battle of Missionary Ridge in Tennessee.

My notes:

25th Alabama Infantry Regiment

The 25th Alabama Infantry Regiment was organized at Mobile in December 1861 by the consolidation of McClellan's 1st and 6th Alabama Infantry Battalions [smaller than the normal regiment's 1,000 men]. The men were from the counties of Calhoun, Coffee, Pickens, Pike, Randolph, Saint Clair, Shelby, and Talladega. It remained in that vicinity 2-3 months, then went to TN. Brigaded under Gen'l Adley Gladden, the regiment (numbering 305 effectives, because of illness) fought at Shiloh (casualties:

15 k, 75w). Placed under Gen'l Gardner, with the 19th, 22nd, 39th, and 26-50th, the 25th Regiment met with trifling loss at Framington. It moved into KY with Gen'l Braxton Bragg's Army of the Tennessee from the Chattanooga base, but was not engaged in any action. It came back, and participated at Murfreesboro -- Col. Loomis commanding the brigade (casualties: 13k, 88w, 16m, out of about 250 present for duty. The regiment -- Gen'l Zachariah Deas in command of the brigade -- fell back with the army and was in the forward movement at Chickamauga (casualties: 33% of 330 engaged). Total strength, December 1863: 304 men and 174 arms. It again suffered severely at Missionary Ridge, but wintered and recruited at Dalton, GA. All along the bloody track of the hostile armies through north GA, the 25th left a record, especially at New Hope. At Atlanta, 22 July, the regiment lost 49% of its force but captured two stands of colors, and more prisoners than it numbered.
Six days later, near the same spot, the 25th again lost very heavily. It was engaged at Jonesboro without severe loss, but suffered considerably at Columbia, on Hood's arrival in middle Tennessee. At Franklin, the regiment again lost largely, and at Nashville, its loss was not light, but it preserved its organization on the retreat. Proceeding to the Carolinas, the 25th was in Sherman's front, with some casualties at Columbia and Kinston, and with large loss at Bentonville. Consolidated with the 19th, 22nd, 39th, and 26-50th, the regiment was shortly after surrendered at Goldsboro, having about 75 men of the old 25th present for duty.

Will of William L. Todd - on record at Dade County Clerk of Court,Greenfield, Dade, Missouri, USA

In the Name of God, Amen:

I, W. L. Todd, of the County of Dade and State of Missouri, being atthis time in fair health and full possession of my mental faculties,do make and publish this my last will and testamnet, as follows:

I. I direct that all of my just debts, including my funeral expenses,be paid.

II. In view of the fact that I have heretofore given my son, T. N.Todd, eighty acres of land, which i think should be charged up to himin the distribution of my estate; and that I have also some years agoadvanced him One Thousand Dollars, ($1000.00), for which I hold hisnote, I therefore direct that in the distribution of my estate my son,T. n. Todd, be charged with Twenty-Five Hundred Dollars, ($2500.00),on account of the real estate i have given hin and that he also becharged with the One Thousand Dollars, ($1000.00), and all interestthereon from the date of the note up to the date of my death, and thatthe total of these two amounts be deducted before anything is paid tohim out of my estate; with this provision, however, that in case hisproportionate part of my estate does not equal the Twenty-five HundredDollars, ($2500.00), and the note and interest above specified, thenhe is to be turned over the note and not required to pay anything onthe estate.

III. In view of the fact that my son, William O. Todd, has beenadvanced Three Hundred Dollars, ($300.00), by me, I direct that beforehe be permitted to participate in the distribution of my estate thathe be charged with the Three Hundred Dollars, ($300.00), and with allinterest thereon from the date of the note to the day of my death.

IV. In view of the fact that my son, Jasper D. Todd, has beenadvanced Two Hundred Dollars, ($200.00), by me, I direct that beforehe be permitted to participate in the distribution of my estate thathe be charged with the Two Hundred Dollars, ($200.00), and with allinterest thereon from the date of the note to the day of my death.

V. Subject to the above directions, I give, devise and bequeath allof my property, real, mixed, or personal, wheresoever situate, to mychildren, share and share alike, in fee simple absolute.

In case any of my children be dead at hte time of my deathand shallhave living children, then I direct that the share to which my child,if living, would have been entitled shall go to the children of mysaid deceased child, share and share alike.

VI. I appoint my son, R. C. Todd, as executor of this my last willand testament. In Witness Whereof, i have hereunto subscribed my name, this 30th.,day of June, 1919.

(signature) W. L. Todd

The foregoing instrument was at the date thereof signed and declaredby the said W. L. Todd to be his last will and testament, in thepresence of us, who, at his request and his presence, and in thepresence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnessesthereto.

pg 820 New Market Dist

Youngest son of John B. Todd and his wife Elizabeth, he was born inthe Devils Half Acre Community on the Jones/Putnam county line.Samuel J. Todd grew up in the house his grandfather had built on theedge of Jones County, Georgia in those turbulent times just before theCivil War.

When he was nineteen, Samuel was living and working away from home inthe county to the west of Jones, Monroe, where he was an overseer forthe O.H. Ponder plantation. A relative of his employer married MonroeClower, and brought Samuel in contact with the extended Clower family,most notably Monroe's very young niece, Biddie N. Clower.

Biddie (also sometimes called Mittie) was named for her maternalgrandmother and great grandmother, Bridget Thornton and BridgetMaxwell. She was one week from her fourteenth birthday when shemarried the twenty-three year old Samuel in Monroe County on the 1stof February in 1855. They moved with her father and stepmother toNewton Co MS in the summer of 1860. Samuel is listed on the Newton Cocensus as a "micanic" holding 1500$ worth of personal property butrenting his home. There was a family living also in Decatur in 1860not far from Samuel under Harvy W. Todd, (the son of Joseph Todd, sonof John Todd of the Putnam County Will) also from Putnam County.

Census of Newton Co, MS Page 77 - Decatur - 18 July, 1860:

Biddy 20 F Ga

They were living four households from the home of Biddie'sStepmother's father, William McCune.

He joined the Confederate forces when the war came, enlisting March 8of 1862, but was assigned to special detail in Canton MS for most ofthe war. He held the rank of pvt in Co. B, 2nd MS Cavalry (whichincluded the 22nd Miss. Inf.). He was released from Hospital inJackson, MS after the General Surrender in 1865.

Second MS Cavalry Regiment:
The following information is taken directly from Units of theConfederate States Army by Joseph H. Crute, Jr. Published by DerwentBooks; Midlothian, Virginia. (c)1987.

"2nd Cavalry Regiment [also called the 4th and 42nd Regiment] wasorganized during the spring of 1863. It was formerly the 47th MSInfantry Regiment, which never completed its organization. Its memberswere from the counties of Adams, Choctaw, Newton, Lee, Lauderdale,Pontotoc, Kemper, and Hinds. The unit was assigned to W. Adams',Mabry's, and F. C. Armstrong's Brigade. After skirmishing in MS it sawaction in various conflicts in North GA and Alabama. Some of the menwere captured in the fight at Selma, and only a remnant surrenderedwith the Department of Alabama, MS, and East Lousiana. The fieldofficers were Colonels Edward Dillon and J. L. McCarty, LieutenantColonel James Gordon, and Majors J. L. Harris and John J. Perry."

With Mississppi devastated, and Georgia a dimming memory the couplepacked their few belongings onto a flatboat powered by a steam engineSamuel had somehow acquired and rode the rivers north to Arkansas.They arrived at Lewisburg, the major river town on the Arkansasbetween Little Rock and Fort Smith, in the latter part of 1867 orbeginning of 1868.

They removed the engine from the flatboat and found a place to build acabin in the community across the river from Lewisburg. The land theybuilt on in the small community called Opelow's Spring belonged to awidow named Sarah Burge. Samuel built a two story cabin in the samestyle as the Cadron House down river near Conway, but on a muchsmaller scale. The foundation stones are still in the same place today(1999).

The engine now did duty as the power source for a sawmill, and Samueland Biddie bartered milling for what they needed.

The illness that had confined Samuel to hospital as the war ended lefthim considerably weakened and by May 4th of 1868 Samuel was dead.

His widow had two young children to raise and land to farm; sheremarried a year and a half later in December of 1869. Her newhusband, Thomas Jurney, had lived many years in the community andserved in the army of the CSA in a local company. They had twochildren together, Thomas and Nora, though only Nora survivedchildhood.

Nora Jurney married Sim Gentry, and they had two daughters, but bothdied in early childhood. Later she married a widower named Rev. JohnG. Neal, and the two traveled doing missionary work for their church.Neal died in 1948, and Nora died in 1951 in Modesto, California.

Regarding where Samuel is buried: according to the family stories toldby Beulah Welch Todd it was Samuel who brought his family up theArkansas River to Oppelo and built the two storey cabin near "OldBap". Wolf and Perry Cemeteries had not yet been established whenSamuel died in 1868, and the local burying customs were to buryrelatives in a corner of one's own property (usually in a small fencedor loose rock-bordered area) not far from the house, so the livingcould watch over the dead. There is an area which would have beenquite appropriate just to the east of the old cabin's location where,in the 1930s, a dewberry patch was located. It was right in thecenter of cultivated fields, but the family never plowed there -leading to the conclusion that it was resting place forsomebody....most probably Samuel and the earlier Burges who livedthere. This property passed to one of Lonnie Todd's sons, and wasmuch later sold off. Today (1999) it is undeveloped and within sightof James Roy Todd's backyard, just east of Hwy 9.

(Medical):DESC brown hair; blue eyes; light skin; very lean

Samuel married[101,102,103] Biddie N Clower [94,95,96,97,98,99,100] on 1 Feb 1855 in Monroe, Georgia, USA. Biddie was born[104,105,106,107] on 18 May 1841 in Monroe, Georgia, USA. She died on 13 Apr 1899 in Arkansas, USA. She was buried in Arkansas, USA.

Dixie Clower Gallaher has a nickname of Mitt or Mitty for her,probably gotten from her daughter Lucy's children. She did sign hername "Mittie" on family correspondence, but used Biddie on officialland records.

Biddie's uncle James Monroe Clower married Agnes Ponder. Agnes wassomehow related to the employer of Samuel J. Todd.

When Biddy's son and Beulah Welch got married, Biddy reportedly gavethe couple a portion of her land in Oppelo adjoining the land Beulahhad inherited. The main portion of Lonnie and Beulah's land hadoriginally been part of James Franklin Welch's purchase from SarahBurge.

Notes received from Melba and Doug Lowe of Allgood, Al:

William Wesley Todd. Margaret, who went to the courthouse and filed claim against the Rail Road, eight days after Wm Todd died. Margaret is also Manerva. She was called Margaret on first census after her marriage, she has been called Nervy, and in the end Margaret. Wm Todd had a beautiful old stone that a well meaning cousin of ours removed and replaced with new one. He was kind enough to put one down for Margaret but just guessed at her death date. She is, however, buried by Wm, as attested to by an elderly lady who was at her funeral per this cousin. Margaret is not in the death records for Al. at Wallace State either., and newspaper for the mo and yr of Wms death MISSING! 1916 missing for Cindy Todd Allred's, too.

During the summer of 1974, I was working on a haying crew for FayParker at the Sappington Ranch. One day while moving equipment Fayeand I stopped at the Omar Sallee place. When Omar found out that Iwas Paul "Possum" Todd's grandson, he started telling me stories aboutmy grandfather. Omar also told me that he was related to the Todd's.At that time I didn't think much about it. When I started doinggenealogy research many years later, I remembered this conversation.I questioned my Dad and several of my uncles. They said that theywere unsure exactly how we were related.

After some research, I found that Omer and Paul "Possum" Todd's hadthe same Great Grandfather, William Columbus Campbell. William wasmarried twice, his first wife was Mary Ann George from whom "Possum"descends. William's second wife was Melvina Jane Todd (also a Toddrelative), from whom Omer descends.

HAROLD O. ARNOLD - - Born on Aug. 15, 1920, Harold Ollis Arnold diedSept. 2, 2005, due to complications from a fall.

Harold was born in South Dakota when his mother traveled from Bozemanto Milbank, S.D., to visit relatives. They returned when he was twoweeks old. He always joked that he got back as soon as he could. Otherthen that brief two week lapse, he was a lifelong resident of theGallatin Valley.
His family lived in various places in Bozeman until they moved into ahouse on South Sixth. Starting when he was nine years old he soldpapers in front of the Baxter Hotel, making a penny a paper. He hadmany amusing stories about the early citizenry of Bozeman.

Several other jobs included working at a local dairy where he helpedprocess milk, starting at 4 a.m., and then made deliveries at 6 a.m.He worked with his mother and sister at the local pea canningfacilities picking the peas and working in the factory. This was alldone at the ripe old ages of 11 to 15.

Starting at age 15, Harold began driving Mrs. Phillips around town andon trips. One of the most memorable trips for him was when he droveher and a friend to Los Angeles and returned on the bus through LasVegas where he went to an all you could eat shrimp buffet. It was hisfirst taste of shrimp and he ate too much. The rest of the trip wasnot much fun!

At 16 his driving career behind him he went to work for Mr. Phillipsat Phillips Bookstore and Sporting Goods sweeping floors and makingdeliveries. He liked this job so well that that he continued workingat Phillips for 69 years only leaving his post at the store to servein the military and for two years ago when health issues forced him tostay home.

Through the years and the many changes of owners he worked his way upto manager. When the opportunity presented itself, Harold boughtshares of Phillips. In the early 1970s, he became sole owner of whatwas by then called Phillips Bookstore and Office Supply. His dry witand service to his customers made him memorable to the many peoplethat patronized the store over the years.

He attended schools in Bozeman and was a member of the first class tograduate from the brand new Gallatin High School (now Wilson School)in May 1938. Harold served during World War II and was sworn into theNavy in August 1942. He attended Signalman School at Champaign, Ill.,and served on several different ships and carriers until January 1946.

On May 29, 1953, he married Ruth Ellen Larson of Big Timber in Helena. During his life he participated in many local service organizations.He was especially active in the Methodist Church serving as thePresident of Gallatin Methodist Extension Society in 1968. The groupwas instrumental in sponsoring the Senior Social Center for its firstyear of operation. He also served as Associated Member of the SeniorCenter.

His children and friends remember him for his sense of humor and as aloving father. He was always a business man, finding when he was ninethat his paper selling business did much better if he approached thesororities and fraternities on campus where each one of the studentswould buy a paper.

Later, when he owned Phillips and new affordable calculators came out,he couldn't sell the old slide rulers; so he got a great deal on abunch of the slide rulers, waited five years and sold them as noveltyitems and made a profit on them. He loved to hold the customers'babies when they came in the store and always joked that it wasbecause it made it easier for them to write a check.

As his children we remember the countless ways in which his humortouched our lives everyday. When asked about heaven he would say thathe didn't want to go to heaven because none of his friends orrelatives would be there. He liked to sing Mac Davis's song "It's hardto be humble when your perfect in every way." He approached life witha wit and attitude that we hope to emulate in our passage throughlife. We will sorely miss him.

Harold was preceded in death by his mother, Vera Arnold; brother,Robert Arnold; sisters, Betty Arnold and Grace (Arnold) Barhaug.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Ruth; daughters: Diana Arnold,Carla (Rick) Radovich, Chris (Dan) Meade, and Jeanne Arnold, all ofBozeman; and son Paul Arnold of Las Vegas. He is also survived bygrandchildren: Katie McHenry; Kris, Shawn, Cole, Derrick, Dylan, andTysen Radovich; David and Jesse Meade; and Scott Arnold; and onegreat-grandson, Hayden Traver. He also leaves behind many other familymembers and valued friends.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Grace BibleChurch. A reception will follow at the church. In lieu of flowersplease make a contribution to your favorite charity or to the SeniorSocial Center, 807 N. Tracy, Bozeman, 59715.
